TORONTO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 24, 1905

WE PAY INTEREST AT

EVERY FACILITY

ABSOLUTE SECURITY

CANADA PERMANENT MORTCACE CORPORATION

TORONTO STREET, TORONTO

PRICE FIVE CENTS

four was leader of the House of Commons, and had to deal every day, explanation, with arguments and dea venturesome enterprise to attempt thus perplexingly occupied for a matter of merely private and individual concern. I feared that an overworked statesman might feel naturally in-care of some mere official, and that time might thus be lost and the

I received the very next day a reply

written in Balfour's own hand, expressing his cordial willingness to consider the subject, his sympathy

his hope that some help might be gi-

Balfour promptly took the matter in with the purpose of the appeal,

hand, and the result was that ven to the distressed novelist.

with questions, with demands

VOL. XIII., No. 34

· TOPICS OF AN OLD-TIMER

of Ninety-five years, with whom ! was long acquainted-Born near Hamilton and Educated at Dundas— Durand, and was a reformer and inriot in '37 and Imprisoned and forties was much talked about of the "Family Compact"

I desire in this week's issue to pay on Wednesday, Aug. 16, at the adyears and by reputation longer.

I had heard "Charley" Durand talked about long before I knew who he locality. He was born near Hamil- Canada was entitled "Hamilton." ton and it was there I learned the rudiments of the "art preservative." fice as I had seen George Brown, and heard him display his volubil-He saw perilous times and suffered imprisonment and banishment he declared to the last that he had taken no part in fomenting the rebellion of 1837, and was therefore wrongly arrested and falsely impri-

I believe Mr. Durand was the last of the men of '37. Like others, he George Hamilton. If he had retained has left a volume of memoirs. I re- it the member when I was in a Buffalo be named Durand! I knew a number printing office in 1849, seeing there of the Hamiltons - George, Peter, heaps of unbound books written by Josey and others. They persons engaged in the Canadian out- Scotch family that settled early break of the previous decade, detail- the Niagara District. Most of the ing their grievances and sufferings un- earliest settlers of Hamilton, der the so-called Family Compact, ever, were Pennsylvania Dutch farmand I supposed had not been taken ers, who left streaks of settlements off the printers' hands after being in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois in those printed; and it was evident that days, as well as Upper Canada. many persons had crossed the bor-remember many of their names ders after the ill-starred enterprise of Aikmans, Hesses, Sphans, Rymals, William Lyon McKenzie. Some put etc. the figure as high as 25,000.

The late Mr. Durand was a lawyer the way of the immigration to Waby profession, a publisher from taste, terloo county. a temperance advocate from a sense of duty, and a lover of liberty from sentiment. He was a man to make Hamilton mentioned by Mr. Durand sacrifices for his principles. But I do not think he was altogether free from prejudices and a share of crank-He published a volume of reminiscenses a few years ago which is very interesting to a man like myself, who knew so many of the persons mentioned, the locations described, and the circumstances narrated. I do not think that Mr. Durand cared anything for the Irish and positively disliked the Catholics, although he is not so pronounced in his hostility to the latter as he is to the Church of England people; to the late Bishop Strachan and his followers, whom he seemed to hate with a deadly design, I suppose mostly because the members of the Family Compact largely belonged to that Church. his memoirs he says when in exile in Chicago in 1840 and later, the Irish there then were very numerous and befriended him and wanted to support him for office; but he declined their services. I do not notice a sympathetic word from him in their favor in the whole of his big and otherwise very interesting book. As a literary undertaking, however, it is exceedingly inartistic; a iumble of statements without regulation or order; a mixture of family incidents, speculative theology, natural history, migrations, misfortunes and farming, as well as politics, temperance and

Mr. Durand's father was of Welsh birth, but like General Roberts, the commander of the British army, is of French descent from the Huguenots, who were banished from France in the sixteenth century, and spread everywhere, including Ireland and

> THE BUTTON FURRIERS LONDON STYLE

MEN'S HATS

The first consignment of Men's Hats just received, direct from Christy, the famous London Hatter.

Brand new blocks and newer and nicer shades of colorings. A variety of particular shapes

Christy's Derbys $2.50 and $3.00

Also Dineen's special hats, made after the blocks of the

Dineen's Special Derbys $2 50

and $3.00

America, and whose descendants have made and are making a big race mark wherever they are found. A literary United States Senator has asserted that French blood has done more for America than any Death of Charles Durand, a Patriarch other, without making any particular

His father was named James D.

