LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Friends of all denominations filled the Opera House on Saturday evening to tender good wishes and give expression to the highest esteem in which guests of honor Rev. and Mrs. J. Rees-Jones were held. The reverend gentleman assumed charge as rector of St. James Episcopal church here about two years ago and by his genial, hearty manner has won a host of close friends, while at the same time by indefatigable zeal and energy he has accomplished a great deal in the three several churches over which he has held charge, both spiritually, financially and in remodeling and placing in excellent condition the different church edifices. Mr. Jones, a native of Wales, has spent eight years in Canada as pastor of three churches, the first in Saskatchewan, coming from there to Richmond and thence to Centreville. He leaves on Tuesday for England where he takes up his work again at Bristol. Hence the party aforesaid. After an hour of pleasant social converse, followed by most delicious refreshments served by the ladies of his flock. Dr. H. W. Peppers called the meeting to order and in a very pleasing and fitting address presented Mr. Jones with the best wishes of all present and a purse of $110 contributed by the friends from Centreville, Greenfield and Florenceville. Mr. Jones replied in a jovial speech and said with no degree of flattery that this party had afforded him the most pleasant period of work he had enjoyed since entering the ministry. Then followed a spirited rendition of "For he's a jolly good fellow" and three rousing cheers. The Centreville orchestra furnished most pleasing and acceptable music for the occasion.

Tuesday for St. John from which port they will on Thursday embark on the Empress of France for Liverpool, Eng.

The present proprietor of the Centreville House is considering leaving at the end of the month and the prosperity and popularity of the place may be judged by the flood of applications. It surely must be an all proposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt White and family plan on leaving soon for Grand Falls where they will in the future reside.

Mrs. Wilmet Ritchie of Greenfield was the recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Norris DeLong.

Mrs. DeLong who had the misfortune recently to fall and seriously injure herself is making a nice recovery at the home of her son, Norris DeLong.

A. A. Nevers of Hartland, inspector of courts, spent Friday in Centreville. John McLean of St. John was here on Friday.

Roy Waterson of Manchester, Robertson and Allison, St. John, called on C. M. Sherwood, Ltd. on Wednesday.

On Monday evening upwards of 40 Oddfellows comprising the Degree staff of Central Lodge, Bridgewater, paid a fraternal visit to Centre Lodge and exemplified the second degree. They brought a good lively Yankee goat along and made the evening a most vivacious one. Following the closing of Lodge all present sat down to a banquet prepared by the local Lodge.

On Easter Sunday Nov. 22, R. D. Bell will preach at Centreville 11 a.m. and at Carvell 3 p.m. and Lakeville 7:30 p.m.

WINDSOR WHISPERINGS

The Hamington Bros. Fred and Frank are sawing wood for Havelock Watson.

There was a sing at Wm. Forster's one night this week. We have no preaching services here this winter, as the people gather together Sunday evenings at the different homes and sing.

The Windsor people have decided that this has been one of the most pleasant winters in every respect, that they have ever seen. The union among them seems to be complete.

Your humble servant was not able to attend the Farmers' meeting at Howard Peck's, but has been informed that it was an interesting and profitable meeting. We farmers must keep busy.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pratt of Carleton Place were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Perley Watson one day last week.

POTATOES IN AROOSTOOK

The market or eating stock is now very quiet indeed, the price being from $1.00 to $1.25. Some of our shippers are not buying just now. Good seed stock, whether Cobblers or Mountains, bring $1.50. Many are wondering what the Aroostook plant will be the coming season. Probably about an average, as Aroostook is accustomed to raising potatoes, and can not get much big and quick money otherwise. Some of the fertilizer companies report sales equal to those of last year at this time, a few even greater. Those who can secure fertilizer and probably all who wish to do so will succeed, in some way or another can be relied on to put in a rather good acreage of potatoes the coming season, as usual—Fort Fairfield Review.
