

WELLINGTON GREY AND BRUCE RAILWAY.
 —The Review writes: "Our county has been visited, this week, by the President and some of the Directors of the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railway. We of course feel that Bruce can, in the meantime, do very well without a Railway—let us pay our debts and not increase our taxation. It may however, before long, be necessary for action to be taken in self defence, when we cannot allow a line to come so near as to draw off the trade from the country. We can however afford to wait a while and see what they do. If the council will go upon the plan of 'first come first served,' we certainly hope that the Broad Gauge will come first, as we never looked with favor upon the child's play plan. Should a bonus be granted, we hope that it will not define the line that is to be taken through the country; and that no company will try and promise a railway by every man's door, but that they will attentively and impartially look at the country as a whole and determine upon that line which will be the best for the country. Upon such a principle we would very calmly await the result."

The Colony of New Zealand now contains a British population of 225,000 souls. The native population does not certainly not, upon the most liberal computation, exceed 40,000; so that Englishmen are to the Maoris in the proportion of at least five to one.

The Orangeville Infirmary Company were entertained at a complimentary supper, at Kelly's hotel, on Tuesday evening last.

BRIGGS' MODERN CURATIVE FOR CORNS, BUNIONS, INGROWING NAILS, TENDER FEET, &c.—It is the safest and most efficacious remedy ever discovered for the cure and prevention of ailments of the feet. It is not potash or acid, but a soothing, softening and healing ointment warranted not to injure the most delicate foot, but will soon effect a radical cure of these vexatious torments of the human family. There is no remedy equal to an operation by a skillful chiropodist. When this is not convenient, BRIGGS' MODERN CURATIVE comes as an angel of mercy. Sold by E. Harvey & Co., and druggists generally. C. H. Wright & Co., Hamilton, agents for British Possessions.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry
 This remedy has long been cherished by the community for its remarkable efficacy in relieving and curing the most obstinate, painful and long-standing cases of Cough, Cold, Influenza, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Inflammation of the Lungs, while even Consumption itself has yielded to its magic influence when all other means have failed. Its whole history proves that the past has produced no remedy of equal value, as a cure for the numerous and dangerous pulmonary affections which prevail all over the land.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY.
 From Andrew Archer, Esq., of Fairfield, Me.
 "About eight years since my son, Henry A. Archer, now Postmaster at Fairfield, Somerset County, Me., was attacked with spitting of blood, cough, weakness of the Lungs and general debility so much so that our family physician declared him to have a 'Seated Consumption.' He was under medical treatment for a number of months, but received no benefit from it. At length, from the solicitation of himself and others, I was induced to purchase one bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which benefited him so much that I obtained another bottle, which in a short time restored him to his usual state of health. I think I can safely recommend this remedy to others in like condition, for it is, I think, all it purports to be—THE GREAT LUNG REMEDY FOR THE TIMES. The above statement, gentlemen, is my voluntary offering to you in favor of your Balsam, and is at your disposal."
 Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, 18 Tremont St., Boston, and for sale by all druggists generally.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE.
 AMESBURY, Mass., Oct. 12th, 1864.
 MR. GRACE—SIR, Having been afflicted grievously for several weeks with a severe abscess upon my side, I used several remedies for its eradication without receiving any relief, until I applied your salve, which effected a speedy and permanent cure. I therefore feel happy to certify confidence in its virtues. Yours with respect,
 JAMES DEAN.
 I certify to the truthfulness of the above statement.