Studied Law in Hamilton and Ad-like his son, and as the latter was mited to the Bar in Toronto-Of known by the diminutive "Charley, so was the father known by the di-French Huguenet Descent - A Pat- minutive "Jimmy," and before the ne was a prominent member of the Exiled for being Friendly to McKen- Upper Canada Parliament, representzie-His Interesting Volume of ing the counties of Wentworth and Reminiscences—His Denunciations sides of Burlington Bay and including Hamilton. The father's family, in the Bay of Quinte district, then buried before that. One I will name. went to or near Dundas for a while, like romance to me. How many now Hamilton. His sad death had a very illes, they are widely scattered. author of which was an Irishman I first saw him in a local printing ofago, and it contained many local hits, one of , which described how some parties tried "by hook or by crook" to get the gaol located in Flamboro for bearing a manly part, although West. This, of course, had reference to the Crooks family, that was so influential in that part of the country in those days. Mr. Durand's father first bought the farm that gave Hamilton its name and on which the town was started, afterwards and "Ambitious City" might now

> One of the earliest families in in his book was the Mills family. There were three brothers of them that I knew, and one named "Mike" that had died. Mr. Durand's father occupied a large farm that had belonged to a Mills that left the province and went to the States at the breaking out of the war of The brother of the Hon. Samuel Mills named "Mike" was suspected of being a rebel sympathizer, although Mr Durand says they were all loyal. Samuel Mil's was a large property owner, but did not command much respect, although Mr. Hincks made a Legislative Councillor of him, and made his brother John Collector of Customs at the port of Hamilton. Samuel Mills was a very small man in more ways than one and was a very exacting landlord. I believe he was murdered by a butcher in a fit of anger over house rent

Nearly all the farmers on the 'Mountain' at first were Pennsylvania Dutch, who stopped there on

The most important Catholic family in Toronto and the County of Essex in early days was the Paby family. I knew some members of it I believe the late Capt. McNamara, a Waterloo soldier, who resided in Toronto, was married to a Baby. Mr. Durand describes the sad death of a member of this family in Dundas by suicide in the year 1832, as tollows:

**************

the exclusive place held by the Heintzman & Co.

PIANO

Ye Olde Firme of Heintz-

For over fifty years we have been giving experience and study to the PianoSalon : 115-117 King St. W., Toronto

perfecting of this great piano.

"In Dundas there was no cemetery | There are very many things in this Halton, lying on the south and north before 1835. Old Mr. Leslie's body volume that interest me, some of was buried on the hill overlooking which I will take up for remark from the town to the south as you go to time to time for elucidation and comafter coming to Canada, first settled Hamilton, and other bodies were ment. It was a poor, unfortunate young a tribute to the memory of an old then Norfolk county, and afterwards man named Baby, belonging to a very shortly before the rebellion, to a To- More than one no list of the day acquaintance who died in this city Ancaster and Hamilton. The subject respectable French family of Amherst- ronto young lady, by whom he had made picturesque use of this singu-

the called in to render any assistance, ex-sheriff of the Gore district, Allen was himself a Preshyterian. McDonnell, as follows: "Ex-Sheriff Angus (Allan) McDonnell, formerly of up the cause of the Indians and re- practising monstrated with the Canadian Gov- came to Toronto on professional busiially Bruce Mines. Angus McDonnell Toronto streets with many others, was residing in Hamilton at the same some of them as guiltless as himself, hours of sleep and of general lic family to reside in Toronto.

