CAPITALS CHAMPIONS.

After a Gallant Fight Against Roy-dism They Win the Victory.
EVERY MAN ON THE TEAM HURT

Brutal Treatment Received by the Ottawa Players—Several Injured Allowed to Beat the Visitors—Shamrocks Have Entered a Protest.

MONTEAL, Sept. 25.—The Capitals of Ottawa, lacrosse champions of the world. This is the result of the great match on Saturday afternoon between the Capitals of Ottawa, and the Shamrocks of Montreal, and the end of the lacrosse series for the present season.

The Capitals have worked hard for the honor and they deserve their success. They played clean lacrosse on Saturday and had the best of the playing throughout. It was a great match. An enormous crowd was present, the estimated attendance being over 10,000.

The Shamrock team was the same as last year. Captain James H. Duggan, goal; Murray, point; Moore, cover point; O'Brien, Dwyer, Hinton, defense; Jones, center; Neville, McVey, Tansy, home field; O'Meara, outside home; Tucker, inside home; D. Tansy, outside home.

The Capitals team was: Crown, goal; Patterson, point; Quinn, cover point; Deane, H. Carson, James, defense; Bissett, Bissett, centre; Carlson, Carson, Laoy, Ketchum, home; Murphy, inside home; Stuart, outside home.

Referee, W. D. Aird; umpires, D. Sheppard and F. Larnouth.

The game started promptly at 8 o'clock. Kelly and Bissett faced Bissett and Bissett passed the puck to Quinn on the initial goal followed, but Quinn was justly awarded. O'Meara and Tucker did great work. Capitals made down irretrievably and scored in 34 minutes.

The second game was even faster, the Capitals having it all their own way and Murphy scoring in 14 minutes.

In the third game the Capitals' defence was strong for the green jerseyed home. Several fouls took place and Hinton had to retire and Burke replaced him. Crown got a cowardly blow on the forehead, but twice returned brilliantly. The two Capitals were a team in themselves.

O'Meara lost his head and struck right and left deliberately. Crown relieved the goal and falling led to be carried off the field. Levine made some remarks as he was carrying Crown in and was knocked down by a severe blow in the eye.

Shamrocks picked up the game. An assault was made by Kelly on Hugh Carlson and pretty shades, but Quinn was justly awarded. The footing of the referee was fearful. James and Patterson repeatedly relieved each other in passing up the field. Kelly passed to Tucker, who scored amid deafening roars. Time 32.

The fourth game lasted three minutes, Tansy scoring. Each side had now two goals.

Carlson and O'Brien went off in the fifth game, and O'Brien went off in the fifth game, which caused him to be carried off and incapacitated him. During a foul, which the referee did not notice, the Capitals defence refused to play and Kelly tried to walk through but was stopped by Crown. In a play which followed, O'Brien put Crown's head in chancery and struck him twice. The referee never noticed this, and he resumed the Capitals score. Time 10 minutes.

It was too dark to see the game. Not a goal was scored, but the crowd broke into the field and the rowdy who had previously assaulted Levine ran off of the enclosure and deliberately hit Murphy. Hugh Carlson threw him about ten feet and using his stick as a spear kept the crowd at bay. Several of the men into the enclosure and a general row was prevented. The whole crowd was on the field and it took time to clear them off. There were eight minutes to play and the Capitals barely came out. The darkness was too great to play. The moon came out, but it lit itself in shame at the roadway. A man struck O'Brien with his fist and O'Brien was laid out. The referee, who was on the field, but all got off safely. The Capitals fought and lost miserably for the championship, but they won it by three goals to two.

All the Team Hurt.
OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—Nearly 2,000 people met the C. F. R. train bringing in the Capitals yesterday morning at 2.30. The wildest enthusiasm prevailed and the great indignation was expressed here at the rough play showered on the Capitals. Word was passed that the referee was not fair and that he is somewhat better. George Carlson has a broken rib from a blow from O'Brien, and all the team are more or less hurt.

A Protest.
MONTEAL, Sept. 25.—The Shamrocks have protested the match. When play ceased on account of darkness and the disorderly crowd on the field, there was still left 24 minutes of the two hours. The teams may be ordered to play for 24 minutes or another match may be arranged. The decision rests with the committee of the league.

Found Bound and Crazy.
QUEBEC, Sept. 25.—The man Fafard, who has been missing from St. Roch Des Anstas, this last week with a sum of $600 and who was thought to be in Chicago, was found yesterday morning at Lewis in a secluded spot gagged with arms and feet bound tight and in a demented condition. He was brought into the house of his uncle.

It appears that last Tuesday night Fafard was seen on board the ferry boat going to Lewis. He was in a wagon in company with some suspicious characters and helpless, evidently under the influence of chloroform. Fafard may recover from the terrible ordeal, but will surely feel the effects of this adventure all his life. His mental faculties cannot recover.

Weather Probabilities.
OSWEGO, Ont., Sept. 25.—A depression is developing over Lake Michigan and is likely to cause high west and northwesterly winds over the lake. Fair weather and moderate temperatures are at present prevalent from the lakes to the Atlantic. In the Northwest it is fair and cool with frosts at night.

Probabilities: Lakes Unsettled and showery with increasing wind from south shifting to northwest.
St. Lawrence—Unsettled and showery, not much change in temperature.
Gulf and Maritime Provinces—Fine weather and moderate winds to day; some drizzle to-morrow.
Manitoba—Northwest to northeast wind; fine weather; cold nights and frost.

Mysterious Disappearance of Bond Hillers very much excited over the sudden disappearance of Mrs. Herbert Crody Sunday, the 17th. She was last seen in company with another lady, who went for a walk down to the river and afterwards returned to the road. Since that nothing has been seen of her. It is thought by some she may only be making a visit.

A Steamer Detained.
New York, Sept. 25.—The steamer Augusta Victoria, of the Hamburg American line, is now detained at Southampton to await instructions from Surgeon-General Wyman, of the Marine hospital service at Washington. Emil Ross, agent of the Hamburg American line in this city, received a cable message from Hamburg stating that a suspected case of cholera had appeared among the firemen on the vessel. A later despatch from Hamburg states that the Augusta Victoria had arrived at Southampton in perfect sanitary condition. The steamer is suspected of having cholera in Hamburg has recovered. The despatch said that the ship would be held in quarantine and subject to instructions from Dr. Wyman.

Must Change the Crew.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Dr. Wyman has notified the Hamburg American steamship company that he must change the crew of the Augusta Victoria at Southampton. If there are any stowage passengers on board they must be removed and quarantined for five days. The crew must be changed or sent back to Hamburg and others engaged in their place.

Ives the Winner.
CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The final game in the six night match, between Ives, of Chicago, and Roberts, of London, was played on Saturday night before 2,000 spectators, the American being declared winner of the game. Ives won the week contest amid much enthusiasm.

Ives began play with the balls as they were laid Friday night but scored only 16. Roberts following with 20. In the sixth the latter led a set-up and Ives ran 170.
