FATAL FALL

Tilbury Farmer Missed the Bridge in the Dark and Was Hurled to Death.

Large Load of Lumber Fell Upon Him and Death was Instantaneous—Was Highly Respected.

Special to The Planet.

Tilbury, Nov. 9.—John W. Hornick, a well known and highly respected farmer, of Tilbury East, met with a sudden death on Saturday evening last.

He was drawing a large load of lumber, and had reached the bridge at his farm, where there is a very deep ditch.

It is thought that in the dark he made too short a turn and the hind wheels of the wagon missed the bridge, throwing him into the ditch with the lumber on top of him, killing him instantly.

The funeral will leave his late residence to-morrow afternoon at 12.30, for the Methodist Church here, where service will be held, after which the remains will be taken to the Malott Cemetery for interment.

THREE BIG FIRES.

BUFFALO FIREMEN TO THE RESCUE AT FORT ERIE.

A Destructive Fire Threatened the Village—Bullman Bros. Lithographing Establishment at Winnipeg Damaged—Strathroy Manufacturing Company Burned Out.

Winnipeg, Nov. 9.—Bullman Bros. lithographing stockroom was gutted by fire at an early hour on Saturday morning. The loss will be about $8,000. The flames did not in any way injure the plant of the firm owing to prompt work on the part of the fire brigade.

Strathroy, Nov. 9.—A fire started in the Cameron & Dunn Manufacturing Company's building about 12.45 Saturday, originating in the boiler-room, which, with the main building, and contents, was entirely destroyed. The loss will be from $15,000 to $20,000. The fire will mean a great loss to Strathroy, as about forty men will be thrown out of employment.

Fort Erie, Nov. 8.—A fire broke out in the most thickly populated portion of this village about 8 o'clock Sunday, which for a time threatened to destroy the whole village. There were several dwellings and the Methodist church on Queen street burned, also Mr. Bridgman's residence on Prince street. The fire burned fiercely until the chemical from Buffalo arrived. The firemen worked bravely, but were unable to save the home of Mr. Dickey on Queen street. It is not known what the loss will amount to.

New York, Nov. 9.—With Sam Parks in Sing Sing, President Frank Buchanan, of the Bridge and Structural Iron Workers of America and a persistent opponent heretofore of Parks and the latter's policies, has ordered a strike the country over on all contracts held by the Iron League of New York.

DYNAMITE AT THE SOO.

Attempt to Wreck Headgates of the American Canal.

Sault Ste. Marie, Nov. 9.—An attempt to destroy the head gates of the water-power canal in the American Soo was frustrated by the watchman Friday. About midnight he heard some men about, and when he went to investigate they ran. The watchman fired a couple of shots at them, but neither took effect. The town police were notified, and in the search that followed three sticks of dynamite were found. Saturday three more sticks of dynamite were discovered about the gates.

OPERATION ON THE KAISER.

THE REMOVAL OF A GROWTH FROM HIS LARYNX.

Surgeons Expect that He Will be Out of Doors in a Week—Sleeps Well.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—Emperor William underwent an operation yesterday for the removal of a growth from his larynx. The operation was not a serious one.

The following bulletin was issued: "The Emperor spent yesterday quietly in his room. He slept throughout the night without interruption. The appearance of the small wound is satisfactory, and there is no pain or other discomfort in the throat. His Majesty's temperature this morning was 36.3, pulse 60."

The surgeons say they expect that the Emperor will be out of doors in a week. He has arranged a hunting trip for Friday, Nov. 27.

The operation, which was for the removal of a polypus, was performed by Prof. Moritz Schmidt, and was entirely successful. The only inconvenience suffered by his Majesty is that he has been enjoined not to speak until the wound caused by the operation has been healed.

DEFAULTER IS TAKEN TO TASK

Open Letter By Mr. Whitney Demanding by What Right North Renfrew is Kept Vacant.

Patience of People Taxed to the Uttermost—Earning Reputation of Political Freebooter.

Toronto, Nov. 7.—Mr. J. P. Whitney has addressed the following open letter to Premier Ross, protesting against the delay in bringing on the bye-election in North Renfrew:—

Morrisburg, Nov. 6, 1903.

The Hon. G. W. Ross, Premier, etc., Toronto:

Dear Sir,—As an elector of Ontario, as a member of the Legislature, and representing a large majority of the electors of the Province, I take it upon myself to write you this open letter with reference to the vacancy in North Renfrew.

The late member, Mr. Munro, died a few days after the general election of 1902, and the constituency is still without a representative in the Legislature after the lapse of nearly eighteen months.

