Ultramontaniam and Equal Rights.

The conflict between Ultramontaniam and the commonwealth is not peculiar to Canada, as people seem to fancy when they talk of the Equal Rights movement as an insidious attack on Confederation. It is going on over the whole world. It is coming to a crisis in the United States, where Jesuitism has been trying to subvert the Public School system, and at the same time to get hold in several States of the public revenues for the purposes of its propagandism, while the friends of Equal Rights are agitating for the adoption of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the use of any public funds for sectarian objects. It is going on in Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, and all over Europe. Deprived of her old political pillars by the fall or decadence of the Catholic monarchies, the Church of Rome hopes to find new support in the more simple-minded and ignorant of the people, who hold political power under the system of universal suffrage. She is even inclined, for the sake of gaining votes, to coquette with socialism, though she will assuredly do it to her ruin. The separate schools and the Jesuits' Estates Act are merely the particular points at which modern society in Canada happens to have come into collision with the advancing forces of priestly reaction. Those forces are moving forward their last battle over the whole field, and it is probable that everywhere the struggle will be stern before they finally succumb. As to confederation, it will be safe enough so far as this question is concerned if it can secure to us equality and right; if it cannot secure to us equality and right it ought not to be safe.—Mail.

Imperial Federation.

A meeting of the organizing committee of the Imperial Federation League in Canada took place on the 23rd March, at Col. Denison's office in Toronto. The resignation of Mr. Moberly, as secretary, was accepted with regret, and Mr. J. Castell Hopkins consented to take his place. Anyone desirous of information, literature or assistance in furthering the movement in favour of closer British relations can obtain help in the matter by communicating with Mr. Hopkins, at 27 Elm street, Toronto.

A Little Sermon.

He who discerns nothing but mechanism in the universe has in the fatest way missed the secret of the universe altogether. That all Godhood should vanish out of men's conception of this universe seems to me precisely the most brutal error—I will not disparage heathenism by calling it a heathen error—that men could fall into. It is not true: it is false at the very heart of it. One might call it the most lamentable of delusions, not forgetting witchcraft itself. Witchcraft worshipped at least a living devil; but this worships a dead iron devil—no God, not even a devil! Whatsoever is noble, divine, inspired, drops thereby out of life. There remains everywhere in life a despicable caput mortuum—the mechanical hull, all soul fled out of it.—Carlyle.

WHERE SHOULD THE CONSUMER BUY ?

In the ordinary course of trade the consumer buys his tea from the retailer, the retailer from the jobber, the jobber from the importer, the importer from the producer: This is commonly known as the regular channel of trade. This is necessary in most cases as many merchants, both wholesale and retail, have not sufficient trade to purchase from the place of growth.

STROUD BROS.

are one of the few firms who have built up a trade sufficient to enable them to purchase from first hands and the benefit of such buying enables them to be the medium through which the Consumer of Tea can purchase that article WITHOUT PAYING SEVERAL PROFITS.

STROUD BROS' name has become an household word in every home in this great Dominion and their teas are noted for their

PURITY, FRAGRANCE AND STRENGTH.

STROUD BROS. strongly recommend the tea-drinking public to try any of the following brands:—

BLACK, MIXED OR GREEN AT 30 cts. ASSAM (Specially recommended) at 30 cts. THIS IS AN EXTRAORDINARY TEA FOR THE MONEY.

ALSO THE 50c., 55c., OR 60c., PRIZE TEA.

The quality of our tea and the Prizes given with each pound is a woddler to the trade that such value can be given.

Buying from first hands and SELLING AT A SMALL PROFIT is the SECRET OF SUCCESS.
