St. Helens.

Mr. James removed from his farm a few days ago, and has taken up his residence in the house formerly owned by Mr. Bryson.

The young men in the southern part of this vicinity engaged in a squirrel hunt on Friday last, ending with a supper and dance at Mr. Joseph Bell's.

Mr. Thos Radcliffe returned from Dakota on Monday last, and purposes spending the winter visiting his friends.

A few days ago while Mr. Ed. Durbin was hunting in the woods, when in the act of firing at a squirrel almost directly overhead, the gun burst. Being a double barreled gun both barrels were ripped open and the stock badly shattered. The young man escaped unhurt, the only mark being a slight scratch on the forehead. It was a close call.

Clinton.

We are sorry to learn that the Philharmonic Society has fallen through; it is proposed to form a Choral Union in place thereof, and a meeting for that purpose will be held in a few days.

A very pretty driving horse bought a few days since, he has sold to Mr. Jas. Fair, at a good figure. Last week Mr. Malcolm McEwan, of Stanley, refused $175 for a two year old filly. Mr. Davidson, a Michigan buyer, took two car loads of horses from here last week, and is again buying here. Last week Messrs. Mooney and Rattenbury sold a span of three-year-old Samson mares, to a Detroit gentleman, for the sum of $525 and a gelding for $250.

The Clinton News Enquirer says: The executive meeting of the Huron County Sabbath School Association, was held in the Baptist church, Clinton, on Tuesday, as announced. A number of the members of the association from different parts of the county were present, with T. McGillicuddy, Esq., Goderich, president, in the chair. An excellent and varied programme was made out for the proposed convention to be held in Exeter, on Wednesday and Thursday, 14th and 15th of Feb. 1883. A number of the ministers and laymen of the different towns in the county, were selected to speak on the subjects allotted them. On account of the late corresponding secretary E. F. Moore of Goderich, going to Chicago who was a very efficient officer and worker in Sunday School work, the committee had to appoint another secretary to do the work in the mean time. Mr. J. C. Stevenson was appointed till the convention meets, to have the co-operation and assistance of Mr. C. F. Pashley, Clinton.

A Rare Importation.

New York, Nov. 19.—The steamship Hermod, Capt. Eyer, from Antwerp, lay at pier 49, East River yesterday, with a flock of 51 sheep aboard. They are from the Rambouillet farm in France, and M. Cerf, a Frenchman, who has been three years in this country, and has a large sheep farm near SanAntonio, Texas, is their owner. These sheep, he says, are direct descendants of a flock presented by the King of Spain to Louis XVI of France in 1786. The flock has always been kept isolated, and all that were in any way bleached have been killed from year to year. Before the sheep were sent to France it was a grievous offense to send any of them out of Spain, but to-day the Spanish strain it is said is not wholly pure, while the French sheep are utterly blueblooded. The sheep on board the Hermod are of medium size and fat. They all have thick curly horns and stiff wool. They perspire freely, and the outer part of the wool is moist with oil. On parting it showed snow white within. The sheep can be sheared twice a year and yield heavy fleeces.

A Subterranean Fire.

Trenton, N. S., Nov. 16.—A subterranean fire is eating its way through several acres of land and threatening to undermine several large buildings of the New Jersey Steel and Iron Co. It smokes like a volcano, and an iron bar thrust down in several places to a depth of twelve feet, was pulled out red hot each time. At night long stretches of the river are aglow with fire. Many years ago the company began to dump furnace refuse on the bank and covered six or seven acres, and the cinders were often dumped when red hot. There is enough coal in the refuse to afford food for a short fire. There were indications of the fire four months ago, but they were not heeded. Workmen are digging trenches into which water will be poured between the buildings and the heated ground.

What Has Become of the Fenian Skirmishing Fund.

New York, Nov. 19.—The final meeting of subscribers to the Fenian Sinking Fund was held this afternoon. The Committee on investigation made a report, supplementing it with a demand that they be accorded the privilege of producing proof to substantiate their charges before the Secretary of the Tribunal, or, if the Trustees desire it, public proof. The report sets forth that of all the money spent ostensibly for the Skirmishing Fund only two items had even the remotest connection with the skirmishing project. These refer to the purchase of two rams, costing $35,300, and Creslin's charges for superintending and construction of same.

Byron on "Marmion."

