

REVOLVERS DANGEROUS

And Policemen Must be Careful About Drawing Them.

Grimby Man Sent to Jail For Striking Chinese.

Samuel Easter Committed For Removing Surveyor's Stake.

It was not until an epidemic of crime had swept over the city, about five years ago, that the local police were supplied with revolvers. According to a remark made by Magistrate Jeffs at the Police Court this morning, if the police are too ready to draw their weapons they will be taken away from them. The case which led up to this remark was that of Walter Hanley, 355 John street north, who was charged by P. C. Emerson with acting in a disorderly manner. The policeman said that while patrolling his beat about ten minutes to three this morning he saw a crowd of young men at the corner of Wellington and Strachan streets acting disorderly, throwing stones and making a great noise. He arrested Hanley.

The defendant said that he was at the place spoken of by the policeman, but was waiting there to see the circus come in. There were several boys there, he said, and two of them went into a nearby box car to sleep. After they had succeeded in embracing the goal, Morpheus the young man who was waiting around outside began to pull the car with stones. It was then that the policeman appeared, and the crowd ran in all directions. Hanley said he was just thinking of stopping when the officer pulled out his gun, fired it off in the air, and yelled to him to stop. He was afraid that he was against orders, isn't it? immediately.

"Well, I suppose he just fired it to stop the man."

"I want you to make enquiries about that. If the men are going to fire their guns off that way we will have to turn them away from the street. Turning to the prisoner he said: "You have been arrested and spent part of the night in jail, and I guess that is punishment enough. You can go."

When Charles Mahoney, a citizen of Grimby, got out of jail yesterday, after paying his fine of $2 for being drunk, he thought to fortify himself against the assaults of his conscience by taking aboard another load of wet goods. He fell in with a Chinese, who was proceeding quietly up the street with a laundry bag over his shoulder. The defendant stopped him and demanded a cigarette. After some difficulty the Celestial made him understand that he did not use such articles. The refusal seemed to throw Mahoney into a rage, and he proceeded to sweep the sidewalk with the laundry staff. P. C. Springer happened on the scene, and Mahoney was promptly taken into custody.

"Why did you strike him?" queried the magistrate.

"Because he began to curse me in his own lingo. I know something about the language, and I am not going to stand that kind of talk from him," replied Mahoney.

"One thing the authorities will not stand in this city is rowdiness on the streets. You must not molest citizens who are going about their business. You will have to go to jail for one month," were the stunning words of his worship to defendant.

Some amusement was created when John Larkin was told to stand up and plead to a charge of theft. Both John and his counsel, A. M. Lewis, stood up at the same time, and both pleaded at the same time, but differently, John saying he was guilty, but his counsel was of a different opinion, and said that he was not.

The magistrate remanded Larkin for one week for sentence.

Samuel Easter, 36 Allenson street, was charged with removing stakes that had been placed by surveyors on his lot. Walter T. Evans appeared for him and declined to elect. The stakes were placed there by Mr. Whitty, an employee of Tyrrell & MacKay, who was surveying for Mr. Hutcheson's neighbor. The magistrate said that it was clearly against the law to remove surveyor's stakes, and Easter was sent up for trial. He was allowed out on $500 bail, furnished by himself.

CHOIR OUTING.

MacNab Street Church Singers Had a Jolly Picnic.

Last Saturday afternoon, amid ideal weather conditions, the members of MacNab Street Presbyterian Church choir, accompanied by the Rev. H. B. and Mrs. Ketchum and a few friends, held their annual picnic. The party, to the number of forty-five, left the Terminal Station at 2.30, by special car, and had an enjoyable run to Winona Park. There they repaired to the shores of the lake and spent a few delightful hours, devoted to sports and pastimes. The appetites thus cultivated were amply antiquated by mine host of the park, and the company sat down to a bountiful repast. Loyal and appropriate toasts were proposed and responded to and prizes were presented to the successful contestants in the athletic events.

A graceful compliment was paid to Miss Margaret Bruce McCoy, leader of the choir, when she received a splendid bouquet of roses from the male members. The balance of the evening was spent in dancing and singing and the party returned home, thoroughly enthusiastic over the day's entertainment, which was unanimously voted a complete success.

Nearly Drowned.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Brantford, Ont., June 29.—Walter Hunt, a 16-year-old boy, got beyond his depth in the Grand River last evening and went down in the sight of his comrades. Ex-fireman Alex. McRobb, after the life boat crew had been summoned, rescued the boy's body after it had been in the water for ten minutes. After an hour's valiant efforts by Foreman Kingswell and the life-saving crew life was restored, and the lad was taken home little the worse for his experience. He was unconscious over an hour.

