RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE. At a meeting of St. Basil's court, No. 534, Brantford, held April 24, the following reso-lution of condolence was passed : We, the members of St. Basil's court, No. 534, in special meeting, desire to express our sympathy to our esteemed Chaplain, Rev. Father Feeny, in this thesad hour of bereave-ment in the loss of his beloved mother. Therefore, be it resolved, while bowing humbly to the will of Almighty God, we desire to express to our worthy chaplain and bereaved relatives our deepest sympathy for them in the loss they have sustained; and be it further resolved that a copy of these reso-lutions be entered on the minutes of this meeting, a copy presented to our rev. chapmeeting, a copy presented to our rev. chap-lain, also a copy sent to The Catholic Fores-ter and Expositor and Courier for publica-

THE CATHOLIC CLUB.

An entertainment was given on last Mon-day evening by the Catholic Club of this city, in the Grand Opera House. The audi-ence was of such a character as to greatly encourage the Club in its work, the large Opera House being filled in every part. It is worthy of mention, too, that a great number of those present were non Catholics, who seem to take quite an interest in the progress of this new and excellent organization, the Catholic Club.

Club. A choice programme of music was given by the Catholic Choral Club, Miss Eleanor Kennedy, Mr. John M. Daly, Miss Maggie Murray, Mr. Charles Clohecy, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Mullins, and A thore by the Catholic Choral Club, Miss Eleanor Kennedy, Mr. John M. Daly, Miss Maggie Murray, Mr. Charles Clohecy, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Mullins, and Mr. W. H. Skinner. The event of the even-ing, however, was the lecture of Dr. O'Hagan, his subject being "The Philosophy of Wit and Humor." The doctor possesses the happy faculty of keeping his audience thoroughly interested from the beginning to the close of a discourse. His examples of the wit and humor of the different nationalities were most appropriate, and illustrated in happy style. There was one fault, however, with the lec-ture - a fault which was generally admitted —that it was entirely too short. But this could ont very well be avoided, as a lecture of the

ture -a fault which was generally admitted -that it was entirely too short. But this could not very well be avoided, as a lecture of the usual length would have unduly prolonged the evening's entertainment. We hope at some future time Dr. O'llagan will be given an evening all to himself, under the auspices of the Catholie Club. Mr. Wm. E. Mullins, who is about to leave our city to reside in Toronto, and who has been one of the most active members of the Club since its inception, was on this occasion taken completely by surprise. President T. J. Murphy and a number of the leading members of the society, entered into a conspiracy in his regard, which was very effectually executed. Without the slightest knowledge of what was in store for him, Mr. Mullins was asked by the president to come to the platform, when Mr. Murphy, in a few well chosen words, presented him, in behalf of the Club, with a beautiful gold watch and chain, which cost over 810. Although taken completely by surprise, fMr. Mullins made a very neat speech in acknowledgment. taken completely by surprise, Arr. Mullins made a very neat speech in acknowledgment. And here we may remark that it is not an easy matter to take Mr. Mullins unawares in the matter of speech-making. This comes natural to him, and, without any preparation, he is ever ready to give expression to his feelings in appropriate and choice language. Success, say we, to the Catholic Club, and success to Mr. Mullins in his new home in the Queen City !

FATHER BRENNAN'S SILVER JUBI-LEE.

An interesting ceremony took place in the basement of St. Basil's church on the even-ing of Saturday last. Rev. Lawrence Bren-nan of St. Basil's, on that day, completed the the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordina-tion to the priesthood; and to mark the happy event in some special manner a few of his parishioners had met at the place and time mentioned. Amongst those present were Mrs. and the Misses Einsley, Mrs. N. Rooney, Miss Hoskin, Mrs. De La Hagy, Mrs. Foster, Miss Sullivan, Mrs. Boulton, Mrs. O'Sullivan, Rev. Father Brennan, Mr. K. The Inspector's remarks on the organization, proficiency, accommodation, and equipment of the girls' classes, and in his general remarks the longector says: "Very material improve-ments were made since last year in the school building. The trustees deserve much credit for the way they look after the accommoda-tions. The answering of the classes shows that the year's work has been very successful, and fixed their standing in many subjects de-cideding above the average." Rev. Father Kenny, S. J., reported the at-tendance for April: Boys' classes—On roll 222, daily average 198, Girls' classes—On roll 173, average attend-ance 160.

OBITUARY. MRS. PHELAN, ERINSVILLE.

MRS. PHELAN, ERINSVILLE. Died at the family residence, Erinsville, Ont. on Wedneeday. April 28, Honora, the be loved wife of Mr. Phelan, in the sixtieth year of her axe. The funeral took place on the 30th nitimo, Requiem Mass being sung by Rev. G. Cicolart, P. P., Erinsville, Rev. M. Cummins, P. P., of Bothwell (brother of deceased) being present in the sanctuary. The late Mrs. Phelau was born in the county Tipperary, Ire-land. A husband and three children are left to mourn the loss of a noble Christian wile and mother. Fo all of whom, as well as to Rev. Father Cummins, we offer our heartielt con-lolence, coupled with the earnest prayer that Almichty God will have mercy upon the de-parted soul.

GEORGE ALLEN, INGERSOLL.