As much has been written about Marmion by priests and parsons, politicians and laymen, it may interest some to read what the gifted poet, Lord Byron, thought of the hero of this much discussed romance. The following are his words: Next view in state, proud prancing on his roan. The golden-crested haughty Marmion, Now forging scrolls, now foreman in the fight. Not quite a felon, yet but half a knight. The gibbet or the field prepared to grace; A mighty mixture of the great and base. And think at thou, Scott! by vain conceit perchance. On public taste to foist thy stale romance! Though Murray with his squire may combine To yield thy muse just half a crown per line! No! when the sons of song descend to trade, Their bays are near, the former laurels fade. Let such forego the poet's sacred name. Who rack their brains for lucre, not for fame; How may they sink to menial conditions! And sworn remunerate the mean attempt! Such be their meed, such still the just reward of prostituted muse and mirroring bard; For this we spurn Apollo's vernal son, A bit a long "good night to Marmion."

Sound Views.

The Springfield Republican maintains that the rapid extinction of the public debt by heavy taxes "is not wise policy. It would be much better to reduce the payment of the public debt to the minimum required by the sinking-fund law, and remit to the people the rest of this enormous surplus by lightening the taxes on the necessities and comforts of life. Why collect two or three cents in taxes be collected on every pound of imported sugar and more in proportion on a gallon of molasses! Reduce the tariff on blankets, carpets, woollens, steel rails, and other great staples. If, as the protectionists say, the prices of these things are already below the tariff, then they certainly have no fear of competition if the tariff is reduced. If the prices are not below then the duties certainly ought to be reduced."

Mean Revenge by Tories.

If the London Advertiser's account of the persecutions of Mr. Isaac Langford are anything near the truth, we think it a scandal and a disgrace to the county of Middlesex. If the people siding themselves Conservatives have no more decency than to commit one-tenth part of the outrages reported in the Advertiser they deserve the indignation of every decent Conservative in the Dominion. The substance of the story is as follows: Mr. Isaac Langford, of the Langford settlement, brother of the late Rev. A. Langford, and a prominent class leader in the C. M. Church, was a candidate at the last general election. His candidature aroused a bitter feeling against him in his church, and since the election he has been subjected to the meanest sort of persecutions by those opposed to him in the congregation. He had the tail of a valuable horse shaved, on going and returning from church he was met with jeers and taunts, and even barred out of his pew. He bore this sort of treatment as long as he could, and was at length compelled to leave the church. Mr. Langford is said to be a man of more than average intelligence and standing, and such abuse is inexplicable as the case is represented. Berlin News.

The statement which has been industriously circulated by Tories that the money deposited in the Lennox election case has been misplaced is denied. Sir John Macdonald will be compelled to defend his seat, and the assault is being vigorously conducted.

The Natal Witness states that while ostriches may digest tannery nails, they cannot withstand the effects of tobacco. One of them snatched a meerschaum pipe from the mouth of a farmer and swallowed it. The ostrich died. It was not the pipe, but the nicotine contained in it, that caused the animal's untimely demise.

The City of Glasgow bank failed four years ago, and liquidation has just been accomplished. Every penny of the bank's vast debt has been paid, and the remaining assets handed over to the company for the benefit of still solvent shareholders. Liquidation fund paid off $65,000,000, of which nearly half came out of the pockets of shareholders.

R. Huffman, of Bentleyville, Washington County, a cripple by paralysis for several years, professes to have been restored to health and attributes his miraculous cure to the influence of prayer. Dr. Scott, who has been attending him, together with several members of the Washington Medical Society, declare his case incurable, and they are unable to offer an explanation for his present condition.

Dr. Beggs, the leader of the anti-organ movement in the Free Church of Scotland, protests vigorously against their use in divine worship as being mere "human inventions." In reply the Edinburgh Scotsman argues that in logical consistency Dr. Beggs has really no standing ground, as he allows his precursor the use of his tuning fork. "If," as the writer puts it, "you allow the use of one instrument to suggest the first note of the Psalm, how can you object to an instrument that suggests the subsequent notes?"

The Winnipeg Sun says: "Reports from Nipissing are to the effect that the Canada Pacific has over two thousand men employed between Mattawa and Algoma Mills, and that in winter, when rock cutting is to be carried on, this number will be increased to three thousand. Construction trains are now running as fast west as Nipissing. The Company expect to have the road completed to Algoma Mills by May 1st, and iron steamers will be placed on the route between that point and Fort William as soon as navigation opens."