BUFFALO BILL HERE TO-DAY.

Great Wild West and Far East Shows In Town.

With one hundred redskins and seven hundred other people, Buffalo Bill and Pawnee Bill, with their Wild West and Far East arrived early this morning from Toronto where the exhibition gave two performances yesterday. Shortly after the arrival the tents and two hours afterward, as if a witch had cast a sweep of a magic wand over the ground, there was a white canvas city with men from every quarter of the globe strutting around as if they had always been there.

One of the great attractions on the show grounds long before the performance started was Buffalo Bill, who, to his intimate friends, is Col. William Frederick Cody. Men and women stood at the door anxiously to catch a glimpse of the old scout. He had long white hair, but the whiteness of his hair does not mean that he is old, for Cody looks as youthful in the face as he did twenty years ago and the hair only adds to the picturesqueness of the man. Fathers have told their boys about him and they themselves have been told of the daring of Buffalo Bill. Hence it is not to be wondered that many a man stood in awe as he looked at the man who had killed his first Indian in a single handed combat when he was only 15 years old.

"Thirty-two thousand persons saw the exhibition in Toronto and we hope that as many will see it to-day in Hamilton," said Pawnee Bill (Major Gordon W. Lillie). "From the crowd on the grounds I should say that races of no races the tent will be full, as it is the coolest place to come on a hot day. Our tent is open we cover only the seats with canvas to protect the patrons from the rain and hot sun. This means that there is always a delightful breeze. We have six hundred horses and elephants, camels and burros and a herd of buffalo with the show this season. There are a score of new features in the Far East part of the show and all the old features have been preserved with the exception of the combined exhibitions in this city. That of the evening, which starts at 8 o'clock (the doors open one hour before that time), will not be curtailed features will not even be hurried. This is another reason for the tremendous successes of Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Pawnee Bill's Far East.

Woods-Norris, Limited, Take Over "Economic Advertising."

Commencing with the June issue, Economic Advertising, a monthly magazine published in the interests of advertisers in Canada, will be published by the Woods-Norris, Limited, Toronto, who have taken over the publication. Mr. T. Johnson Stewart, the founder of the paper, has joined the staff of the Woods-Norris agency, and will continue to edit the magazine.

Economic Advertising, the only publication of its kind issued in Canada, has already made a host of friends, being strongly endorsed by a large number of successful advertisers. The policy of the publication is as broad as the advertising field, the only reason for its existence being the promotion of successful selling campaigns through publicity. The earnestness and enthusiasm which have marked the sure and steady development of Woods-Norris, Limited, will be exercised in the interests of general advertising through the pages of the magazine. Every manufacturer, manufacturer's agent, wholesaler, sales and advertising manager will find this publication well worth their attention, and, as one big advertiser states, "Worth ten times the price."

HOLIDAY ON THE WATER.

Most people are now considering what will be the most enjoyable way of spending Dominion Day. A trip to Toronto by boat is the thing. A short or long stay in Toronto can easily be arranged as desired, as a service of eight trips each way will be given. No crowding will be allowed as steamers leave so frequently that this will not be necessary. Those wishing to spend a portion of the day elsewhere could add materially to the pleasure of the day by combining a trip to Toronto. The trip by moonlight leaving here at 7.30 p. m. returning leave Toronto 10 p. m., should be most delightful. See ads on last page of this issue.

Miss Ida C. Hamilton, Charlton avenue west, left to-day for Long Island to attend the Marshall Fry's Art Institute to continue her studies for the summer.

MISS KINRADE AND MONTROSE WRIGHT

Were Married In New York Yesterday and Will Go to England and the Continent In a Short Time.

Miss Florence Kinrade and Clare Montrose Wright were married in New York yesterday.

This morning the Times received from Mr. T. L. Kinrade, father of the bride, the following announcement:

MARRIED IN NEW YORK.

The marriage of Miss Florence Belle Kinrade, daughter of T. L. Kinrade, principal of Cannon Street School, Hamilton, Ont., to Mr. Clare Montrose Wright, B. A., of Victoria University, Toronto, took place yesterday (Monday, June 28, 1909), in New York City. The ceremony, which was very private, only the nearest relatives being present, was held in the Madison Avenue Methodist Church, and was performed by the Rev. Dr. Wallace McMullen. The bride, who was handsomely gowned in white, was given away by her father. Mr. and Mrs. Wright left the city on their honeymoon soon after. It is understood they may spend some time in England and principal European cities.

