Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

ILLUSTRATED.

The veteran Magazine, which long ago outgrew its original title of the New Monthly Magazine, has not in the least abated the popularity it won at the outset, but has added to it in many ways, and has kept fairly abreast of the times, thanks to the enterprise of the publishers and the tact and wisdom of its editors. For whatever is best and most readable in the literature of travel, discovery, and fiction, the average reader of to-day looks to Harper's Magazine, just as expectantly as did the reader of a quarter of a century ago; there is the same admirable variety of contents and the same freshness and suggestiveness in its editorial departments now as as then.—Boston Journal.

Mark Twain's Latest.

How an Irreverent Old Salt Interpreted the Story of Elijah and the Prophets of Baal.

Samuel L. Clemens in the Atlantic for November.

One trip the captain had a clergyman on board, but he did not know he was a clergyman, since the passenger list did not betray the fact. He took a great liking to this Rev. Mr. Peters, and talked to him a great deal; told him yarns, gave him toothsome scraps of personal history, and wove a glittering streak of profanity through his garrulous fabric that was quite refreshing to a spirit weary of the dull neutralities of undecorated speech. One day the captain said, "Peters, do you ever read the Bible?"

"Well, yes."

"I judge it aint often, by the way you say it. Now, you tackle it in dead earnest once, and you'll find it'll pay. Don't you get discouraged but hang right on. First, you won't understand it; but by and by things will begin to clear up, and you wouldn't lay it down to eat."

"Yes, I have heard that said."

"And it's so, too. There ain't a book that begins with it. It lays over 'em all, Peters. There's some pretty tough things in it—there ain't any getting over that—but you stick to them and think them out, and when once you get on the inside everything is as clear as day."

"And the miracles, captain?"

"Yes sir, the miracles, too. Every one of them. Now, there's that business with the prophets of Baal; like enough that stumped you?"

"Well, I don't know—"

"Own up, now; it stumped you. Well, I don't wonder. You hadn't had any experience in ravelling such things and naturally it was too many for you. Would you like to have me explain that thing to you, and show you how to get at the meat of these matters?"

"Indeed I would, captain, if you don't mind."

Then the captain proceeded as follows: "I'll do it with pleasure. First, you see, I read and read, and thought and thought, till I got to understand what sort of people they were in the old Bible times, and then after that it was all clear and easy. Now, then, this was the way I put it up, concerning Isaac* and the prophets of Baal. There was mighty sharp men among the public characters of that old ancient day, and Isaac was one of them. Isaac had his failings—plenty of them, too; it aint for me to apologize for Isaac, he played it on the prophets of Baal, and like enough he was justifiable, seeing the odds that against him. No, all I say is, 'twa'n't any miracle, and that I'll show you, so's you can see it for yourself."

"Well, times had been getting rougher and rougher for prophets—that is, prophets of Isaac's denomination. There was 450 phophets of Baal in the community, and only one Presbyterian; that is, if Isaac was a Presbyterian, which I reckon he was, though it don't say. Naturally, the prophets of Baal took all the trade. Isaac was pretty low spirited, I reckon, but he was a good deal of a man, and no doubt he went a-prophesying around, letting on to be doing a land office business, but 'twa'n't any use; he couldn't run any opposition to amount to anything. By and by things got desperate with him; he sets his head to work and think it all out, and then what does he do? Why he begins to throw out hints that the other party are this and that and t'other—nothing very definite, maybe, but just kind of undermining their reputation in a quiet way. This made talk, of course, and finally got to the King. The King asked Isaac what he meant by his talk. Says Isaac, "Oh, nothing particular; only can they pray down fire from heaven on an altar? It ain't much, maybe, Your Majesty, only can they do it? That's the idea." So the King was a good deal disturbed, and he went to the prophets of Baal, and they said, pretty airy, that if he had an altar ready, they were ready; and they intimated he better get it insured, too.

"So next morning all the children of Israel and their parents, and the other people, gathered themselves together. Well, here was that great crowd of prophets of Baal packed together on one side, and Isaac walking up and down all alone on t'other, putting up his job. When time was called, Isaac let on to be comfortable and indifferent; told the other team to take the first innings. So they went at it, the whole 450, praying around the altar, very hopeful, and doing their level best. They prayed an hour—two hours—three hours—and so on, plumb till noon. It wasn't any use; they hadn't took a trick. Of course they felt kind of ashamed before all those people, and well they might. Now, what would a magnanimous man do? Keep still, wouldn't he? Of course. What did Isaac do? He gravelled the prophets of Baal every way he could think of. Says he, 'You don't speak loud enough; your God's asleep, like enough, or maybe he's taking a walk; you want to holler, you know,'—or words to that effect; I don't recollect the exact language. Mind, I don't apologize for Isaac; he had his faults.

"Well, the prophets of Baal prayed along the best they knew how all the afternoon, and never raised a spark. At last, about sundown, they were all tuckered out, and they owned up and quit.

"What does Isaac do, now? He steps up and says to some friends there, 'Pour four barrels of water on the altar!' Everybody was astonished; for the other side had prayed at it dry, you know, and had got whitewashed. They poured it on. Says he, 'Heave on four more barrels.' Then he says, 'Heave on four more.' Twelve barrels, you see, altogether. The water ran all over the altar and down the side, and filled up a trench around it that would hold a couple of hogsheads—'measures,' he says; I reckon it means about a hogshead. Some of the people were going to put on their things and go, for they said he was crazy. They didn't know Isaac. Isaac knelt down and began to pray; he strung along and strung along, about the heathen in distant lands, and about the sister churches, and about the State and the country at large, and about those that's in authority in the Government, and all the usual programme, you know, till everybody had got tired and gone to thinking about something else, and then, all of a sudden, when nobody was noticing, he outs with a match and rakes it on the under side of his leg, and pff! up the whole thing blazes 'weve barrels of water? Petroleum, r, petroleum! that's what it was!"

