The beautiful art goods in china at McClary's grocery continue to attract the attention of young and old. The stock is large but those wishing a choice from the full selection should purchase now.

The low prices made a great reduction in the grocery stock of Mr. E. J. Purcell, and prudent purchasers will be pleased to learn that he has secured an extension of his lease to end of month and balance of the stock is now being cleared.

Mr. J. H. Mills, a former principal of the A.H.S., was recently presented with an address and named clock by the staff and students of the Waterford High School, of which he has been principal since leaving Athens. Mr. Mills has taken a position in one of Toronto's collegiate institutes.

Mr. W. E. Stratton of Frankville purposes going to the West and is conducting a great clearing sale by retail of his large stock of general dry goods, etc. See bills. Such a sale is of particular interest at this season and many are profiting by the very low prices quoted as staple as well as fancy goods.

Township Conservatives and Liberals meet in the township hall on Saturday evening next to prepare for the municipal election. The recognition of the political affiliation of candidates does not prevent the township from getting first-class men at their board, and the coming year will probably prove no exception.

Rheumatism

is one of the constitutional diseases. It manifests itself in local aches and pains, inflamed joints and stiff muscles, but it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires constitutional treatment acting through the blood, and the best is a course of the great medicine Hood's Sarsaparilla which has permanently cured thousands of cases. For testimonials of remarkable cures send for Book on Rheumatism, No. 7, C. L. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.
