BRITISH SAVED MILLIONS
By Pooling War Profits and Abuses Were Revealed. THE British Committee of National Expenditure, of which Mr. Herbert Samuel is chairman, has issued its report on expenditures by the Ministry of Munitions. Abuses in the spending of public money are revealed which justify the setting up of a committee. The system, or lack of system, hitherto in vogue is examined, and recommendations are made for strengthening the financial control at the Ministry.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA
DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
A young boy of seventeen who is a Government contractor with eleven men and eight women on his payroll is one of the unusual figures of the war in London. The young employer is Robert Scott and two years ago he was earning $750 a week in a machine shop. Later, he and another boy formed partnership to manufacture nuts and screws. The partner joined the army last year. Scott then invested all his savings in machinery and opened a shop for the manufacture of aeroplane parts and airplane Government work.
