"Mars" was the most brilliant man on the field, but lacked support, and although they all played well, and gave the best exhibition of the passing game, Monroe and Walker were evidently "out of condition.". In the half-back line, Jardine was the weak man. Forbes worked hard, and Stan Rodger played a fine game, although not at his best. Young played a "rattling" game, and Herb Rodger, although very reliable, was just a trifle slow. Scapelin, in goal did his best, but lacks practice. So . much for the C.E.I.—"Saints" match, and now let us anticipate another rattling game on Wednesday night, between the "Star" and "B.I.S."

Household Notes.

An army canteen makes a good "extra" hot-water bag. It may be filled with boiling water, and will stay hot for hours.

A quick frosting is made by moistening two pounds of sifted powdered sugar to the right consistency with orange juice.

If hard water leaves a brown coating on the inside surface of your water pitcher, let milk stay in the pitcher until sour.

Sour milk griddle cakes are deliclous served with maple sugar. Use one and a quarter teaspoons sugar to two cups sour milk.
