

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO.

PROGRAM OF LOCAL LECTURES TO BE DELIVERED DURING 1901-1902.

Professor W. J. Alexander—(1) Aims in Life and Education; (2) The Function of Poetry; (3) The Poetry of Robert Browning; (4) Tennyson's "In Memoriam"; (5) The Novel, Its Origin and Use; (6) The Novels of Jane Austen; (7) Robert Louis Stevenson (one or two lectures, as desired).

Professor E. I. Badgley—(1) The Ring of Gyges; (2) Plato's Contribution to Christian Thought; (3) Immanuel Kant, His Ethics and Religious Teaching; (4) John Stuart Mill; (5) Herbert Spencer.

Professor Alfred Baker—(1) "The Hard-Grained Muses of the Cane and Square"; (2) Genius in Cubes and Squares; (3) Astrology; (4) Hero of Alexandria—A Study in Greek Mathematical Science; (5) The Science of the Ancient Greeks, and the Debt We Owe Them; (6) The Nebular Hypothesis; (7) The Beginnings of Astronomy.

Mr. J. Home Cameron, M.A.—(1) The English Pre-Raphaelites (one or two lectures, as desired).

Mr. St. Elme de Champ, B. Es. L.—(1) L'Aiglon; (2) Le Roman Francais avant 1850; (3) Le Roman Francais Contemporain.

Professor A. P. Coleman—(1) The Canadian Lakes; (2) The Rivers of Canada; (3) The Rocky Mountains; (4) The Klondike.

Professor Polham Edgar—(1) Nationalism in Poetry and Canadian Poets; (2) The Nature Poetry of Our Great English Poets; (3) Shelley, the Man and the Poet.

Professor W. H. Fraser—(1) Dante and the Divina Commedia; (2) Manzoni, Hugo, and the Romantics; (3) Mediaeval Italy and Florence of the Renaissance; (4) A Glimpse of Italy; (5) Michael Angelo; (6) Raphael.

Professor L. E. Horning—(1) The Evolution of an Author—A Study of Young Goethe; (2) Faust; (3) Influence of English Literature on the German of the Eighteenth Century; (4) Life in England in the Days of Alfred; (5) Kipling; (6) Canadian Literature; (7) Early Canadian Magazines and Authors.

Professor J. G. Hume—(1) How to Think; (2) Eras of Doubt and Triumph of Faith in Ancient and Modern Times (two lectures); (3) Problems of Social Reform. Professor Hume is also prepared to give series of lectures in Ethics and the History of Philosophy.

Professor Maurice Hutton—(1) The Statesmen of Athens; (2) Greek Virtues and Theories of Life; (3) The Women of Greece; (4) Some Oxford Types (first series); (5) Some Oxford Types (second series); (6) The Mind of Herodotus; (7) Some Aspects of Classical Education; (8) The Roman, the Greek, the Englishman, and the Frenchman (one or two lectures, as desired); (9) Plato on University Education; (10) The Antigone of Sophocles; (11) Athenian Literature (first period); (12) Athenian Literature (second period); (13) Roman Life, Literature, and Later Analogies (two lectures); (14) Plutarch; (15) The Tyrants of Greece; (16) Some Educational Controversies; (17) Robert Browning as a Greek Scholar.

Professor Hutton is also prepared to deliver series of lectures on the Antigone of Sophocles, on the History of the Gracchi, and on the History of the Tyrants of Greece.

Mr. D. R. Keys, M.A.—(1) The American Humorists; (2) The Life and Times of Shakespeare; (3) Macaulay; (4) Thackeray; (5) Scott; (6) Gladstone as a Writer; (7) Matthew Arnold, the Apostle of Culture; (8) Oliver Wendell Holmes; (9) The Italy of the Ring and the Book; (10) Alfred, King of the Anglo-Saxons.

Professor W. R. Long—(1) Matter at Low Temperatures; (2) The Development of the Modern High Explosives; (3) The Chemical and Mineral Exhibits at the Glasgow International Exhibition, 1901.

