MEETING TO ORGANIZE COMMERCIAL CLASSES.—The Mechanics Institute classes have been organized. Nearly forty names, which is the limited number, have been secured. Mr. Cann and Mr. Fraser, merchant, addressed the meeting at the Central School last night. The meeting was well attended, and the result highly satisfactory. The Classes begin to work on Monday evening next at the Central School. These are to be paid to the Librarian, who is instructed to issue only forty receipts. Early attention to this matter is desirable for all who wish to secure their position in the classes.

Ontario Legislature. FOURTH SESSION Lieut.-Governor's Speech

(Special to the Mercury.)
TORONTO, NOV. 12.
This day, at three o'clock p.m., Hist Excellency, the Hon. John Crawford,
Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Ontario, proceeded in State to the Cham-ber of the Legislative Assembly, and being seated on the Throne, was pleased to open the Fourth Session of the Second Parliament of Ontario, with the followi SPEECH:-

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legis-

ative Assembly—
"I rejoice that in meeting you again to confer on the public affairs of the Province I am able to congratulate you on rived at Mauch Creek on Wednesday or pursued in regard to new rallevening, it was discovered that the express car had been entered by robbers and the safe of Westcott & Co.'s Express them shelter. The have created was immense. All the country around was in flames. The story that Don Carlos was an Hendaye originated in an alleged elegram from the Spanish Consul at Bayonne.

London, Nov. 12.—A despatch from Vienna announces that diplomatic information has been received from Constantinople, to the effect that orders have been issued by the Porte to concentrate the Turkish troops near the Servian and Montengrin frontiers, and that the Governors of Jarina and Prirsend, in Albana, have been ordered to organize the Mohommedan inhabitants of the Province.

Madrid, Nov. 11.—The Imparcial declares that Don Carlos was at Hendaye, and the French authorities refused to interfere with his movements.

London, Nov. 11.—The first heavy frost of the season in Great Britain occurred elsewhera, we could reasonably have expected. I commend the subject to your continued attention.

The Joint Commission for the survey of the Boundary between Outario and Quebe has completed its labors, having carried on the curvey northerly to the height of land, and it not being deemed necessary for any present surpose to pre-sions for giving, additional efficiency to the laws for the prevention of bribery and other illegal acts at elections to this Asserably.

I rejoice to perceive that the distribution of part of the surplus revenue at the Province amongst the local municipalities has given an impetus to local improvements, which, I trust, will show paymanent sentist in the airaneament of all parts of the Province. A Bill to extend the class of objects to which Municipal Councils may devote the unexpended balances of the amounts to which Municipal Councils may devote the unexpended balances of the amounts to which their municipalices are catitled will be laid before you.

I have much satisfaction in calling your attention to the Legislation in G cat Britain and elsewhere, for giving just security to Land Titles, by st orthology to the periods within which State Caims can be set up to the prejudice of parties in possession. A Bill for this prapose will be submitted for your consideration.

Availing myself of the appropriation which you made lest Session, for the very important work of consolidating the statutes relating to Obsario, I soon afterwards issued a commission to eminent judges and leanned coursel for the purpose of accomplishing your object at as early a date as practicable. The Commission entered upon their work at once, and have made such progress, that they expect to have ready a complete revision of our Statute Law before the vext Session of the Legislature. A report from the Commissioners will be laid before you. Three merchants, acting in collusion are reported to have simultaneously abscended from London, Ontario, leaving liabilities to the amount of $70,000.

The police boundaries of Sondon England, cover 376 square miles and a population of 4,000,000 of inhabitants.
