

29

-3-

possible evil which this measure seeks to remedy, and its place relative to legislation in other countries confronted with like problems.

As long ago as 1888 a special committee of this House was appointed to report upon the nature, extent and effect of certain combinations which were said to exist in Canada at that time.

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers
Volume C 4