

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"Oh, had some power the little girl was To see herself as others see us!"

But as long as it doesn't seem inclined to, I think, it's quite illuminating, occasionally to see someone else as
"Others see us."
A man in our town found it so, according to a story that leaked out recently.

This man is a perfectly good man in a good many ways. Doesn't drink at all, or smoke to excess, works hard, is a good provider, pretty good tempered and livable with, except for one thing. Whereby hangs the tale.

The one thing he brought back with him from a youthful experience as a runaway sailor boy, along with a rolling gait, a willingness to stay home for a while, and some curios from foreign lands, and it is the habit of profanity.

He has—or I should say, had—never gotten over it from that day to this. Even in his own home he swore.
The least little thing started him off.
He was willing to do anything on earth for his wife except break himself of that habit. Said he'd tried that but he just couldn't.

Sometimes he'd do it before company, usually special company, like the minister and his family. His wife used to cry about it, and he used to feel terribly bad himself, but it didn't seem to do any good.

And then one day he said something especially awful in front of his daughter's prospective beau. She didn't cry, but she thought pretty hard, and the next day she confided a plan to her mother. Her mother promptly said: "Never. You know I wouldn't do such a thing."

And then a few days later when the Ladies' Aid Society were all taking tea at his house, and her husband advised the parrot to go to a place no self-respecting parrot would think for a moment of visiting; she reconsidered and said "yes."

The next night when the husband came home to dinner and didn't find his shoes in their accustomed place, he inquired for them in his usual way.

"Where the d— are my shoes?"
"D— you, I put them behind the stove," calmly responded his wife.

As he stood looking at his quiet little spouse, with his mouth wide open, his daughter appeared from the kitchen with the steak. "What in h— makes you so late to-night?" she inquired by way of greeting.

Neither of them showed in any way that they were conscious of saying anything out of the ordinary. And they kept it up in this strain for about two days until they found they had all the swearing to themselves and then they stopped.

Occasionally he still has relapses, but only very, very rarely.

The minister thinks it was his last sermon that accomplished the cure.
I fancy if he reads this he will be somewhat enlightened.

Of course, I realize that very few of my readers have profane husbands to cure, but don't you think it a plan that might work for other faults besides profanity?

Do You Feel This Way?

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? This ambition to force ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood.
If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice.
Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good." Dr.
Pierce's medicines are of known composition. Their every ingredient printed on their wrappers. Made from roots without alcohol. Contain no habit-forming drugs. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

Ammonia is an excellent cleanser for porcelain, but when dirt and grease demand an extra agent, use kerosene. It will do the work thoroughly. Apply with a rag and wipe off with warm soapsuds.

To prevent raisins or currants from dropping to the bottom of the pan, first put in a layer of dough without them and then add the dough to which the raisins, well floured, have been mixed.

If the edge of a linen turnover collar is moistened with glycerine and water after ironing and before folding it over, there will be little danger of its cracking. The solution will make the fabric pliable.

For a quickly prepared and dainty dessert, put halves of canned pears with some of the syrup into individual dishes, cover the tops with whipped cream and sprinkle with grated cocoa-nut or dot with cherries.

If the entire woodwork of a house is washed every two or three months with ammonia water and corners and shelves of drawers are sprinkled with powdered borax, insects and bugs of all descriptions will seek a home elsewhere.

When a carpet is to be cleaned it is well to remove all grease spots first.
This is best done by scrubbing them well with a clean brush dipped in warm, strong soapsuds. When the scrubbing process is finished, wipe the spots well with a cloth dipped in ammonia water.

To clean white marble, put a lump of soda about the size of an egg into a pot containing half a pint of water and a teaspoonful of soft soap. Heat it almost to boiling and paint it on the marble while hot. Leave it on a day or two and then wash off with warm water and a clean flannel.

A splendid filling for soft cushions may be made by taking a dime's worth of cotton batting, cutting it into small squares and heating it in a baking pan in the oven for half an hour, care being taken not to let it scorch. Each little square will puff up to twice its size and will be light and fluffy as a feather.

Cracked porcelain can be admirably mended if it can be tightly tied or clamped together, with edges perfectly dry, and is then boiled for at least half an hour in skimmed milk. Remove the milk from the stove and let the porcelain stay in it until the milk is cold. If this is properly done the pieces will stick firmly together and the crack will be hard to find.

Nuts are very nutritious, and if eaten at proper times prove a good substitute for meat. At this season, however, they are not generally of good quality, and should only be served salted or in cooked dishes. Olive oil, cream and butter are all nourishing and should be indulged in freely.
Macaroni, spaghetti and the various noodles are not only healthy but easily digested by the weakest stomach.

Apply Bearline (prepared from the grease of the Canadian Bear) and save your hair, when it begins to fall out or is brittle. 50c. a jar.

Bilious?

"How are your bowels?" the doctor always asks. He knows how important is the question of constipation. He knows that inactivity of the liver will often produce most disastrous results. We believe it is essential to health. Ask your own doctor about Ayer's Pills. They are the best liver pills you

Obstinate Skin Disease

The Blood Treatment Cured.