Professor J. F. McCurdy—(1) The Message of Israel; (2) Our Debt to the East; (3) Bible Lands and Peoples; (4) The Beginning of the World; (5) Our Eastern Words and Their Story; (6) The Bible in the Schools; Needs and Obligations; (7) The Bible in the Schools; Difficulties and Methods; (8) The Poetry of the Bible; (9) Greece, Rome, and Israel; (10) The Prophets of Israel.

Professor J. F. McLaughlin—(1) Mohammed and His Koran; (2) The Story of the Hebrew Bible; (3) The Story of the English Bible; (4) The Poetry of the Hebrews.

Professor A. B. Macallum—(1) Life and Culture of Prehistoric Man (2) The Brain and Its Functions; (3) Life and Works of Huxley. Mr. Eugene Masson—(1) Madame de Staël; (2) Lamartine; (3) Dumas pere; (4) Dumas fils. Professor James Mavor—(1) Russia; (2) The Paris Exposition. Mr. R. G. Murison, M.A., B.D.—(1) Buried Civilization; (2) Recent Discoveries in Egypt; (3) Animal Worship. Mr. G. H. Needler, B.A., Ph.D.—(1) The German Empire and Its People; (2) Heinrich Heine and Young Germany; (3) Martin Luther from the Literary Standpoint; (4) The Nibelungenlied—the Illad of Germany.

Professor A. H. Reynar—(1) Literature, Its Nature and Its Uses; (2) Classics, Ancient and Modern; (3) King Alfred and the English of a Thousand Years Ago; (4) Chaucer; (5) Robert Browning; (6) Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

Professor J. C. Robertson—(1) Glimpses of Greek Life; (2) The Contribution of Greece to Civilization; (3) Social Ideals of Plato and William Morris; (4) Saint Socrates; (5) The Republic of Plato; (6) The Story of Our Mother Tongue.

Mr. F. Tracy, B.A., Ph.D.—(1) The Republic of Plato; (2) Stoicism and Christianity.

Mr. S. M. Wickett, B.A., Ph.D.—The Study of Political Economy; (2) Money; (3) City Government in Canada.

Professor R. Ramsay Wright—(1) Malaria and Mosquitoes (illustrated with diagrams); (2) The Microscopic Life of the Sea.

Professor G. M. Wrong—(1) Oliver Cromwell; (2) Napoleon I. and Russia; (3) The Historian's Sphere of Work.

Professor J. McGregor Young—(1) The Royal Prerogative; (2) The Monroe Doctrine.

*With lantern illustrations. Literary or scientific organizations desiring the services of lecturers will communicate with the secretary. The terms will be the payment (1) of the personal expenses of the lecturer, (2) of a fee of $5 for each lecture, to be devoted to University purposes.

J. SQUAIR, Secretary of Committee. University of Toronto, October 31, '01.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

The College Team Defeats McMaster By 12 to 5.

MEETING OF LITERARY SOCIETY.

Last Friday afternoon St. Michael's took another scalp. McMaster University being the victim. McMaster kicked off to Carey, and then the fun started. Here Capt. Dooley slipped a few things out of his sleeve, and when Carey, Kelley, and Collins stopped sprinting, the ball was on McMaster's three-yard line and St. Michael's College had a free kick for offside. Here Dooley took the ball, and while Carey proceeded to mesmerize the opposing bunch, Dooley faked and crossed. Dooley converted an easy goal. McArthur kicked to Duffy, who attempted to run and was nailed at the center of the field. Dooley, Carey, and Collins, after several rushes and exchanges, carried the ball to five-yard line. Here time came to the rescue and saved McMaster. Score 6 to 0. Dooley kicked off to McArthur, who carried it back to center. After several remarkable punts by J. B. McArthur and some dangerous rushes the ball was on St. Michael's College's five-yard line. Dooley kicked off and McArthur returned a dropped kick from the 30-yard line, making a very nice goal and also the first score against St. Michael's College this year. Kehoe kicked off, and in a short time the ball was on McMaster's five-yard line. Here St. Michael's College displayed some elegant tackling, and the ball was over for a touch. Dooley converted an easy goal. Dixon, Duffy, and Gibbons held their giant opponents in nice style. Clark Rosler, and Rielly did some nice tackling, while Nealon and the scrimmage did the following up. For aggressive work Dooley, Carey, and Kelley take the apples, while McArthur and McDonald ought to eat for McMaster. Score 12 to 5. Line-up:

St. Michael's—Back, Pickett; halves, Collins, Dooley, Carey; quarter, J. F. Kelley; scrimmage, McAuley, Kehoe, Burke; wings, Duffy, Clarke, Dixon, Rielly, Rosler, Nealon, Gibbons.

McMaster—Back, McArthur; halves, Stephens, McArthur, Hayden; quarter, McDonald (captain); scrimmage, Beck, Poasie, Brownlee; wings, Laidley, Parker, Cranston, Tonic, Guyatt, Duncan, Vail.

Referee, Mr. Woods; umpire, Mr. Cryne.

Last Wednesday Messrs. Fowler, Burwash, and Smith of Victoria lined up on St. Michael's alley for the first game in "B" series for the inter-collegiate hand ball championship. The game was the fastest yet played in the league. "Willie" Ruddy was the particularly bright star for St. Michael's, although Quinn and Plourde both played fine games. For Victoria Fowler put up a swell game, and deserved better luck. The under hand stroke of the Saints proved too much for their opponents, who could only pile up nine, while the former pulled out twenty-five. Although it was a bad defeat for Victoria, still they will put up a better game on their own alley for the return game.

For stationery, books, and "lead pencils" give Jerry a call.

F. J. McFlinn is again on the sick list.

On Tuesday evening the second regular meeting of St. Charles Literary Society was held. The attendance was large, and a very interesting evening was the result. Joe Rosler moved the adoption of the minutes, which were seconded by Stanley McGrath. An essay from S. Nealon was the first item. His composition was good, and he rendered it in good clear style. M. C. King was next called on for his paper, which showed good work and study. The third number on the program was J. A. Cunningham's composition, which was cleverly written, and reflected much credit on the writer. Gerald Forster was next called, and, judging from his essay he has improved in literary work very much since last year. His was the last composition, and after him A. Gore gave a very lengthy reading, which was good, but a little too long. John McAuley's selection was very interesting, and possessed the great charm of brevity. This concluded the program of what was a very successful meeting.

Poor Senator O'Brien's friend "Dick" is a dead one. Dooley's morning coat made a big hit.

Last Thursday afternoon the second handball team played the Dentals on the latter's alley. The game was not so good as some that have been played in that league. The finish, however, was fast and very close. The Dents won by the narrow margin of one point, the score being 24-25. It was a sore touch to lose that game, for we expected to see the two teams tie for first place. But the seconds will have to get a move on if they expect to land the cup.

We were sorry we could not give the Victoria High school team a game on Saturday last, as the date was filled. The regular meeting of St. Michael's Literary Society was held last Friday evening. The attendance was large and enthusiastic. After the minutes of last meeting had been read by the reverend president, Mr. P. McGrath moved their adoption and found a seconder in Mr. Hopkins. The president took advantage of his opportunity to rebuke the writers of the last meeting in his own witty way. His chief victims were Mr. McGrath and Mr. John Shanahan, and no doubt these gentlemen will take his kind rebukes and profit by them. Mr. P. Hopkins opened the meeting with a clever and humorous essay on "Corporation and Capitalism." He set before us a strong argument against unionism which is such a burden for the poor laborer to carry. The essay was much after the style of "Mr. Dooley in Peace and War." Yet it had underlyingly its funny sayings many truths which impress one more than its humor. Mr. Redmond then read a short though interesting story, entitled "An Unwelcome Guest." The theme, although a little ambiguous in places, was well received by the audience. The third item was a paper by Mr. Eddie Morlarity, "A Peep Into the Future." The work was very clever and extremely funny, and met with loud applause. The mental pictures he drew of some of his fellow-students were very cleverly constructed, and roused great laughter among his hearers. Mr. John Carey was to have been the next reader, but owing to the football game that afternoon John absented himself to nurse his wounds. Mr. Joe Dooley read Carey's essay in his own way. Joe's French pronunciation was original, if nothing else. Still, as most of us had forgotten the "Dryfus Case," which was the title of the essay, no one noticed Dooley's slaughter of French. Mr. C. English concluded what was a very pleasant evening with an essay on "Slavery." The reader, although a little embarrassed, did well indeed, and well deserved the praise of the critic. At the conclusion of this last paper, Mr. H. Richard moved the meeting be adjourned, which was carried with due formality. The date of the next meeting was set for Friday evening next, when the following will entertain us: Messrs. Cyrnane, Murphy, Welch, Eagan, and Wadlock.