About the middle of last session—I have not the exact date at hand—the existence of the vacancy was brought to the attention of the Speaker, who later on informed the House that no had issued his warrant, directing the issue of the writ.

No attention has been paid to the Speaker's warrant, and the writ has not been issued, while bye-elections have been held in two constituencies, the vacancies in both of which occurred long subsequent to the death of Mr. Munro.

I desire to know by what right—or rather by what pretence of right or authority—you have interfered to prevent, or delay, the issue of the writ.

How dare you—presumably the guardian of the rights and liberties of the people—say, in effect, to the electors of North Renfrew that they shall be permitted to have representation in the Legislature just when, and only when, it may suit your purposes?

How much longer do you expect the patience of the people to last?

You may have a right to desire the reputation of a political freebooter, but you have no right, or shadow of right, to acquire it by the humiliation of the people, either of North Renfrew, or of the Province at large.

Yours truly,
(Signed) J. P. WHITNEY.

KING EDWARD VII.

THE U.S. DISILLUSIONED.

Monroeism Does Not Prevent Powers From Protecting Their Subjects.

The Hague, Nov. 9.—Prof. Pierantoni, before the Venezuelan Arbitration Tribunal, continuing his argument for Italy, declared that the objections to the employment of force were purely sentimental, and that sentiment ought to be left to women. The blockade had excellent results, as it forced Venezuela to recognize her responsibility for damages resulting from the civil war. The United States, the professor continued, had been "disillusioned as to Monroeism preventing the European powers from interfering to protect their citizens."

PENRHYN STRIKE OVER.

Men to Return to Work Without Having Obtained Concessions.

London, Nov. 9.—The strike in the slate quarries at Port Penrhyn, North Wales, which has been maintained for the last three years, entailing great expense and suffering upon the families of the workmen, has collapsed, the men voting to return to work without having obtained a single concession from the owner, Lord Penrhyn. The strike has been a subject of national interest and was brought up at the last session of Parliament in the hope of settlement, but without avail.

All reading notices of local announcements must be received at this office not later than noon of the day on which it is desired that they appear in The Planet.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

MISS FANNIE M'GARVEY WOUNDS HER UNCLE.

A Demented Young Woman Attacks Patrick Upton With an Axe and Smashes His Skull—Shocking Affair at Strathroy.

Strathroy, Nov. 8.—An incident which will in all probability result in the death of a resident of Adelaide township and a murder trial took place in the west end here at 8.30 Saturday evening. The unfortunate victim of the occurrence is Patrick Upton, aged 45, and the would-be slayer his niece, Fanny McGarvey, aged 38. It appears that Miss McGarvey has been keeping house for Upton, who is single, for the past nineteen years, and it is said that at times she is subject to spells of mental aberration. According to her own statement she attempted the life of Upton in order to save him from some horrible torment, which had appeared to her in a vision. This is also borne out by members of the family, who claim that she has been slightly demented for a number of years. Upton drove to Strathroy from his home, seven miles from town, yesterday afternoon, and called at the McGarvey residence, where he partook of supper with the family.

At the conclusion of the meal the party sat around the kitchen fire in social conversation. Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGarvey, their three children, Miss Fanny Appleton and Miss Fanny McGarvey were in the room. McGarvey was lying on a lounge to the right of Upton, who was sitting in a chair before the fire. Misses Appleton and McGarvey were seated at the left and slightly to the rear of him. During the conversation, the accused, without a moment's warning or the least provocation, arose and producing a short-handled axe from beneath her cape approached Upton before her purpose was grasped by those present, and taking the weapon in both hands, brought it down with terrific force upon his head, inflicting a wound from which his brains oozed out. Upton fell across his chair, and received two more heavy blows before his assailant could be overpowered. Miss Appleton immediately notified Chief of Police Wilson, who entered the house and placed the accused under arrest, and she was soon behind prison bars.

London, Nov. 9.—Fanny McGarvey, the woman who murderously attacked her uncle, Patrick Upton, at Strathroy, was lodged in the county jail here about 10 o'clock by Chief of Police Wilson of that town. She was examined by Dr. McArthur, the jail physician, who pronounces her insane, with a strong homicidal tendency. She told the doctor that her reason for attempting her uncle's life was because he had done something which would send him to Kingston, where anarchists, who had been after him for some time, would torture him to death, and she thought it would be better for her to kill him than that he should suffer torture. The physician ordered her isolated as a precautionary measure. At last accounts Upton was still alive, but the doctors say he cannot recover.
