GUELPH, July 16, 1874 dw

Farmer gives the following useful recipe for extinguishing fleas. The oil of pennyroyal will certainly drive these pests off; but a cheaper method, where the herb flourishes, is to throw your cats and dogs into a dejection of it once a week. Mow the herb and scatter it in the beds of the pigs once a month. Where the herb cannot be got, the oil may be procured. In this case, rat rats strings with it and tie them round the necks of dogs and cats; pour a little on the back and about the ears of hogs, which you can do while they are feeding without touching them. By repeating these applications every twelve or fifteen days, the fleas will flee from your quadrupeds, to their relief and improvement, and to your relief and comfort in the house. Strings saturated with the oil of pennyroyal and tied round the neck and tail of horses will drive off lice; the strings should be saturated once a day.

COYEAU LANDING RAILWAY.—This road when completed, will connect with the Canada Central at Ottawa, from which point access will be shortly had to Pembroke, and thence to Georgian Bay by the proposed lines now being surveyed. This will make the most direct route to the sea-board at Boston from Canada, and will not only afford communication with a seaport at all seasons of the year, but will give a speedy means of transit to the Western States. It is probable that the bridge over the St. Lawrence at Coltau may be constructed so as to allow lumber being carried through to the American market direct at all seasons of the year.

The Goderich Star complains that Mr. James Thompson, the Town Clerk, has deceived the proprietor of that journal by telling him that his estimate for printing the voters' list for the town was $6.08 higher than that of the Signal, when the fact was that the latter office had sent in no tender at all. The Star condemns the clerk's action as one of "favouritism towards the rival paper."

The British Medical Journal says the Tielborne Claimant is employed in his prison as a tailor. Let us hope he is not engaged on a New Suit.

The Wesleyan Female College is undergoing improvements that will cost about $20,000.