WYCLIFFE COLLEGE.

Ding, dong, dell, Who stole the Bell? What a give-away story! It's old tongue did tell!

A strange and explicable disease is playing havoc with some of the men this year, in the form of a mania for taking unto themselves all the bells on which they can lay their hands. But even bell jokes can sometimes be "told" once too often. Verbum sap. etc. Ring off, Central!

The regular meeting of the Literary Society was held in the East Assembly Hall on Friday night at 7 p.m. The president, Mr. C. Masters, B.A., ably filled the chair. It was decided to hold a reception in the near future to all the Church of England undergraduates at the University. A more formal at home is on the books for the opening of this spring term. A brisk, business-like meeting was brought to a close inside the hour, so as to give the men an opportunity to get over to the Students' Union for the inter-year debate.

For it's always fair weather, When good fellows get together . . . writes the poet, and if his words are to be relied upon, there certainly were few rain clouds over the college on Wednesday evening. At any rate, the good fellows got together and a jollier time than was spent from 10 to 12 that night in Rome; no one could wish for "Good Friar Tuck" was a host to himself, as all agreed with one accord—the more readily so because ere long it was self-evident what a host of good things he could tuck in himself. (This mix-up is no doubt due to the confusion which prevailed during the banquet.) However, everybody did full and ample justice to the sumptuous repast, and, as Doherty, '04, put it, "political-scientifically." Competition was kept keen, for the demand never fell below the supply. Marcus Aurelius Pharaoh Stone-wall Jackson became so attached to a plate of honey which quite inadvertently had been placed on the chair on which he sat that, to use a Shakespearean expression, he got "all stuck on it." Such little diversions were as frequent as they were interesting. The entertainment proper, which followed, was a veritable flow of reason and feast of the soul. A quartette—"Mary Had a Little Lamb"—with the tenor missing, was sung with such tender pathos and breadth of interpretation that the audience was moved to tearful remonstrances. The perpetrators were permitted to remain on condition of their not repeating the offence. In order not to mar the harmony or disturb the hush which prevailed (outside) a quiet boxing bout was suggested and unanimously approved of. The gloves appeared in the twinkling of an eye, and two minors—Harrison II. and Haslam II.—were put up to strive for the honor of their departed (only academically defunct) brother's shades. Things got decidedly interesting right from the start. Many abortive blows the heroes banded with each other. First one then the other had the advantage. The spectators grouped around with bated breath, and straining eye. Then Haslam, towering high like some huge fortress, let out at his opponent, and would have felled him to the ground had he not missed him by some six yards or more. The other foresaw the move, and slipped aside. Alas! Poor Haslam spent his force upon the wind, and, impelled by the great effort, his glove went crashing through the (open) window, out into the darkness of the quad below. Then the shades themselves took a hand in the game, and Act I. Scene 2 (with variations) was suddenly brought on. The lights were extinguished by some strange hand, and darkness and disorder reigned supreme. No light, but rather a darkness, visible served to reveal tangled confusion, and a heterogeneous mass of struggling humanity endeavoring to locate the place of exit. But when the dust began to settle the lights were lit, the remains of the turkey, etc., replaced upon the table, and the festivities, which had been somewhat interrupted by intermittent proceedings, were resumed and brought to a joyous conclusion. All went merrily to the end, when mutual congratulations were indulged in on having passed such a happy "quiet hour" together. A vote of thanks is contemplated for the donors of the feast, with an addenda setting forth the many and obvious advantages to be derived from frequent repetitions of the same. The Friar says his hermitage is open for all such "little diversions" any day or night—night preferred, if convenient.

