

The Warden £500 with a free house and necessary fuel for domestic purposes.

The Chaplains £250 each.

The Physician £200.

The Deputy Warden £200.

5

The Clerk £175.

The Schoolmaster £150.

The Store Keeper £125.

The Clerk of the Kitchen £125.

The Matron £75.

10

The Assistant Matron £50.

The Overseers £112 10 each.

The Keepers £90 each.

The Guards £65 each.

What Officers
may not exercise other callings.

And no person employed in any of the said Offices, except- 15 ing the Inspectors and Physician, shall be allowed to carry on trade or calling of profit or emolument other than the said Office in the Penitentiary ; and no Officer of the said Penitentiary shall have any further emolument, fee, per-quisite or advantage from his or her situation than is herein 20 stated ; nor shall any Officer receive, buy from, or sell to or for any convict any article or thing whatsoever ; nor shall any Officer take or receive for his or her own use or for that of any other person, any fee, gratuity, or emolument, from any convict or visitor or other person connected 25 with the said Penitentiary. Nor shall any Officer be directly or indirectly interested in any contract with, purchase by, or sale to the said Penitentiary. Nor shall any Officer employ any convict or convicts in working for his, the said Officers, own personal benefit or accommoda- 30 tion ; and all the Officers of the Penitentiary shall be exempted during their continuance in Office, from serving as jurymen, militiamen, or as municipal or Parish Officers.

Certain Officers to give security.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That the Warden and Clerk 35 shall severally execute bonds to Her Majesty with sufficient sureties, that is to say, the Warden in the penal sum of two thousand pounds, and the Clerk in the penal sum of one thousand pounds, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices according to law, which bonds shall be filed in the office of the Provincial 40 Secretary ; and the Inspectors may in like manner demand bonds with sureties from the store keeper in the penal sum of £250 and from the Clerk of the kitchen in a like amount, and the said Warden, and all other Officers of the Peni-