

TWO DEAD AND MANY INJURED IN BAD BLAZE

Apartment House in Cleveland Burned by an Incendiary.

Special Wire to the Courier.

Cleveland, O., March 28.—Fire, which swept through an apartment house in Prospect Avenue early today, causing the death of two persons and injury to more than a score of others, was of incendiary origin, according to police and detectives.

Police early today were holding three men and one woman at headquarters and had established a police guard at the bedside of Bessie Reimer at Huron road hospital.

The "Keister girl" as much under arrest as any of the other four, said Detective Barrett. "We are convinced that she knows who started the fire last night as well as a fire yesterday morning in her room."

Nearly all of the five were involved in a white slave investigation a few days ago, following which one woman was sent to the work house. In this case the Reimer girl was the alleged victim.

The dead man was identified as J. B. Lewis, forty two, who is said to have a wife and three children in New York City. He was employed as a solicitor on the Cleveland city directory. The dead woman was identified as Mrs. Elizabeth Simpkins, 50, a saleswoman in a Euclid avenue store.

A FARMERS' CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY [FOR BRANT COUNTY]

(Canadian Co-Operator).

As announced in the "Canadian Co-operator" some months ago, a farmers co-operative society for Brant county is being organized.

The farmers of the district have, in the past, had rather unsatisfactory experiences of so-called co-operative societies.

Against a successful agitation for the present one. The type of so-called society referred to is one with which the people are painfully familiar, both in Canada and the United States.

namely, where promoters get busy ostensibly to do something for the farmers, but never succeed in passing the point where they do things for themselves. The inception of the present proposed society was, however, on a bona fide and co-operatively recognized lines.

A public meeting of farmers was called for a market day in the Brantford Court House. All interested were invited to attend and take part. That meeting, by a popular vote, elected a provisional Board of Directors to organize the society.

and which consists of Messrs G. M. Ballache, W. H. Good, F. W. Malcolm, Clark W. C. Dool, R. C. Porter, and R. H. Shaver. The Provisional Board appointed Mr. Ballachey provisional president and Mr. Good provisional Vice-President.

The editor of this journal—the only one in the number without agricultural experience—was invited to act as secretary pro tem. The duties of all retired, pro tem.