The following interesting letter is from Mrs. J. E. Bryson, of Melville Bridge, P.O.:—"Last summer I went to Toronto, and am especially glad I did so, because there I learned about "Ferrozone," which my friends told me was a wonderful blood builder and purifier.

"Though I am quite active for nearly three years my face and some parts of my body were covered with an almost unceasing succession of pimples. At first they were quite angry looking, and later they would die down to a scaly scab. Life in the open air, lotions and washes were all quite useless. My friend pointed out that my blood was impure, and Fer-rozone would cure it. Faith doesn't matter when you use Ferrozone—for I hadn't any. All my trouble was on the outside, and it seemed hard to see how inward medicine could help it.
At first I had a month's crop in a few days, but it didn't keep up. Ferrozone drove all the poison out of my blood—my skin healed over, grew smooth and flexible, and to-day you can't see a sign of a pimple. I feel improved in a lot of ways—have a good appetite, a clear, ruddy color, sleep well and look the picture of health."

For debility, thinness or impurity in the blood—for run-down condition, no tonic will be found so invigorating and strengthening as Ferrozone. Try it, one or two tablets at meal time, 50c per box, six boxes for $2.50, all dealers or The Catarthozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

Shannahan on Fresh Air.

I was reading an account one day last week in one of the up-along papers about giving fresh air trips to the poor children of the cities—giving them a rollicking good time of it a couple of days during the summer.

Not one of those picnics, you know, where you are supposed to look straight and keep your collar and stockings white so as they'll do for next year, but a good square let-he-go, kind of an outing, the remembrance of which will be carried to your grave. Now the thought struck me that there are lots of children around here who were never to a picnic in their lives. Their parents can't afford to rig them out, and Mrs.
Tucker thinks that the ladies of this town could very easily get up a picnic for those children to be held about July. She thinks there must be a lot of women who have spare time on their hands and who would be only too glad to lend their assistance to such an undertaking. The raising of funds would be easy, for every one feels delighted to see the real poor children having a good time. Shannahan never gave a cent to anything in his life, except it was to the Broad Cove Races, and he always got his money's worth there; but if this picnic business is started, away goes a dollar from Shannahan's well-lashed down purse. There is a grand chance for some of the candidates' wives who are out for the Council to start this; there would be no need of any further canvassing, and I give the hint and charge nothing for it. If they can do it in another country, surely we can do it even on a smaller scale here. Which lady will start the ball a-rolling? Here is one of the opportunities to grasp.
Think it over.

TIM SHANNAHAN.

Lame Back

To have a lame back or painful stitches, means disordered kidneys, and the sooner you have the kidneys and bladder in a perfectly healthy condition, the sooner you will enjoy life. As far as we know there is only one remedy that is guaranteed to cure you, and that is FIG PILLS. If they don't make you a strong, healthy person in two weeks your money will be refunded. 25c. a box, at all leading drug stores.

Appointed Manager.

We learn that Mr. Fred. Hiscock, of the Bank of Montreal, this city, has been promoted to the management of the Bank at Birch Cove and will next week take up his duties there.
This is an important appointment, and we congratulate Mr. Hiscock on his well deserved success.

A West End tough assaulted "Dr." Nell yesterday about 1.45 at the foot of Job's Street. Nell, who is an imbecile, was badly served. Both fell in the struggle on the street car track on Water Street and narrowly escaped being run over by a passing car. Nell's cries drew a crowd, some of whom interfered and released him from his assailant. His assailant will likely be summoned for assault.

A Good Programme.

His Excellency the Governor and Lady Williams will attend the celebration at the College Hall, St. George's Night. A particularly attractive programme is being prepared which will no doubt be pleasing to those who patronize the event. There will be songs by Messrs. W. M. Mawer, F. King, J.
O'Reilly, G. Christian and C. Carter.
Miss S. Johnson will play the violin, and Miss Herder, Miss Berteau, Miss Outerbridge and Miss Withers will also sing. The Governor will deliver an address.

Great English Critics on Mark Hambourg.

G. W. L. Marshall-Hall, Composer, Professor and Director of the University and Conservatoire of Melbourne, after attending one of the recitals given recently in that city by Mark Hambourg, the great Russian pianist, says in the course of a very eloquent article:—"I do not know who there is in the whole world to equal Mark Hambourg, to surpass him there is none. We had the privilege to hear him first as a youth; then as a young man and now we have him among us as a thoroughly ripened artist in his full manhood. I do not know if I have ever heard this beautiful work, (Waldstein-Sonata of Beethoven) quite so perfectly interpreted. I am sure it has never made so deep an impression on my mind. MR. HAMBOURG'S tenderness is the tenderness of a powerful, energetic nature, not of a timid, gentle spirit. It is this manly breadth which distinguishes MR. HAMBOURG.
He is never petty, never weakly sentimental, never tentative, but always masterful, noble, dignified and impressive."