Notes. Who climbed the tree? Who did up Hallam's room? Who said "Harry" couldn't play the organ. Who says life in Residence isn't a good half of a man's education? New Business—A rumor to the effect that two new men are wearing silk hats and carrying canes. Referred to the "Tap and Decoration Committee."

One of the fellows mistook the elevator shaft for his clothes-closet the other night. His delusion was rudely broken when he struck the ground floor. It was hard to have him go down so quickly in the opinion of the fellows who saw him disappear—for "Freddie" is a mighty popular boy, anyway. Congratulations to Jackson, '05, on his appointment as first-year representative on the Executive of the University Lit.; and to W. Woodroffe, '02, on being chosen debater against Queen's. More men than ever are taking an active interest in the meetings this year. The advantages are too great to be lightly set aside. And when all is said and done, the success of the society depends not on the Senate, nor the president, nor yet the faculty, but on each and every one of the undergraduate body. Let each one do his part in making the Lit. what it ought to be.

PRIMARY MEDS.

The game of Association football played last Tuesday afternoon between the S.P.S. and Toronto Meds. resulted in a defeat for the Meds. Nevertheless it was a good game, as was shown by the score at half-time, which stood 0-0. It was a stubbornly-contested game all the way through, the S.P.S. men finally pulling out winners to the tune of 1-0. Both teams were very evenly matched. Never mind, Meds.; it would not be right for us to win in everything from the S.P.S.

Three representatives were chosen last Tuesday to act on the Dinner Committee. They are as follows: Campbell, Watterson, and McComb. That the annual Meds.' dinner will be a success goes without saying.

There is some talk of the Meds. holding a conversat. some time after Christmas. Help it along, boys. We should have one by all means.

The freshies are looking forward to their home exams, with a great deal of delight. Don't get excited freshie and you'll get your marks all right.

The Primary Meds. have entered the Malack Cup Series, and elected the following men: Captain, George Biggs; committee, Watterson, Gilbert, and McClaren. That they will get in the game there is no doubt.

CHEMICO-METRICAL MADRIGAL. I know a maiden, charming and true, With beautiful eyes like the cobalt blue Of the borax bead, and I guess she'll do, If she hasn't another reaction.

Her form is no bundle of toilet shams, Her beauty no boon of arsenical balms, And she weighs just sixty-two kilograms. To a deci-decimal fraction.

Her hair is a crown, I can truthfully state, 'Tis a metre long, nor curly, nor straight, And it is as yellow as plumbic chromate, In a slightly acid solution.

And when she speaks from parlor or stump, The words which gracefully gambol and jump, Sound sweet like the water of Sprengel's pump In magnesian phosphate ablutio.

One day I said, "I will leave you for years," To try her love by rousing her fears; She shed a deciliter of tears, Turning brown the turmeric yellow.

To dry her tears I gave her, you know, A hectogram of candy; also To bathe her red eyes some H<sub>2</sub>O; She said, "You're a naughty fellow."

I have bought me a lot—about a hectogram— And have built me a house ten metres square, And soon, I think, I shall take her there— My tart little acid radicle.

Perhaps little sailors on life's deep sea, Will be the salts of this chemistry,

And the lisp of the infantile A, B, C, Be the refrain of this Madrigal.

Wally, '05, declares positively that he will receive no more lady friends after 9 p.m.

