Weakly Young Men & Women

are seen everywhere. Heredity or overstudy renders them unfitted to cope with the responsibilities of life, susceptible to consumption or decline. Medicine has failed and must fail, for they need food. Take cod liver oil? No! Their poor stomachs rebel. Take emulsions? No! They are equally distasteful. Nothing will effect a cure but Maltine with Cod Liver Oil. The oil, rendered palatable and easy of digestion, is quickly assimilated, and Maltine, equal in nutrition to the oil, and even surpassing it in energetic action upon the digestive processes, unite in producing increased weight, improved color, and that elasticity and buoyancy which herald returning health. Maltine with Cod Liver Oil has a remedial value ten times greater than emulsions. One of England's greatest physicians (Dr. Fothergill) says:—"There is no remedy that can take the place of Maltine in cases of Debility and Nervous Prostration."

THE FOLDED PAGE.

ELIZABETH T. LLOYD, IN THE AMERICAN FRIEND.

*Up to the quaint old attic as the raindrops pattered down,
And I sat, idly turning a school book—dusty brown—
I came to a leaf that was folded, and marked in a childish hand,
"The teacher says, to leave this now, 'tis hard to understand."*

*What was so hard—I wondered. I opened it with a smile,
Only to read, at the problem's end: "We learned 'why'
after while."
My tears fell thick as the raindrops then, up in the attic old,
As I thought of the leaves that are "folded down" till the days of our lives are told.*

*One was folded there with a tender hand to the sound of the summer rain;
When the dust of years lies thick above, will we open this page again?
And can we write with steady hand, and on our lips a smile;
"At last our Teacher told us 'why,' and we 'learned it—after while!'"*
