like, ~~you~~ you will do what you will be told. When he read the King's Rules & Regs he did not explain us the meaning of that.

Sgt. Brady that we had ~~the~~ since the previous day I have acted as interpreter to the accused who replied to the order of peeling potatoes: "If we can eat something and have a proper place to do it. I'll do it". The Sgt told us: "If in the Canadian Army you do what you like, here you will do what I'll tell you to do." Previously to that, when the three bloody for us he said: "Are you the three bloody French Canadians arrived this morning."
It was surely cold because they made a fire for us. Cpl Boher came to us just when Sgt. Brady gave us his last order to peel potatoes.
The R.P. 83 (b) has been complied with and to the best of my knowledge and abili-lity I certify that it is the true transcrip-