One of the very curious circun. Chicago, then litt, e better than a report was signed by William Cald- Mayor and Member of Congress, a well, J. P., chairman. I am woncut afterwards a very conspicuous of America and the rival of Lincoln; cago. The United States Government became Chief Justice of Wisconsin. gave him the control of the Indians in that locality and they were very obedient to him. His father was an Irish officer and his mother an Indian power, was allowed to return to Canwoman, and he was educated in a ada and made his home in Toronto, Jesuit college in Detroit. The Unit- where he practised law. He was a ed States Government secured his great writer of newspaper communiservices for Chicago and he was made cations, was a Son of Temperance the first Justice of the Peace for and published and edited a paper of Northern Illinois, in the early thiz- that name that I will remember. He When the Indians were moved was active in securing subscriptions across the Missouri he went with to erect and present to Mr. McKenzie them, and when he died was buried at a home in Toronto after his return Council Bluffs. He was a very re- from exile; and in erecting a monumarkable character. I know that he ment to the memory of Lount and was from Essex County in Canada. Matthews, martyrs to Canadian free-

Writing of the lawyers that he papers in Hamilton that he used to knew in Chicago in the early forties, contribute to in his younger days he speaks of "an Irishman named were the "Garland," the "Casket" Ryan, who was noisy but smart." the first newspaper called "The Tri- for the Hamilton "Free Press." This bune" and died a few years ago at was in the early thirties. I knew Madison, Wisconsin, then for many its publisher, one William Smith, a years Chief Justice of the State of brother-in-law of Hon. Sam Mills,

DON'T MISS

logue if you have any notion whatever of a College course. It explains all about our modern methods and work which make our graduates so successful in getting the best positions going.

A post card will bring it to you, and we believe it will prompt you to take the most successful step of your life. Will o most successful step of your life. Will

CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGE &

* ESTABLISHED 1856 CELEBRATED LEHIGH VALLEY COAL P. BURNS & CO.

COAL AND WOOD MERCHANTS HEAD OFFICE STREET EAST Toronto. Can. Long Distance Telephones Main 131 and 132

PRINCESS STREET DOCK Telephone Main 190

CORNER FRONT AND BATHURST STS.

BRANCH OFFICES

Telephone Main 449 426 Yonge Street—Telephone Main 3298
572 Queen Street West—Telephone Main 139
304 Queen Street East—Telephone Main 134
429 Spadina Avenue—Telephone Main 2110
1312 Queen Street West—Telephone Park 711
274 Colle to Street—Telephone North 1179
324; Queen Street West—Telephone Main 1409 *