The Decorating Committee of the Y. M.C.A. did some very tasteful lettering on some of the houses in the vicinity of the college on Halloween.

The sudden drop in the mercury last week induced quite a large number of the freshmen to change their lodgings. The naughty-fives are generally on the lookout for something warm.

One of our enterprising freshmen has introduced the quite original idea of carrying his bones around in a laundry-bag.

Strange that Serson has been smoking the same kind of cigars that were taken from Harris' room. John says he got them in a second-hand shop.

A strange and explicable disease is playing havoc with some of the men this year, in the form of a mania for taking unto themselves all the bells on which they can lay their hands. But even bell jokes can sometimes be "told" once too often. Verbum sap. etc. Ring off, Central!

The regular meeting of the Literary Society was held in the East Assembly Hall on Friday night at 7 p.m. The president, Mr. C. Masters, B.A., ably filled the chair. It was decided to hold a reception in the near future to all the Church of England undergraduates at the University. A more formal at home is on the books for the opening of this spring term. A brisk, business-like meeting was brought to a close inside the hour, so as to give the men an opportunity to get over to the Students' Union for the inter-year debate.

For it's always fair weather, When good fellows get together . . . writes the poet, and if his words are to be relied upon, there certainly were few rain clouds over the college on Wednesday evening. At any rate, the good fellows got together and a jollier time than was spent from 10 to 12 that night in Rome; no one could wish for "Good Friar Tuck" was a host to himself, as all agreed with one accord—the more readily so because ere long it was self-evident what a host of good things he could tuck in himself. (This mix-up is no doubt due to the confusion which prevailed during the banquet.) However, everybody did full and ample justice to the sumptuous repast, and, as Doherty, '04, put it, "political-scientifically." Competition was kept keen, for the demand never fell below the supply. Marcus Aurelius Pharaoh Stone-wall Jackson became so attached to a plate of honey which quite inadvertently had been placed on the chair on which he sat that, to use a Shakespearean expression, he got "all stuck on it." Such little diversions were as frequent as they were interesting. The entertainment proper, which followed, was a veritable flow of reason and feast of the soul. A quartette—"Mary Had a Little Lamb"—with the tenor missing, was sung with such tender pathos and breadth of interpretation that the audience was moved to tearful remonstrances. The perpetrators were permitted to remain on condition of their not repeating the offence. In order not to mar the harmony or disturb the hush which prevailed (outside) a quiet boxing bout was suggested and unanimously approved of. The gloves appeared in the twinkling of an eye, and two minors—Harrison II. and Haslam II.—were put up to strive for the honor of their departed (only academically defunct) brother's shades. Things got decidedly interesting right from the start. Many abortive blows the heroes banded with each other. First one then the other had the advantage. The spectators grouped around with bated breath, and straining eye. Then Haslam, towering high like some huge fortress, let out at his opponent, and would have felled him to the ground had he not missed him by some six yards or more. The other foresaw the move, and slipped aside. Alas! Poor Haslam spent his force upon the wind, and, impelled by the great effort, his glove went crashing through the (open) window, out into the darkness of the quad below. Then the shades themselves took a hand in the game, and Act I. Scene 2 (with variations) was suddenly brought on. The lights were extinguished by some strange hand, and darkness and disorder reigned supreme. No light, but rather a darkness, visible served to reveal tangled confusion, and a heterogeneous mass of struggling humanity endeavoring to locate the place of exit. But when the dust began to settle the lights were lit, the remains of the turkey, etc., replaced upon the table, and the festivities, which had been somewhat interrupted by intermittent proceedings, were resumed and brought to a joyous conclusion. All went merrily to the end, when mutual congratulations were indulged in on having passed such a happy "quiet hour" together. A vote of thanks is contemplated for the donors of the feast, with an addenda setting forth the many and obvious advantages to be derived from frequent repetitions of the same. The Friar says his hermitage is open for all such "little diversions" any day or night—night preferred, if convenient.

