COAL

There is considerable talk of late about boring for coal in the vicinity of Hantsport.

Many attempts have been made within the last forty years to find coal hereabouts, some of these trials were systematic, others were not, but none of them went to a sufficient depth to prove or disprove the existence of the dusty diamonds. A gentleman, resident just near Hantsport, informs us that a diamond drill belonging to the Province is now available free of rent, which we can have for any reasonable length of time to test the depths as to what they contain. Now we consider this a golden opportunity for the people of Hantsport, Mount Denison, Lockhartville and the region about to band themselves together and have an intelligent thorough test made going to a depth of 800 to 1000 feet if necessary.

Let us know once for all whether we have coal right under our feet or not. Now who will move in the matter, start a prospecting company, say with a capital of $500 in 100 shares of $5 each when subscribed, let the first drill be 50 per cent and when this is paid in get the drill, and perhaps that sum would pay the bills. The cost will be two or three men's wages operating the drill, it cannot be very expensive. Perhaps a public meeting would be in order? We will gladly publish suggestions on this matter from any one, only don't let it drop now, agitate it.

MERIT AND WORTH

Paine's Celery Compound
Still on the Highest Round of the Ladder of Fame

Genuine merit and worth must be the strong and leading characteristics of a medicine in order to make it a choice home friend.

Speculators and imitators, in a brief time, create a demand for their deceptive pills and liquid preparations by freely using newspaper space, but unerring business experience soon pronounces the judgment—tried and found wanting. The year just passed has marked the path of many worthless and deceptive medicines which, for a time, misled the sick and afflicted ones of money and aggravated their burden of misery.

Paine's Celery Compound, has, in the past year, added thousands of victories to its established record as a disease banisher and health giver.

Many of the cures effected by Paine's Celery Compound have been so marvellous and striking that able and prominent physicians have, without hesitation, openly praised and recommended the life saver.

No other medicine in the world has ever been accorded such glowing praise by medical men, people of affluence and the toilers of our country. Paine's Celery Compound has never yet disappointed sick and suffering men and women. In every case where fairly used, it has accomplished its work of banishing sickness and giving a new lease of life.

If disease is wasting your system, if you are weak or nerve-ridden, unfitted for business or the daily work of life, be assured Paine's Celery Compound will bestow nerve energy, strength and health—the blessings you are longing for. Test the virtues of one bottle and be convinced.

TOO LATE

Al! al la je ne-se savait-al la vellesse pouvait!

There sat an old man on a rock,
And unceasingly bewailed him of Fate—

That concern where we all must take stock.

Though our vote has no bearing nor weight;

And the old man sang him an old,
old song—

Never sang voice so clear and strong
That it could drown the old man's long.

For he sang the song Too late, too
late!

What we want, we have for our pains
The promise that if we but wait Till the want has burned out of our brains

Every means shall be present to state;

While we send for the usquins the soup gets cold.

While the bonnet is trimming the face grows old.

When we've watched our buttons
the pattern is sold.

And ever thing comes too late—too
late.

When strawberries seemed like red heavens,

Terrain stew a wild dream—
When my brain was at sixes and sevens
If my other had folks and ice cream,

Then I gazed with a lickerish hunger.

At the restaurant man and fruitmonger—

But, oh! now I wished I were young—

When the good lies all came in a stream
—in a stream.

I've a splendid blood horse—and a liver

That it jags into torture to rot;
My row-boat's the gem of the river—
Gout makes every knuckle a knot!

I can't buy boneless credits on Paris and Rome.

But no palate for menus—no eyes
for a dome;

Those belonged to the youth who must tarry at home,

When a home but an attic he'd got—he'd got,

How I longed in that lonest of garrets,
Where the tiles baked my brains all
July,

For ground to grow to pecks of carrots—

Two pigs of my own in a sty—
A rose bush—a little thatched cottage—

Two spoons—love—a basin of pet-
tage;

Now in freestone I sit—and my dotage—

With a woman's chair empty close by —close by!

Ah! now, thou I sit on a rock.
I have shared one seat with the Great;

I have sat, knowing naught of the rock.

On love's high throne of state;
But the lips that kissed and the arms that caressed

To a mouth grown stern with delay were pressed.

And circled a breast that their clasp had blessed

Had they not come too late! too late!
—Fitz Hugh Ludlow.

Every Form of Piles

Mr. George Thompson, a leading merchant of Blenheim, Ont., states:—"I was troubled with itching piles for fifteen years, and at times they were so bad I could scarcely walk. I tried a great many remedies, but never found anything like Dr. Chase's Ointment. It cured me."

Mr. Jas. Jackson of the Laurie Spool Company, St. Alexis des Monts, Que., writes:—"I was troubled for two years with that cruel disease, bleeding piles, and after using Dr. Chase's Ointment I can say I am entirely rid of it. It is a treasure to all suffering from piles."

Mr. W. D. Thornton, blacksmith, Calgary, N.W.T., states:—"For fifteen years I suffered untold agony from blind, itching piles, and have been under treatment with well-known physicians. I had 15 tumors removed, but obtained no positive cure. I have suffered more than I can tell, but can now say that, thanks to Dr. Chase's Ointment, I am positively cured, and by one and a half boxes. 60c a box."

Spinal Pains

Weak back, pains in the side, render their victims in thousands. Only very powerful and penetrating remedies will reach these distressing complaints. Nervine is as sure to cure them as anything in the world can be sure. One drop equal in pain subduing power to five drops of any other. Potent, penetrating, persistent in action, these express the qualities of Nervine. Druggists everywhere sell it.

How did you say that Screech rendered that solo? asked Beefat of e-harp.

I didn't say that he rendered it at all I said he rendered it.—Detroit Free Press.