ENGLAND'S PREMIER

And His Former Close Connection With bate turning on the events of the the Irish National Party-Justin war. It seemed to me to be rather McCarthy's Splendid Picture of the to gain the attention of a minister British Premier (Concluded from last week.) Balfour is a man of many and var- clined to remit the subject to the ied tastes and pursuits. He is an advocate of athieticism and is especial- needed helping hand be long delayed, ly distinguished for his devotion to I undertook the task, the game of golf. He obtained at one and I wrote to Mr. Balfour at once. time a certain reputation in London society because of the interest he took in some peculiar phases of fanciful intellectual inventiveness. He was for a while a leading member, if not the actual inventor, of a certain order of psychical research whose mem-Mr. Durand was married twice; first bers were described as The Souls. of this sketch was born on a farm burgh, who for some cause which I sons and daughters, and again to a lar order and enlivened the pages belonging to a man named Mills, near do not know, foolishly committed Hamilton lady, a brother of whom of fiction by fancy portraits of its vanced age of 95 years. I mean the Dundas, where he first went to suicide by taking laudanum, when I I was acquainted with, and with leading members. Such facts as late Charles Durand, whom I had school. The details of Mr. Durand's as a law student was boarding at the whom he also had a family. But like these did much to prevent Balfour known personally for more than fifty earlier life as told in this book, read old wooden hotel of George Carey of most American and Canadian fam- from being associated in the public He mind with only the rivalries of poliknow that Dundas and Ancaster are depressing effect upon me and others, appeared to have been rather bitterly tical parties and the incidents of older places than Hamilton, and that He appeared to be a very fine young opposed to "popery" and took an ac-parliamentary warfare. One somethey had newspapers when Hamilton man, of noble physique and in the tive part in the Manitoba school times came into social circles where was. He was a man who had figured had none; yet this is the fact. One prime days of life. Drs. Rolph of question some years ago. But I un- Balfour was regarded chiefly as when I was a boy, and in the same of the first poems written in Upper Dundas and Merrick of Hamilton were derstand he leaves a son here in To- man of literary tastes and somewhat ronto who is a convert to the Catho- eccentric intellectual developments. lie Church. His father was a mem. All this cast a peculiar reflection Elsewhere he alludes to the late ber of the Church of England, but he over his career as a politician and filled many observers with the idea that he was only playing at parliamentary life, and that his other oc-At the time of the rebellion of Hamilton, in early times there, took December, 1837, Mr. Durand was cupations were the genuine realities law in Hamilton, and for him. Even to this day there are some who persist in believing that ernment. We moderns are not more ness the day of the "rising" and was Balfour, despite his prolonged and careful of the dust of our dead than arrested for treason. Although a unvarying attention to his parliathe ancient Israelites or the Greeks, friend and sympathizer of Mr. Mc- mentary duties, has never given his Romans or Egyptians were. In the Kenzie, he always denied that he had heart to the prosaic and practical lake regions of the country north of ever participated in any treasonable work of administrative office and the Lakes Huron and Superior I recollect practices. In proof that he was business of maintaining his political that about thirty years ago the In- guiltless he states that he was ac- party. Yet it has always had to be dians there were about to go to war companied on law business from Ham- acknowledged that no man attended over their ancestors' graves, which liton at that time by the two lead- more carefully and more closely to were being desecrated as they alleg- ing lawyers of Hamilton, the late such work when he had to do it, and I remember well when Mr. Mac- Judge Miles O'Reilly and George S, that the most devoted worshipper of donnell was Sheriff at Hamilton and Tiffany, both of whom I will remem- political success could not have been afterwards when he used to make ex- ber and of whom I was a neighboring more regular and constant in his atcursions to the northern regions of lad afterwards. He was incarcerated tention to the business of the House Canada about Lake Superior, espect in the old jail, corner of Court and of Commons. People said that he was nature and the sympathetic promptilazy by nature, that he loved long time, but it was Allan who was the and compelled to endure all kinds of and that he detested the methodical much speculation in these countries sheriff. I think either the Babys or indignities. He secured his liberty on and mechanical routine of official concerning the probable successor to the McDonnells were the first Catho- promise that he would leave the work. But I have not known any Lord Salisbury, whenever Lord Salisbury, whenever Lord Salisbury. country, when he spent a year and a Minister of State who was more easy in of approach and more ready to enter sign the position of Prime Minister. into the driest details of departmen-The three notable haract- tal business than Arthur Balfour. I sure to come soon, although very stances that is suggested to me by morass. The three notable charact- tal business than Arthur Balfour. I an item in this book, has reference to ers in Chicago in those days were may say, too, that, whenever appeal Malden township. It remarks: "There I long John Wentworth," a raw and was made to him to forward any likely to come quite so soon. The is an Indian reserve of a large kind has Vankee young man, who got to good work or to do any act of kindkept up for the Huron Indians. The be editor of the first paper there, ness, he was always to be found at would not be expected, for some time his post and was ever ready to lend at least, to put up again with sort of Whittington; Stephen A. a helping and if he could. I remember one instance of this

Douglass, a young lawyer, who bementioning, although I am quite sure mons, many years ago it was brought to my knowledge that an English literary Mr. Durand, in the middle forties, when Baldwin and Lafontaine were in from going on with her work, and mentary debate, "but there," well-merited sympathy. dom, in the Necropolis. Among the -a very small fund, truly-at the newspaper, "to put it mile and a rather worthless personage, disposal of the Government for the a bookworm." who had been engaged in several doubtful literary ventures. Mr. Durto be in distress. and mentions a very early paper published by his own father, and in which General Treasury, the office which was then, as now, held by Arthur Balfour: I Brock published his proclamation was still at that time a member of calling the Canadians to arms in the war of 1812. The Smith referred to here published a paper called "The Bee" during the forties in Hamilton, about the whole business, I might be subject. Balfour is by nature a moury and make appeal for his assist- and character of a successful muni-I believe that Mr. Durand had some ance. My friend's belief was that cipal politician are always evident in admirable qualities and was warmly the application might come with nterested in the welfare of his felmore effect from one who had been ow man. He was patriotic truthfor a long time a member of Parliaul, unselfish, temperate and religious. ment, whose name would therefore be It may be that he was over-zealous known to the First Lord of the Treaand somewhat cranky. I have great surv, than from a literary man who pleasure, however, in perusing his had nothing to do with parliamen-tary life. Nothing could give me book, the existence of which I was on account of my long absence from greater pleasure than to become the not aware of until a few days ago, might be brought under notice of the WILLIAM HALLEY. First Lord, but I felt some difficulty and doubt because of the conditions The true strength of every human of the time. England was then in soul is to be dependent on as many the most distracting period of the nobler as it can discern, and to be South African war. We were hearing depended upon by as many inferior every day of fresh mishaps and disasters in the campaign. Arthur Bal-grant was made from the State fund to secure the novelist against any actual distress. Now, I do not want to make too nuch of this act of ready kindness done by Mr. Balfour. The appeal was made for a most deserving object; the fund from which help was to be given was entirely at Mr. Balfour's disposal; and it is probable that any other First Lord in the same circumstances would have come to the same decision, but how easy it would have been for Mr. Balfour to put the whole matter into the hands of some subordinate and not to add a new trouble to his own intensely busy life at such an exciting crisis by entering into the close consideration of a mere question of state beneficence I certainly should not have been surprised if I had not received an answer to my letter for several days after I had sent it, and if even then it had come from some subordinate in the Government department. But in the midst of all his incessant and distracting occupations at a most exciting period of public business Mr. Balfour found time to consider the question himself, to reply with his own hand, and to see that the desired help was promptly I must say that I think accorded. this short passage of personal history speaks highly for the kindly