Notes. Who climbed the tree? Who did up Hallam's room? Who said "Harry" couldn't play the organ. Who says life in Residence isn't a good half of a man's education? New Business—A rumor to the effect that two new men are wearing silk hats and carrying canes. Referred to the "Tap and Decoration Committee."

One of the fellows mistook the elevator shaft for his clothes-closet the other night. His delusion was rudely broken when he struck the ground floor. It was hard to have him go down so quickly in the opinion of the fellows who saw him disappear—for "Freddie" is a mighty popular boy, anyway. Congratulations to Jackson, '05, on his appointment as first-year representative on the Executive of the University Lit.; and to W. Woodroffe, '02, on being chosen debater against Queen's. More men than ever are taking an active interest in the meetings this year. The advantages are too great to be lightly set aside. And when all is said and done, the success of the society depends not on the Senate, nor the president, nor yet the faculty, but on each and every one of the undergraduate body. Let each one do his part in making the Lit. what it ought to be.

Y. M. C. A.

The week of prayer for young men the world over is being observed by our association by holding a prayer-meeting each morning this week, from 8.30 to 8.55.

The address by Rev. A. Fitzpatrick on "Life in the Lumbering and Mining Camps of New Ontario" was profitable to all those who heard him. He showed the needs of the men in the camps and how the reading camps were meeting their needs.

Remember the concert under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. Besides student talent, Miss Mary Waldrum will assist in the program. Tickets 25 cents.

QUEEN'S HOCKEYISTS APPROVE OF INTER-COLLEGIATE LEAGUE. At the annual meeting of Queen's University Hockey Club at Kingston yesterday a resolution was passed in favor of the proposed inter-collegiate hockey union, composed of Varsity, Queen's, and Osgoode, McGill, Royal Military College, Ottawa College, and Trinity, if such a union is feasible. The Queen's Hockey Club officers are these: Honorary president, Professor Pike; president, G. F. Weatherhead, B.A.; vice-presidents, G. F. Dalton, B.A., and R. Scott; secretary-treasurer, John McDowall; captain of first team, Cyril Knight; captain of second team, Richard Mills.

S.P.S. BEAT VARSITY MEDS. In the intermediate intercollegiate series "Varsity-Meds. II. played a tie with Arts II., 0-0. In the senior intercollegiate series School of Practical Science defeated Varsity-Meds. I to 0. The teams lined up as follows:

S.P.S.—Goal, Healey; backs, Campbell, Bridgeman; halves, Patton, Barrett, Small; forwards, Youngs, Mills, Gibson, Rutherford, Decew.

Meds.—Goal, Woolner; backs, Gilbert, Wilson; halves, Biggs, Galbraith, Shaw; forwards, Munns, Sinclair, White, McCrae, Kilorran.

"I think it just too mean that Sir Isaac Newton discovered the law of gravitation," said Mrs. Numskull, feelingly.

"Why, pray, my dear?" queried her husband.

"Well," she replied, convincingly, "if it hadn't been for him we might all have had to travel in airships."—Ohio State Journal.

SWISS Laundry
The very best Laundry work possible.
SPECIALISTS ON—
SHIRTS, COLLARS, CUFFS.
Main Office—103 BIRMOSE ST. PHONE—Main 4132

Why Not Have Solid Comfort

While you are studying, it will not cost you much, and you pay a small sum weekly.
ARM CHAIRS, MORRIS CHAIRS, COUCHES, ETC.
J. & J. L. O'MALLEY
160 QUEEN ST. WEST.

CASH OR CREDIT
MEN'S and BOYS' Overcoats and Suits
Ladies' stylish coats, jackets, capes, tailor-made suits, dress goods, blankets, underwear, etc.
478-480 Spadina Avenue
First door north of College street.

