Priests Showed Heroism.

New York, April 23.—Winnowed from among many pathetic stories of the Titanic catastrophe to-day, was a tale of two clergymen who went down with the Titanic while ministering to the welfare of the souls of the stricken passengers grouped on their knees about them. One of the clergymen was the Rev. Thomas R. D. Byles, of Westminster Parish, London, who was on his way to officiate at the marriage of his brother in Brooklyn, and the other a German priest, whose name is unknown.

Brooklyn, and the other a German priest, whose name is unknown.

Father Byles was in the first cabin and the German priest in the steerage. Both had celebrated Mass in the steerage Sunday morning, and strangely each in his sermon had spoken of the necessity for man to be possessed of the lifeboat of religious consolation in time of spiritual shipwreck. The story of the deaths of the priests was related to-day by three women survivors of the Titanic, Ellen Mocklare, Bertha Moran and Miss McCoy.

they said, Father Byles came down in the steerage passageway with hand uplifted, commanding the people to be calm and giving them absolution and his blessing. "Helped us to where the boats were being lowered," said Miss Mocklare, "the meanwhile saying, prayers, and helped women and children into them. He whispered words of comfort and encouragement to all. The passengers were deeply impressed by his self-control. Twice he refused to enter the boat and save himself.
