Brown's Head

Which He Declares Mrs. Nutbrown Uttered.

SAYS THE LANGUAGE WAS TOO MUCH EVEN FOR MAJOR COOGAN.

Wm. Brown has been baving trouble with one of his tenants. Mrs. Catharine Nutbrown, which culminated this morning in a charge of assault laid against her in the police court. The defendant admitted that she did threaten " to hit him with a stick if he came around bothering me."

Mr. Brown told his version of the affair. It appears from his story that Here a horrified "oh!" from Mrs. Nutbrown brought from the Magis-trate a reference to the cells if she interfered with the witness, and Mr.

Brown continued:
"If I catch you in here again."
And she said far worser to McCoogan
(Major Coogan) than what she said to

Mr. Brown proceeded to state that at this time Mrs. Nutbrown held a big club behind her back and he "had to put the police man betwixt me and her; then she was much quieter. It's true every word I'm telling you and if my witnesses were here they could tell different."

ment. Rev. E. L. Steves will conduct the funeral services.

A social will be held Tuesday night at the residence of John S. Laird. Teams will be at Crooksbank's and Vonfoun-ten's stores to take parties to his place and back.

Washington, Feb. 8.-The ways and means committee completed the lum-ber schedule at a late hour to-day. It he rented to Mrs. Nutbrown 'the upstairs, the woodshed and the well, but not the yard; she had no business in the yard." He went into the yard one day recently to look at some wood she had bought and to enquire the price.

"Her two girls," he said, "were standing in the doorway and she told them to call me every name they could. 'Get out of the yard, you old rascal, they said to me. Then this woman said, 'damn you. I'll break your skull with this—"

TR. CAMPBELL INTIMATES, HOW EVER, THAT HE WILL REMAIN NEUTRAL AND GIVE BOTH SIDES A FAIR SHOW.

Arch. Campbell, M. P., arrived in the city on Saturday and left again for the east this afternoon. One of the in Fine member's missions to this district was Imported to enquire into the movement inaugurated by local sportsmen with a view to protecting and perserving our fish. Petitions asking for the prohibition of all fishing with sienes, hoop-nets and gill nets in the bays and tributaries of the St. Clair have been extensively circulated and signed. These, as our readers are aware, have met with conreaders are aware, have met with siderable opposition at the hands of some of the fishermen, and the member for kent was deputed to ascertain the nature and objects of the move-reticeut.

This morning The Planet interview-ed Mr. Campbell in reference to his enquiries but found the member very reticeut.

"I can really say nothing at present," he told the reporter. "There seems to be a great difference of opinion in reference to the case. The promoters of the petition argue that the steps they are taking are in the interest of the preservation of our fish, while the fishermenglecture that the fish are not being exterminated by their operations. I am entirely neutral on the matter and being exterminated by their operations. I am entirely neutral on the matter and desire to see the department act in the interests of our district."

"What will be the nature of your report to the government?" Mr. Campbell was asked.

"Well, I really cannot say at present. It's a hard matter to determine. I do not think the matter will be dealt with until the opening of parliament. And then it is a matter that cannot fairly be
