

I trust that the other measures you have adopted with so much unanimity will likewise prove beneficial to the country.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons :

I thank you for the readiness with which you have made provision for an anticipated deficiency and granted the supplies for the Public Service.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons :

I trust that the measures I have caused to be taken for the preservation of the peace in the North West Territories will be effectual in preventing the spirit of lawlessness, so much to be feared in these vast unsettled regions, and in maintaining friendly relations with the Indian tribes.

The negotiations in progress relative to the compensation due to Canada under the Treaty of Washington will I hope, realize our just expectations.

We have reason to rejoice that within our borders are peace and prosperity, and I pray that the country may continuously enjoy these invaluable blessings.

The SPEAKER then said—It is the will and pleasure of His Excellency that this Parliament be prorogued until Monday the 6th day of July next, and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued until that date.