"Petroleum, captain?"

"Yes, sir, the country was full of it. Isaac knew all about that. You read the bible. Don't you worry about the tough places. They ain't tough when you come to pick them out and throw light on them. There ain't a thing in the bible but what is true; all you want is to go prayerfully to work and cipher out how it was done."

*This is the captain's own mistake.

Cut This Out—It May Save Your Life.—There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. E. Boschee's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderous cures astonishes every one that try it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist, and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it, a regular size for 75 cents.

A Beautiful Horse.—There is nothing that can contribute so much to render the horse beautiful and elegant, to improve his condition and make him all that is desirable as "Darley's Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy;" it has been used by many who own valuable carriage and other horses with decided success, and so well pleased are they with it that they always keep it on hand in case of emergency; it may be given at all times with perfect safety.—Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. TOPICS OF THE HOUR.

SACKVILLE, N. B., Feb. 13, 1877.

J. T. Robinson, Esq., St. John, N. B.,

Dear Sir:—Early in October last I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs. After having a bad cough for about 6 weeks I had a severe attack of bleeding from the lungs while on a passage from Queenstown to Dover. I had daily spells of bleeding for some days until I lost about 2 gallons of blood, and was so weak as to be scarcely able to stand. I put back to Queenstown where I received such medical assistance as enabled me to get home.

I saw a notice of your Phosphorized Cod Liver Oil Emulsion in a paper. I directly sent and got half a dozen bottles; after taking which I feel myself a well man once more. My weight, which was reduced to 120 lbs., is now up to my usual standard of 152 lbs. Seeing what it has done for me I can confidently recommend it to others who are afflicted with lung diseases.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) JOSHUA HARPER.
Of the bark "Mary Lowerison."

ROBINSON'S PHOSPHORIZED EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL, with LACTO PHOSPHATE of Lime, is for sale in Sackville by A. DIXON. Price, $1 per bottle; six bottles for $5.

Electricity! Thomas' Eclesior Eclectric Oil!—Worth Ten Times its Weight in Gold.—Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One does cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents' worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years' standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical: J. Collard, of Sparta, Ont., writes, "Send me 6 dozen Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, have sold all I had from you, and want more now; its cures are truely wonderful." Wm. McGuire, of Franklin, writes, "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, but takes splendidly now." H. Cole, of Iona, writes, "Please forward 6 dozen Thonas, Eclectric Oil, I am nearly out, nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville writes, "Send at once a further supply of Eclectric Oil, I have only one bottle left, I never saw anything sell so well and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes, "Send me some more Eclectric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reid, Ulverton, P. Q., write, "The Eclectric Oil is getting a great reputation here, and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay."

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown in the bottle, and Take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cts. IRON

Is pre-eminently tonic and peculiarly well fitted to improve the quality of the blood when impoverished from any cause.

The diseases, in the treatment of which it is most useful, are ANÆMIA, or Deficiency of the Blood Corpuscle. HYSTERIA, indicated by Palpitation of the Heart, Dejection, Anxiety, and Difficult Breathing.

SCROFULA, or Swelling of the Glands, particularly of the Neck, behind the Ears, and under the Chin, also called KING'S EVIL.

RICKETS, or inflammation of the Spine, peculiar to Children; DYSPEPSIA and INDIGESTION, or NON-ASSIMILATION of the food; LEUCORRHŒA, AMENORRHŒA, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, SALT RHEUM, and all troubles arising from impure and thin blood.

QUININE

Produces upon the system the same beneficial effects as PERUVIAN BARK, without being so apt to nauseate and oppress the stomach, and is most beneficial in all MORBID CONDITIONS of the system, and in LOW and TYPHOID forms of DISEASE. Hence its use in SCARLATINA, MEASLES, and SMALL POX, in CARBUNCLE and GANGRENOUS ERYSIPELAS, and in all cases in which the system is exhausted under purulent discharges, and the tendency is towards recovery.

As a TONIC it is most advantageously employed in CHRONIC DISEASES with DEBILITY, as SCROFULA, DROPSY, PASSIVE HŒMORRHAGES, DYSPEPSIA, CUTANEOUS AFFECTIONS, CHOREA (also called St. Vitus Dance), AMENORRHŒA, INDIGESTION, and HYSTERIA, and in the advance state of PROTRACTED FEVERS.

Hanington's Quinine Wine and Iron is a perfect combination of IRON and QUININE, with the Finest Sherry Wine, pleasantly flavored.

Hence its decidedly CURATIVE POWER in the treatment of the above-named diseases, beside countless other ills arising from IMPOVERISHED BLOOD, or a debilitated state of the system.

U. S. Piano Co.

YOU ask WHY we can sell First-class 7 1-3 Octave Rosewood PIANOS for $290. OUR answer is, that it costs less than $300 to make any $600 Piano sold through Agents, all of whom make 100 per cent. profit. We have no Agents, but sell DIRECT to Families at Factory price, and warrant five years. We send our Pianos everywhere for trial, and require no payment unless they are found satisfactory. Send for Illustrated Circular, which gives full particulars, and contains the names of over
