A Physician's Testimony for Labatt's Ale

"We find that the ale uniformly and well agreed with the patients, that it stimulated the appetite, and thereby increased nutrition. The taste, likewise, is always highly spoken of. In nervous women, we found that a glass at bedtime acted as a very effective and harmless hypnotic."—SUPERINTENDENT OF LARGE U. S. HOSPITAL.

Grandisson, the famous tenor of the peal of bells in Exeter Cathedral has had a narrow escape from disaster. It was being rung recently when a bolt which kept the clapper in position became displaced. The result was that the clapper, which weighs nearly two hundredweight, fell as the bell was swinging. The stout floor alone prevented the clapper from falling into the ringing chamber below, where there were fifteen or sixteen ringers. The bell is the heaviest used for ringing in the world. Grandisson weight 72 hundredweight, and if the stock be included something like four tons. The church of Kirkdale, near Kirby Moorside, in Yorkshire, is to be restored. It has two fine Saxon doorways, and over the south doorway is a sundial with Saxon inscription dating from 1060. The translation reads: "Orm Gamal's son bought St. Gregory's Church when it was broken and fallen, and rebuilt it to Christ and St. Gregory in the day of Edward the King, and Tosti the Earl of Northumbria." At the west end of the church is a tombstone bearing a Runic inscription. Holy Trinity Church, Wilmington, Del., celebrated its 210th anniversary on the 1st Sunday after Trinity. Old St. Ann's, Middleton, on the same day celebrated its 204th anniversary.

Economy
has always been a ruling principle in the management of The Great-West Life Assurance Company. That it continues to be so is seen in the fact that during the first quarter of 1909, while the Business written was largely increased, the cost of securing that business showed a reduction of 10.04% on the very favorable figures for the corresponding period last year. Those contemplating Life Insurance will see the importance of considering this feature of Economy in choosing the Company to which to entrust their protection. The path of progress is not to be sought in any slackening of work imposed upon us by the necessities of the times, but in the increased use of spiritual opportunities, and in more resolute and systematic self-denial and prayer. — The Bishop of Exeter.
