FLOGGING IN SCHOOL

New York, Jan. 29.—The Brooklyn Teachers' Association, through its executive committee has petitioned the Board of Education to restore to principals of schools the privilege of inflicting corporal punishment on unruly pupils which obtained in Brooklyn before that city's incorporation in Greater New York. The communication received by the Board to-day states that sentiment in the association, numbering 3,543 members, is nearly unanimous for a return to the old methods. Under the present system in New York city children needing correction are reported to their parents through the principal, and it is claimed that the parents are inclined to take the word of the child against that of the teacher, the pupil thereby being encouraged in infractions of discipline.

The Thamesville Curling Club has sent word to Chatham that they wish to compete for the Ferguson trophy, which is now held by them. Chatham, Tilbury, Wallaceburg, Ridgeway and Thamesville are allowed to compete.

An effort will be made to have the competition held in Chatham, as it is the most central place in the county, and the rink is a good size for curling.

A very interesting game of curling was played in the rink yesterday afternoon between two local rinks.

It was a challenged game and it proved very interesting. The two skips were Geo. Fielder and W. Richards. Sixteen ends were played, and the game was not sure for either until the last stone was put, on the last end. It was wildly exciting and lasted for three hours and a half. The following were the rinks: John Stevens, John McCoig, A. B. McCoig, Geo. Fielder, skip, 13; W. D. Sheldon, W. G. Richards, F. Judson, and W. Richards, skip 11.

-- SATELLITE

The Big Show comes next. Lay wide for Robin Hood.

Of course, Henry VIII. was the whole ticket. Wasn't the Satellite in it?

Ten of the east of Henry VIII. are also in Robin Hood. You know the Big Show will be all right.

The Satellite's appearance in tights has had its effect. He now wants a Highland regiment here so he can wear kilts.

G. Arthur Depew's ability soon grew too big for this city, but he wasn't too big feeling to come back to his home town. He's a top notch-er but he loves dear old Chatham.

I guess it wasn't so cold in England 350 years ago when the men used to wear those tight-fitting pants. The atmosphere of Chatham is a little too chilly to make them popular here, even on the stage of the Opera House.

WHAT SHE SAID.

There was a young fellow named Priam

In love with a young girl from Siam.

Says he to the miss,

Will you give me a kiss?"

And she said, "Well, you're stronger than I am."

HE'D ABOLISH ALL LODGES.

Detroit News.

To the Editor: The reason there are so many old maids, so many divorces, so many murders, so much drunkenness and general lawlessness is, in one word—the lodge. Abolish the lodge, the club, the "society" of this, that and the other, and you abolish half the evils and 90 per cent. of the nuisances that afflict society. Let us work and pray to hasten the day when the lodge shall be thoroughly dead and decently and deeply buried.

SHOT FOR GEN. DEBILITY.

The Caledonian Medical Journal has just unearthed an ancient Highland Scottish remedy for general debility which is enough to rout the general and all his cohorts. It is technically known as such nan cabar—juice of deer's horns. The horns were gathered when the animals cast them in the springtime, boiled for some hours, and the soup thus obtained strained and bottled. A dose was followed by a cupful of whiskey and sugar. Of late years the soup is omitted.

SATELLITE'S FRIENDS.

A funny convention is to be held in St. Louis, Mo., during the week of May 29—that of the American Association of Press Humorists. Among distinguished guests will be Champ Clark, of Missouri; Eugene F. Ware, U. S. pension commissioner; Rev. Robert J. Burdette, of Oakland, Cal.; and Eli Perkins. Among the probable topics of discussion are: Fakes, I Have Sprung; Jokes I Have Revivified; Jokes I Have Joked; Why I am a Joker; The Anatomy of a Joke; How to be Humorous; Humor, Real and Unreal; Stolen Fun, and similar technicalities. St. Louis will grin and bear it. A full attendance is expected before the convention is ended. Seats will be free to all who can see a joke.—Detroit News.

LETTER BOX

ROBIN HOOD.

Editor Planet:

Dear Sir,—Owing to the rumor persistently circulated by a few persons that Robin Hood would be presented without an orchestra, we desire to state that the finest orchestra in Detroit has been secured. They will be present at the final rehearsals, as well as at the production. (The names of the orchestra will be published in our bills and programs, which will appear shortly.) Every arrangement has been completed to make this event memorable as strictly high class and pleasing to all.

Yours sincerely,
ROBIN HOOD MANAGEMENT.

FIRE PROTECTION.

To the Editor of This Planet:

Dear Sir,—In a recent issue of your journal an item appeared with regard to a proposed system of fire protection during all local performances. It is expected both these productions will draw full houses, and we, believing it to be of some importance for the citizens of Chatham to know that while the Opera House is as safe at present as at any previous time, it would be doubly so with the system of protection proposed, namely, a means of turning on a large stream of water instantly. Thanking you for space, we remain.

Yours truly,
E. B. JONES, Engineer.

RICHARD PRITCHARD, Chief.

THE QUESTION OF BALDNESS.

This is a vital question with hundreds of men who are bald or partially so. How to overcome the disfigurement lent by baldness is a simple matter when you consider the perfection of modern art in the making of wigs and toupees. The visit of Prof. Dorenwend of Toronto, to Chatham on Wednesday, Feb. 10th, when he will be at the Garner House, renders it possible for any who wish to consult him to do so at his private apartments retained at the Garner House for this purpose. Demonstrations given to show the perfect naturalness of his wigs and toupees. Do not miss this opportunity. Remember the day and date, Wednesday, Feb. 10th.
