Harbor Grace Notes.

Mr. G. Taylor, representing Messrs. T. & M. Winter, St. John's, was in town for the past couple of days on business. Mr. Taylor is a native of Carbonear, but for a number of years have been residing in St. John's. His many friends were pleased to see him once again.

The outgoing train to the city on Frances Casev for North River to re- lows: sume her teaching again, and Miss M. Whiteway for the city to resume

For the last few days we have been only getting one train a day on account of the heavy snow banks along the line. These are trying times for the train hands, who have to cope with a difficult situation.

Mrs. Frances Collis, who had been ill for some time, passed away last night at the home of Mrs. Fannie Noel, Cochrane Street. Mr. Athelstan Collis, popular singer and -talented musician of this town is a son of the deceased lady. The body will be early hour this morning. High Prices Hit Public.

Edtior Evening Telegram loard, when in authority; made an food stuffs. Is the public awake to J. Baxter (sub) the fact that greater profits are now being made on the various necessarles of life than at any time during the war, and nothing is being done about it? Take the case of bakers' bread. In 1918-19 flour sold at $18 per barrel and the ordinary loaf retailed to the public, cost 16 cents. To-day the same brands of flour are selling for $14 the barrel with a reduction in the cost of labor, yet we find the bakers' bread still selling at J. Strang 16 cents per loaf. This is a small J. J. Tobin matter but it takes tens of thousands

One might also mention milk, eggs, beef, mutton, butter, tobacco, etc. R. Stick The cost of producing these articles T. Harris has declined at least twenty-five per P. M. Duff cent., but there has not been a corresponding decline in the retail price to the consumer.

There seems to be no one interested enough in the public to bring about H. R. Brooks a readjustment of prices. The only thing for the people to do is to patronize only the stores that sell at the
