PATRIOTIC PLAYS, DRILLS AND EXERCISES

By EDITH LELEAN GROVES

Seven Canadian Plays. Eight Canadian Drills and Exercises

Where can we get suitable material for a patriotic entertainment—real good Canadian drills, marches, plays or exercises has been a question asked every year.

There were plenty of little song plays and exercises for children written in the United States, but they were not adapted for use in Canada and, indeed, even were the Stars and Stripes eliminated from them, they were plays and exercises with no significance for Canada.

Edith Lelean Groves discovered the need for a Canadian series of such entertainments and has displayed a real genius in supplying to Canadian Schools the All-Canadian Entertainment Series.

The Series is designed to meet the requirements of teachers of all grades and classes, public school, high school, and Sunday School. Do you want an entertainment suitable for a large City Sunday School with hosts of children and splendid costuming? Do you want something for the smaller school in the country with only a few pupils or do you want something between these two extremes? Somewhere or other in this Series you will find exactly what you want.

Break away from the old style of concert and give something new. You will find every number of the All-Canadian Entertainment Series attractive—entertaining—up-to-the-minute and intensely patriotic.

The Edith Lelean Groves plays are thoroughly Canadian and have delighted thousands. Select one this year for your entertainment.

What teacher has not looked (often in vain) for a nice little play for a school entertainment? Here appear to be just what teachers have been asking for. Each of the plays is brimful of Canadian patriotism; each supplies material for one evening's entertainment which will make the strongest kind of appeal to pupils and parents alike. They will not only be an aid to teachers who wish to hold an entertainment, but an incentive to others to arrange such a function.—The School.
