The canvassers for the Victory Loan Campaign are: -Mr. Frank L. Mallory and Mr. W. Frank Kennedy. Mr. King Greenlaw is chairman of the committee.

The general grippe situation is much better at present. Nearly all who were ill with the prevailing "flue" are now on the road to recovery, and it is hoped that in a short time things will be moving in their usual order. During the time that the grippe was raging in this Town it caused much sickness and a number of deaths. There can be no doubt but what the drastic order forbidding all public gatherings had much to do in checking the epedemic.