For a long time there had been

bury should make up his mind to refew of us had any idea that it was Prime Minister in the House of Lords. If, therefore, the new Prime Minister Billy" Caldwell, Indian Chief, who came leader of the Democratic party kind which I have no hesitation in had to be found in the House of Comfigure in the early history of Chi- and the young Irishman, Ryan, who Mr. Balfour had little inclination for choice between two men, Arthur Balits obtaining publicity. Not very four and Joseph Chamberlain. It would be hard to find two men in the House of Commons more unlike each woman who had won much and deserv- other in characteristic qualities and ed distinction as a novel-writer, had in training than these two. They are been for some time sinking into ill both endowed with remarkable capahealth, had been therefore prevented city for political life and for parliahad in the mean time been perplexed Byron says concerning two of whom by worldly difficulties and embar- one was a Joseph, "I doubt all like-rassments which interfered sadly with ness ends between the pair." Balfour her prospects and made her a subject is an aristocrat of aristocrats; Cham-Some berlain is essentially a man of the friends of the authoress were natural- British middle class-even what is ly anxious, if possible, to give her generally called the lower middle helping hand, and the idea occurred class. Balfour has gone through all to them that she would be a most the regular course of university edufitting recipient of assistance to be cation; Chamberlain was for a short bestowed by a department of the time at University College School in State. One of her friends, himself a London, a popular institution of modistinguished novelist, who happened dern origin which does most valuand the "Voyageur," papers that I to be a friend of mine, spoke to me able educational work, but is not never heard of before, and which must with this object, assuming that, as largely patronized by the classes who brilliant. He was the publisher of have been short lived. He also wrote the for the Healtown the Healtown the for the Healtown th would be likely to know about the of many literatures and languages; manner in which such help might be "Mr. Chamberlain," according to obtained. There is in England a fund leading article in a London daily Balfour loves openhelp of deserving authors who happen air sports and is a votary of athle-This fund is at ticism; Chamberlain never takes any the disposal of the First Lord of the exercise, even walking exercise, when he can possibly avoid the troubie. Balfour is an aesthetic lover of all the arts, Chamberlain has never, so the House of Commons, and my friend far as I know, given the slightest insuggested that, as I knew someshing dication of interest in any artistic a suitable person to represent the dest and retiring man; Chamberiain case to the first Lord of the Treas- is always "Pushful Joe." The stamp

(Concluded on page 5.)

One Section $3.00

Every home should have our Sectional Book Case. Keeps your books, keeps your temper in check, keeps your house tidy. Write for Catalogue to day.

THE OFFICE SPECIALTY MFG. CO. 97-105 Wellington St. W.

TORONTO FACTORIES: NEWMARKET.

••••••••••••••••

That's the expression used by the greatest musicians to mark

T RONTO, - ONT.

W. H. SHAW. . . Principal ***************

but it was very short lived.

ORDER YOUR COAL NOW

And take advantage of Summer

Rates

THE IMPERIAL COAL CO.

1129 YONGE ST. Telephone North 2082

E. MURPHY

M. MURPHY