Almighty God will have mercy upon the departed soul. GEORGE ALLEN, INGERSOLL. The death of Mr. George Allen, which oc curred at his iate home, Victoria street, on Easter Sunday morning, removes one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of the town. He had been ill stnce about Christ-mas from a bronchial affection, and his death was not unexpected, though the blow was none the less severe to his family when it fell. He was born in Oxford, England, in 1820, and came to this country when about twenty years of age, settling in North Oxford, on the northern gravel road, where he resided for a number of years. He next purchased a farm on the Thamesford gravel road, which he cultivated until about ten years ago when he reuted and came to town to spend the remainder of his days in peace and quietness. During his residence in North Oxford, be at different per-iods for sixteen years filled the position of As-sessor and Collector, which duites were per-formed faithfully and well. Being strictly honorable and unright in all his dealings, he gained a large circle of staunch friends who were also John Allen, of this town, Thomas Allen, of St. Mary's, while Mrs. Tay and Mrs. Jonathan Jarvis were sisters. Deceased heaves a family of three to mourn his loss, viz. Mrs. James Howe, London ; Miss Lucy Allen and Mr. Thomas Allen at home. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning to the R. C. cemetery and was largely attended. Among those present from a distance were Messra. Frank and Chas. Allen, St. Mary's ; H. R. Henderson, St. Louis ; James Henderson, Stratford, Mrs. McGinnis and Mrs. Jonatha Henderson, Stratford, Mrs. McGinnis and Mrs. Jas. Howe, Christopher, Peter Carling, W. C. Bell, R. Keating, John Callaghan and M. Dunn, – Ingersoll Chronicle, May 22.

We regret we had not noticed the above bituary notice of an old friend and subscriber of the RECORD since its foundation. The late Mr. Allen was received into the Catholic Church over fifty years ago. His holy and edifying death on Easter Sunday morning last was feelingly alluded to by Father Connolly at the Mass de Requiem on Tuesday following, as well as the great interest he always took in the works of the Church he loved so well. We tender our sincerest sympathy to his daughter, Mrs. James Howe, of this city, as well as to Mr. Thomas Allen, his son, and Miss Allen, now residing on the

Whenever it is in any way possible, pastors arrange nowadays for May devotions in their churches, and where, for one reason or another, the holding of such devotions is not practicable in the churches, the faithful are earnestly exhorted to perform them in their own households, and a larger number each year complies with such exhortations. Those who habitually honor Mary during her chosen month do not need to be told how liberally she recompenses them by the favors which she obtains in their behalf from her Divine Son and possibly one great reason of the popularity of our May devotions lies in the fact that they never fail to win abundant blessings and graces for those who practice them.

devotions we should consult our own spiritual needs and interests first, let us not be selfish in our petitions to the throne of grace during May. The Holy Father asks the associates of the Apostleship of Prayer to labor this month for the welfare of the Church in Eugland. We can do that and still not neglect the welfare of the Church in this our own beloved land. An excellent May practice will be a daily prayer for the conversion of our non-Catholic fellow citizens to that truth of which Christ said the knowledge thereof makes mankind free.-Catholic Colnmbian.

NEW BOOKS.

A new edition of "Pastoral Theology," by Rev. William Stang, D. D., Vice Rector of the American College, Louvain, and Professor of Pastoral Theology at the same institute, has now been issued by Messrs. Benziger Bros. New York. This new American edi-tion has been carefully revised and enlarged; a number of typographical errors have been corrected; several paragraphs strengthened by explanatory notes; and important notes corrected : several paragraphs strengthened by explanatory notes : and important notes which were suggested to the author by a perusal of Cardinal Gibbons' admirable book "The Ambassador of Christ," have been added. Another chapter has also been ap-pended to the third part. It was a beautiful thought of the author to commend this the second edition of his very valuable work, to the protection of Our Im-maculate Lady, who will, we trust, obtain for her devout son the "Pastor Bonus" which he craves.

weary, and a source of joy to us his spiritual children. Father Brennan said in reply that he was somewhat taken by surprise, as, until that morement as that now put in evidence was on foot. Had he known of it sooner, he certainly would have asked his friends to cease their kind efforts in that direction ; but now that their purpose had been accom-plished, he supposed he could not do otherwise than gratefully accept their affectionate and generous token. He assured his kind friends that, as in the past, he was at their service, and ready at all hours to minister to their wants, both spiritually and temporally ; and he would be mindfal of them in his prayers at the altar, in acknowledgment of the unvary-ing kindness and assistance which he had received from them in the material work of the church, and without which, he confessed, he must have often failed. Father Brennan was then warmly con-gratulated, and fervent wishes were ex-pressed for his future happiness and pros-perity. It affords the Register unfeigned pleasure to join in these heartielt congratula-tions, and to reecho the wish that the good Father may long be spared to continue labors that have already marked him as a devoted and self-sacrificing priest, and a sincere of comfort and consolation to many. - Toronto Register. In what consists real practical devo tion to the Blessed Virgin ? Does it consist in mere prayers? Most certainly not. It matters not how frequent or fervent prayers may be, what is that something else?

It is imitation of the virtues practiced by the Blessed Virgin. Whilst. thererefore we let no day, nor no hour of the day pass without its tribune of praise and prayer to the Blessed Virthey would keep me at home. gin, we must resolve fervently and frequently to be meek and humble and getting worse, and at last grew so nerv ous that 1 could not hold my penpatient and charitable; in one word we must resolve and strive, whilst looking upon her as our blessed Patroness and dearest Mother to take her and follow her as our model in all things.

Thus will our devotion to the Blessed was constantly growing worse. could not use my hands, because Mother be indeed, and in truth, eminently practical, and thus too will we secure for ourselves her powerful interquently when I attempted to walk I cession, the intercession that will enwould fall.