Death of Miss Toucher

Miss Jessie Toucher died at her residence, Signal Hill Road yesterday afternoon in her 22nd year, much regretted by all her acquaintances. Miss Toucher contracted a heavy cold last fall, and developing into pneumonia she was taken to the General Hospital.
Last week the doctor advised that she be taken home as her case was one that was incurable. She leaves a father, aunt and two sisters to mourn their loss. The Telegram extends its sympathy.

St. Bon's Entertainment

There was a large audience at the Aula Maxima, St. Bon's College, last night to witness the performance of the four act drama "Falsely Accused." The performance was very successful and reflected great credit on the pupils and teachers. Mr. T. P. Halley as "Jasper Rosenblado," and L. C.
Murphy as "Jonas Hundle the Poacher," and J. Fox, the "Village Pastor," divided the honors equally among them in the excellent rendition of their respective roles. F. Summers as the father had a splendid conception of the character and did very well indeed. Edward Emerson in the role of Mr. Grafton, Q.C., did his part in a very realistic manner. Gerald Byrne as the rascally steward gave promise of considerable histrionic ability. E.
L. Carter as the Chief Justice had a true conception of the character and was deservedly applauded. Although having minor parts, Masters E. Rawlings, P. Halley, L. O'Mara and E. H.
Crawford contributed in no small degree to the general success of the drama. Two songs rendered by Mr.
Fox between the acts formed a pleasing variety in the programme. Among the audience were many old St. Bon's boys, the Christian Brothers and the clergy of the Cathedral and St. Patrick's. The entertainment would well bear repetition.

The C.C.C. Sports.

On next Wednesday evening the C.
C. C. will hold their sports in their Armoury. The programme will be an interesting one, and some of the items will be participated in by the lads of the other city brigades. All are now hard at practice and the sports promise to be a great success.

The Late Miss Fanny Brown.

To the beloved circle of dear friends and relatives the sudden death of Miss Fanny Brown, will come as a great shock. For a long time she had been in delicate health, and for the past week seriously ill, but her sudden sad ending was not anticipated. The deceased who was of very quiet, retiring disposition, was very kind and charitable and many of the poor will miss her kind sympathy and generous gifts.
The eldest daughter of the well known banker and merchant Robert Brown.
She is survived by three sisters—Mrs.
T. R. Job, of Liverpool, Mrs. Nightingale, and her attached sister and constant companion, Miss Martha Brown. Her elder brother, Robert, left here long ago for New York, and all will remember the genial Thomas Brown for many years a clerk at Jobs.
To the sorrowing friends and relatives we offer our warmest sympathy in their sad loss.

Placentia Notes.

It is reported that the Government are going to establish a Savings Bank in Placentia. People have not forgotten the Bank Crash when every bank in the country except the Government Savings Bank had to close their doors, and the awful loss that was sustained by the earnings of a life time being destroyed by careless management. A Government Savings Bank is a sure and safe place for the thrifty and industrious person to deposit his savings. This bank will be a great encouragement to the people.
There are many thousands of dollars stowed away in the old stocking.

Three steamers were in port on Thursday—the Argyle, Portia and the Fiona.

Mr. L. Brown of Paradise was here loading lumber.

The St. Joseph, Rd. Wyse, arrived on Monday morning. She is freighting in the bay.

Mr. F. Barron is here in the schr.
Campania for a freight to Paradise.

Funeral at Harbor Main

The funeral of the late Mr. Patrick Strapp took place yesterday at Harbor Main and was attended by people from all parts of the district. Several also went out by train from town to be present at the obsequies, including Rev. Bro. Ennis, Rev. Bro.
Ryan, Rev. Bro. Strapp and Sergeant Olliphant. Requiem High Mass was celebrated at the church by Rt. Rev.
Monsignor Veitch, who was assisted by Rev. Frs. Battcock and Sheehan.
Interment afterwards took place in the church cemetery.

FINDS HIS WORK A PLEASURE NOW

Alberta man tells how his troubles vanished when he used the old reliable Kidney Remedy.

Scona, Alta., April 21.—(Special).— "I can now do all my work without pain and with pleasure." Those are the words of Postmaster Andrew B.
Nelson of this place. As all the post-master's friends know, he has been troubled with Kidney Disease for several years past, and has been doing everything in his power to find a cure for it. He has found the cure.
It is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Yes, I tried all kinds of medicines for my kidney trouble," the postmaster joyfully states. "None of them seemed to do me any good till I commenced to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Two boxes of them cured me completely. I highly recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from Kidney Disease. I would not be without them."

New Football Club.

Monday night next the annual meeting of the Newfoundland Football League will be held. It is likely that all last year's teams will be represented. One new team has made application for admission to the League. It is known as the "Casual Football Club" and will line up with several new players, with some who played in bygone years. With the admission of this club the interest in the matches this season should increase.

During next week some seven steamers are due here from Cadz with salt for Jobs, Bowings, Baine Johnston's and Morey's, and in all nearly 20,000 tons will be landed so that there will be a plentiful supply for the fishery.
