It asked for immunities and concessions, the cash value of which was nearly $400,000, and in return gave nothing but a lot of vague promises that were as intangible as a rainbow seen in a dream. It would not do for demands are modest, and it can be the city to barter away one of the birthrights of its citizens for such fragile currency. There is a well grounded suspicion in these western countries of enterprises that seek bonuses before they begin operations. This is born of the experience of a trying nature that residents of a number of boom towns passed through during the time that doubtless would prove effective in bringreal estate was being "kited" sky high by the smooth real estate promoters.