The announcement will be a surprise to all, and yet it is what was expected, the devoted attention shown by Mr. Wright throughout the Kinrade murder inquest and his frequent declarations of his unshaken faith in Miss Kinrade leaving no other conclusion possible.

Locally, it is believed the marriage will bring about two things—the end of the Kinrade case, and the close of Mr. Montrose Wright's career as a Methodist probationer.

MRS. CLARE MONTROSE WRIGHT, NEE KINRADE.

PLAYGROUNDS

Committee Has Arranged Apparatus For Hess Street.

The Executive Committee of the Playgrounds Committee, Mr. R. T. Steele, Mrs. John Crerar, R. K. Hope, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Woolverton and Mr. J. M. Eastwood, met this morning at Hess street school, and inspected the grounds preparatory to installing the apparatus. There will be giant swings, parallel bars, baby swings and sand piles for the little children. The committee was invited by Mr. A. S. Cruickshanks to address the children, and the opportunity was thus afforded of their learning all about the happy time in store for them on their playground at Hess street school during the summer months. Subscriptions from citizens interested in this praiseworthy movement are coming in every day. Mr. R. K. Hope is the treasurer, and he will be glad to receive any subscription, which will be applied to the equipment of the necessary apparatus. When everything is in readiness the members of the School Board, the parents of the children and the contributors will be invited through the press to be present at the opening of the playground.

Couldn't Work

Without British Army Foot Powder. The above is only one of the many like statements that we hear from time to time. British army foot powder is the original and genuine foot powder that relieves and cures foot troubles. 25c per tin. Parke & Parke, Druggists.

Quebec—Three Million People in 1950.

The Premier of Quebec believes that the Province should have a total population in 1950 of from two and three-fourths to three million. This is one of the interesting phases of his forecast of Quebec of the future, published in the July 3rd issue of Collier's. A man named Coombes was injured last night by falling from a building on which he was working. Dr. MacLaughlin was called and attended to his injuries.

MAY SAVE CITY MANY THOUSANDS.

That Is City Hall's Opinion of the Course Taken by the Cataract Company.

Opinion is divided in the City Hall to-day as to the outcome of the injunction proceedings begun yesterday by George S. Kerr, acting for Robert S. Morris, stock broker, a ratepayer of the city of Hamilton and a stock holder in the Cataract Company. The aldermen agree, however, that it is the surest and speediest way of settling the power question. The action may save the city many hundreds of thousands of dollars, for if the courts hold that the Cataract contract is binding, it is pretty safe to conclude that the city will not contract with the Hydro-Electric Commission, at least not before the people have another opportunity of passing judgment on the question.

It is believed by the city officials that the grounds on which the plaintiff alleges that improper voters' lists were used and that the Hydro plebiscite, instead of having a majority for it, had a majority against it, is that the deputy returning officers permitted tenants who voted on the controllers by-law to vote on the Hydro plebiscite, which they had no right to do. City Clerk Kent says the instructions to the returning officers were very explicit. This morning as an illustration he looked up division 1 in Ward 1 and found that only five tenants in that division voted. They voted on the controllers by-law only, as they had a right to do.

There is a possibility that a scrutiny of the ballots will show that in other divisions tenants voted for the Hydro plebiscite. Mr. Kent points out that by-law 853, which the plaintiff asks to have quashed, has already served its purpose. This by-law was to provide for submitting to the electors the Hydro-Electric plebiscite. The only part of the proceedings that the city officials appear to be inclined to treat seriously is the injunction which will decide the validity of the by-law. The case will come up at Osgoode Hall on Monday next.

Although the Finance Committee yesterday afternoon practically decided that it could spare no money this year to assist the Board of Health in establishing a central distributing station in the main mills campaign for babies during hot weather, the Medical Health Officer, Dr. Roberts, had not despaired of getting the scheme under way. As a last resort private subscriptions will be resorted to.

The Technical School Committee on Monday night will meet and appoint teachers for the institution.

Building permits were issued to-day as follows: Thomas Heximer, brick house on Holton avenue, between Main and King streets, $2,300.

F. H. Hall, four brick houses on Burris street, between Delaware and Poplar avenue, $6,000. John Bleskey, brick addition to 198 Victoria avenue north, $200.

How much will I put you down for the Y. M. C. A. fund?

Crops are looking fine. I told you not to worry.

We hear a lot about the ravages of the white plague and what to do to fight it. But the daily drainings go on and nothing does to check them.

Hurrah! the school is closed.

The boy's parents should now instruct him to spare the birds.