WILLIAMS PIANOS
STRICTLY HIGH GRADE
Sold for Cash or Easy Payments
143 Yonge Street
Pianos to Rent—$2.00 to $2.50 Per Month.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO DINING HALL.
Meals Served at Moderate Rates.
HOURS:
Breakfast, 8 a.m. to 9.30 a.m.
Luncheon, 12.00 noon to 2.00 p.m.
Dinner, 5.30 p.m. to 7.00 p.m.
Tickets may be purchased at the Secretary's Office, Dean's House, or at the Office of the Secretary of the University of Toronto Union.

Y. M. C. A.
The week of prayer for young men the world over is being observed by our association by holding a prayer-meeting each morning this week, from 8.30 to 8.55.
The address by Rev. A. Fitzpatrick on "Life in the Lumbering and Mining Camps of New Ontario" was profitable to all those who heard him. He showed the needs of the men in the camps and how the reading camps were meeting their needs.
Remember the concert under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. Besides student talent, Miss Mary Waldrum will assist in the program. Tickets 25 cents.
QUEEN'S HOCKEYISTS APPROVE OF INTER-COLLEGIATE LEAGUE. At the annual meeting of Queen's University Hockey Club at Kingston yesterday a resolution was passed in favor of the proposed inter-collegiate hockey union, composed of Varsity, Queen's, and Osgoode, McGill, Royal Military College, Ottawa College, and Trinity, if such a union is feasible. The Queen's Hockey Club officers are these: Honorary president, Professor Pike; president, G. F. Weatherhead, B.A.; vice-presidents, G. F. Dalton, B.A., and R. Scott; secretary-treasurer, John McDowall; captain of first team, Cyril Knight; captain of second team, Richard Mills.

WE HEARD WHAT YOU SAID
We knew you would like them. S. & H. Cigars are all right.
THE W. H. STEELE CO., Limited,
116 Bay Street, Toronto.

Best Sporting Page
IS PUBLISHED IN
THE STAR
AMONG THE EVENING PAPERS IN THE CITY.
SIMMONS
For Floral Designs THE
and Cut Flow THE
ers. Safely ex- FLOREST
pressed to any part of the Dominion. Call or Phone Main 3159
266 YONGE STREET.

COLES'
Caterer and Confectioner
719 YONGE ST.
Phone North 2004 & 2005.
Reception Refreshments Our Specialty

J. W. CEDDES
Dealer in PICTURE FRAMES, MIRRORS, ETC.
We frame pictures and photos of all kinds in Art style at the lowest prices. 22 Years' Experience.
427 SPADINA AVENUE.
THE ONTARIO AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, GUELPH, Ont.
In affiliation with Toronto University. Special short course in dairying, poultry work, etc.
Two years' course leading to a diploma. Four years' course, Degree of Bachelor of Science of Agriculture.
Well equipped departments and complete working laboratories in Chemistry, Botany, Entomology, Bacteriology, Physics, Horticulture, and Live Stock.
Two new buildings erected in 1901. Massey Library, and an additional Laboratory.
Apply for Catalogue and Illustrated Pamphlet to JAMES MILLS, LL.D., President, Guelph.

Education Department Calendar
October 1.
Night Schools open—session 1901-1902.
Ontario Normal College opens.
December 10.
County Model Schools Examination begins.
December 13.
County Model Schools close.
December 18.
Written Examinations at Provincial Normal Schools begin.

W. Bogart PHOTOGRAPHER
Special Rates to Students
Phone North 75
748 YONGE ST., Near Bloor St.

Is Your Watch Trusty?
If your watch was ever a time-keeper, it will be one again if we repair it.
We promise you thorough satisfaction, no matter what make it is.
M. J. MITCHELL & CO.
Successors to AMMON DAVIS.
176 QUEEN STREET EAST.
Open Evenings. Phone M. 3228

THE STAR
AMONG THE EVENING PAPERS IN THE CITY.

SIMMONS
For Floral Designs THE
and Cut Flow THE
ers. Safely ex- FLOREST
pressed to any part of the Dominion. Call or Phone Main 3159
266 YONGE STREET.

COLES'
Caterer and Confectioner
719 YONGE ST.
Phone North 2004 & 2005.
Reception Refreshments Our Specialty