Fell Off Express Waggon Falling off an express waggon of the American Aerated Waters Co., last evening on Patrick St. and dragging a couple of cases of bottles with him, Jack Costello, the driver of the express was rather badly injured, his head getting considerably bruised.
Passing people carried him into the basement of Wesley Church which was nearby and an ambulance and doctor were summoned. He was then found to be not severely injured and was taken

The second general convention of the campaign workers took place in the Methodist College Hall last night when there was again a splendid meeting under the chairmanship of Sir Edgar R. Bowring. At nine promptly supper was begun, the waiting being done most kindly by the ladies of the Cathedral Guild. After supper, the captains of the teams reported their day's work, which proved to be most satisfactory, as the following tables show:

DIVISION A.
Mr. W. H. Warren, Chairman.
1. Capt. Blandford—22 . . . $1,750.00
2. Capt. Winter—17 . . . 850.00
3. Capt. Hunt—38 . . . 3,140.00
4. Capt. Dicks—41 . . . 3,310.00

DIVISION C.
Mrs. H. Outerbridge, Chairman.
11. Capt. Mrs. Winter—21 . . . $ 656.00
12. Capt. Mrs. Gray—30 . . . 1,122.50
13. Capt. Miss Edwards—31 . . . 1,075.00
14. Capt. Mrs. Fraser—20 . . . 1,364.50

To-day—816 subs . . . 37,374.00 Total—863 subs . . . $229,094.00

As the several captains reported, the enthusiasm waxed strong, and the banners, amid cheers, went to Cape. C.
E. Hunt's team and Mrs. Tasker Cook's Team. The winning division was that of Mr. Walter Monroe, who holds the Union Jack until some other division beats him.

Mr. Stoll congratulated the teams and emphasized the one or two important points in relation to the conduct of the campaign.
Sir Edgar Bowring, Chairman, expressed his pleasure at the result of the day's campaign, and said that he felt sure that good as it was it would be found it would not be the best.
Canon Bolt read an encouraging message from Mr. Hockenbury. Mr. W.
R. Warren made a strong address, and very strongly impressed upon the workers that they should not be satisfied to take 'No' for an answer. Mr.
Warren gave three reasons for putting every ounce of energy into the campaign. First, Education is of such vast importance to all without any exception; second, Education is democracy's safeguard and ignorance its direct enemy; third, the value of Education to the boys and girls. Every boy and every girl is entitled to an education, and education is a process that is a matter of play as well as work. Mr. Warren spoke in great earnestness and made a mighty plea for the cause of education.
