Ottawa, 20th January, 1917.

Sir,

Referring to your letter of the 18th instant, I beg to say that the Department approves of your action in having furnished relief to Mrs. William Ross. You may continue to provide her with relief supplies to the value of $2.50 a week for about two weeks when you should make a further report on her case.

Your obedient servant,

A. D. McLean

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
