The Agricultural Farm.

We are glad to announce that the purchase of Mr Stone's farm by the Government was completed this morning in the office of the County Solicitor, and the price paid over.

Mr. Stone, we learn, yesterday accepted the 33 acres in the form proferred by Mr McKellar.

It seems that Messrs. Starke and Hall left Toronto in too great haste, on a mere verbal preliminary statement of the police magistrate, without having received proper and full instructions. They were telegraphed to, but the telegram failed to reach them. Hence the mystery of Saturday's proceedings, and the ignorance of Mr. McCandless as to their mission. We understand that the tender of Mr Barclay, builder, Guelph, has been accepted for the alterations and additions.

The last Elora New has a strong editorial against the County Council for rejecting the Credit Valley By.

for rejecting the Credit Valley By for rejecting the Credit Valley By-law. The style of the article is in odd contrast with its substance, for in state at Hamilton.

Rev. Mr. Dawson, of Columbus, has been called to the Canada Pres. Church, Beamsville. He will likely accept. it is well and powerfully written, whilst the arguments are of the weakest description. The key-note An exchange says: It is said that the Rev. Mr. Inglis, of New York, is likely to return to Hamilton, having become tired of his stay among the Americans. is contained in the following ex-

In passing through a dark tunnel on a Pennsylvania railroad a woman's voice was heard exclaiming: "Don't you fool country in an expensive law-suit, and despite the further fact that they threw away the cost of two sessions of the Country Council, they persevered in their objections, and so enabled one of Guelph's principal citzens to put his finger to his no e and insuit a Centre Wellington man with the words, "You are enchred."

Their triumph will be as short-lived as its diagraceful.

We did not see the little piece of the services and the stay of the stay among the Americans.

We did not see the little piece of by play referred to, but think we recognize its author. He does allow his exuberant animal spirits to lead him into these little ebullitions of playfulness now and again, and it seems that the Centre Wellington man was in no mood just then to appreciate the profoundity of his wit. But the Elora News seeks to draw from this the merence that all Guelph puts its collective finger to the public nose of scorn, and mockingly cries to Elora "You are euclared!" Now we protest in toto against this inference. We decline to admit that either the public policy or the public manners of Guelph are framed on the model of the incident which has so aggrieved the Elora News. For our own part we do not for a moment endorse the elegant sneer of the reeve in question, nor do we wish to deprive any portion of the county of railway or other facilities which are the unmistakeable wish of the people. But in a former article we gave reasons which appeared to us to justify the actir nof the County Council in this particular case. Let us take the points referred to in the foregoing extract. "Messrs. Blake and Guthrie's opinion"—why, both of them refer to the desirability of the very judicial decision which the action of the Council will lead to. "An expensive suit." Not so expensive as the cost of submitting the by-law with a great doubt as to its acceptance. "The cost of three sessions of the County Council." This is practically affirming that measures thought undesirable by the majority are to be passed merely because the cost of a sitting should not be lost! Oh, oh! The News does not enter into the merits of the doubtful trustee clause, but dismisses the objection ovarierly, observing that it is so flimsy that no candid man will give it a moment's consideration." In future I intend to render all my accounts Quarber, and shall expect Immediate Payment.