There is so much City Hall money to spend this year that an overdraft should be out of the question. But we shall see.

This would be a good time to have the playgrounds opened. They would keep Johnnie off the street.

The "don't spit-on-the-sidewalk" injunction is not as well respected as it used to be.

With so many young, raw men on the force, it is a wonder to me that there are not more complaints.

What's the matter with the Spec? Here it is jumping on John Milne, the President of the Conservative Association, and charging him with running an unfair moulding shop. Will John stand for that?

Well, sonny, did you get promoted?

What are you going to do with yourself on Thursday?

The statement is made that some of the skeleton regiments at Niagara Camp were stuffed with American substitutes from Buffalo. Is that true?

The Herald refused to bite. I don't believe it would risk $10, to say nothing of $10,000, on the correctness of its power figures.

The new Methodist pastors who have come to the city will find the Old Boy pretty active here. He is up to all the tricks, and if they want to beat him they will have to get up pretty early in the morning, and be in no hurry to go to bed.

Mr. Flatt's advice is, "Go west, young man." He is building up quite a town, too.

How would it do to get some expert advice as to the Jolley Cut? It appears sadly in need of something.

So far none of the bookies have applied to Mr. McMenemy for assistance. They are all living at the best hotels. Is your money helping to pay the bills?

Two months' holidays. All the school ma'ams should have roses in their cheeks by the end of that time.

Now if it had been a chicken fight, the Herald might have put up its money.

Street car companies are not supposed to be any worse than any other company that allows its men to go out on strike, but street car strikes always bring the indignation of the people. Why? Is it sympathy for the men or because they have got to walk?

Mr. Overalls Man: Dear Sir,—Have you heard the new fog horn just lately installed in a certain building on Wellington street—a mere abominable bed-zob of a thing you never heard, unless you have been on an ocean liner, when in a thick fog. We hear of public nuisances, but just think of bearing such a horrid noise five or six times a day on a street, right among private residences. Tell you, Mr. Editor, it is a perfect nuisance, and all just to tell about 50 or 75 men and women when to start and when to leave off work. Sir, if you can do anything to help stop such a nerve-shattering noise, I for one, shall be grateful. Yours truly, Richard Atkinson, 145 Wellington street north, Hamilton, June 28th, 1909.

ORDAINED.

Solemn Ceremony In St. Mary's Cathedral Chapel To-day.

An ordination service was held in St. Mary's Cathedral chapel this morning at 9 o'clock, when Bishop Dowling ordained to the priesthood Rev. F. Hiney, of St. Mary's Cathedral; Rev. P. Padden, of Walkerton, and Rev. A. Capps, of Brantford. The Bishop was assisted by Dean Mahoney, Rev. Father Coty and Rev. Father Bonomi. The new priests were assisted during the service by Rev. Father Kehoe, Kenilworth, Ont.; Rev. Father Donovan, Dunville, and Rev. Father Benninger, of St. Jerome's College, Berlin.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the Bishop gave a very instructive address, after which the numerous friends of the ordained priests who were present went forward to the sanctuary to receive the blessing.

The priests who were present, besides those mentioned above, were: Rev. Father Engwert, Hamilton; Rev. Father Ferguson, Freeton; Rev. Father Savage, Markdale; Rev. Father Montag, Walkerton, and Rev. Father Cummings, of Brantford.

Two morning the three young priests will celebrate their first mass. Rev. Father Hiney at St. Lawrence's Church; Rev. Father Padden at St. Joseph's Convent, and Rev. Father Capps at St. Mary's Cathedral.

FINED $20

Criminal Cases Before Judge Snider This Morning.

Harry Goodman, charged with stealing a suit of clothes from Morris Moore, appeared before Judge Snider this morning for election. He pleaded not guilty, declined to elect, and was therefore remanded to jail.

Alfred Petman came up for trial on a charge of stealing some goods from William Hendry. In his preliminary trial before Magistrate Jeffs he pleaded guilty and Crown Attorney Washington, thinking he was merely up for sentence, was unprepared. As the prisoner now pleaded not guilty he asked that the case be laid over until the necessary evidence could be produced. A remand of a week was granted.

Two Polders, Frank Domino and Seppon Panock, charged with stabbing Tony Grabitch, were tried. The particulars of the case were recently published. The prisoners swore that Grabitch had made the attack, and was the cause of all the trouble.

His Honor Judge Snider considered that it was difficult to determine who was to blame; in his opinion the complainant had been looking for the trouble he got. He dismissed the charge of assault, but imposed a fine of $20 or thirty days in jail on Panack for carrying a revolver.
