

IS CARRIED IN A BOAT OVER BIG RAPIDS AND LIVES

Kettle Falls Man Has Seemingly Miraculous Escape from Death

Kettle Falls, July 9.—Edward Merritt had the ride of his life when he was carried through the Ricker or Grand Rapids in a small flat-bottom rowboat. Strange to say, he came out alive.

He was crossing the Columbia from this place, expecting to make a run on the other side a mile or so down the river, but owing to the swiftness of the current, he missed and before he was aware of it was drawn into the rapids.

GHOST EVIDENCE FAILS TO WIN A DIVORCE SUIT

English Jury Rejects Action of Archdeacon's Son; Restores Wife's Rights

London, July 10.—The jury today rendered a verdict in the cross suits of Capt. Colley, a son of Archdeacon Colley, and his wife. Capt. Colley sued for divorce on the ground that his wife's alleged misconduct with the Hon. Eric Upton, a son of Viscount Templeton, and a vaudeville performer named Clunes, Mrs. Colley's suit was for a restitution of her conjugal rights.

The jury gave a verdict in favor of the wife in the restitution suit, and also declared that she had not been guilty of misconduct with either of the respondents, Upton or Clunes.

The judge granted Mrs. Colley's petition for a restitution of her conjugal rights and dismissed her husband's petition for divorce.

The captain while on the stand stated that his father had spiritual evidence that Mrs. Colley was being misconducted by herself, first with a man named and afterward with Alexander Clunes, a beach singer dressed in uniform. This was in addition to the charge of misconduct with the Hon. Eric Upton.

BOY WILL PERPETUATE THE NAME OF ISIDOR STRAUS

Eldest Grandson of a Titanic Victim Gets Permission to Change His Name

New York July 10.—In order that the name of Isidor Straus may be perpetuated, Jesse J. Straus, Jr., eldest grandson of the late merchant and son of the Titanic victim's oldest son, Jesse J. Straus, obtained permission yesterday from Supreme Court Justice Coffey to change his name to Isidor Straus.

At the outset of the petition to the court for permission to assume the name of Isidor Straus the grandson said that there was no person upon whom the notice of his application could be served. He said the formal application for the change of name was made in his behalf by his father, Jesse J. Straus, as his guardian and best friend. The petitioner said that he lives at 40 East Seventy-fourth street and was twelve years old on January 15, last.

In his petition the boy says: "I am desirous of changing my name to Isidor Straus because my father is the oldest son of the late Isidor Straus and I am the oldest grandson. The members of the family of the late Isidor Straus are desirous that the name of Isidor Straus be perpetuated and continued in the family and be borne by the oldest grandson.

THE ATTACK ON AMERICANS AROUSES ANGER OF WASHINGTON

Washington, July 10.—That congressional most serious to Panama may result from the wounding and killing of American soldiers and marines in a fight with police in Panama city last night is the opinion here today following the receipt of official advices regarding the affair.

NEGLECTED SON DIES; FATHER IS ARRESTED

Saskatoon, Sask., July 10.—John Karpon, a Russian farmer near Asquith, has been committed for trial for neglecting to provide necessary medical attention for his young son, George, who died recently. A number of similar cases among foreigners have been reported, and when it was found that the death had not been registered, the body was exhumed by Coroner McLeod of Saskatoon. It was found that the boy was suffering from typhoid fever, measles and pneumonia had caused dilations of the heart.

IN MONTREAL MORTALITY OF INFANTS FROM HEAT HAS GREATLY INCREASED

Montreal, July 10.—The infant mortality rate continues to increase alarmingly. For the seven days preceding the heat wave, 92 deaths of children under five years were reported. Each day last week showed an increase. 112 deaths of children under water supply is causing anxiety. The big fountains in the parks have all been closed, and only the horse troughs are kept filled.

MANY MILLIONS FOR GEMS

Imports into United States Last Year Estimated at $41,000,000 New York, July 9.—During the 12 months just ended diamonds, pearls and other gems to the value of $39,445,238 were brought into the United States through this port alone. Based upon the estimate that 95 per cent. of the total imports of the country are entered here, it took more than $41,000,000 worth to satisfy the American craving for gems this year.

ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION TO DUKE OF CONNAUGHT BY WINNIPEGGERS

Winnipeg, Man., July 10.—Greeted by an outburst of enthusiasm, unprecedented in the history of Winnipeg, their royal highnesses the Duke of Connaught and Princess Patricia arrived here tonight. The streets blazed with lights and fifty thousand people crowded the thoroughfares along which the royal party passed, an imposing procession of soldiers, fraternal societies, veterans and boy scouts being one of the features. The special C. P. R. train bearing the duke and princess and party arrived at 8:00 o'clock. The royal visitors were driven to the city hall, where Mayor Waugh extended a civic welcome.

STEAMER TURNS TURTLE

Number of Passengers Have Thrilling Experiences Before Being Rescued Memphis, Tenn., July 8.—The pleasure steamer Mattie Couch, operating between Memphis and the Arkansas side of the Mississippi river, turned over in mid-stream while outbound with scores of pleasure-seekers aboard this afternoon.

HAIR NETS, 5 FOR 25c

None was drowned, although a number of passengers had thrilling experiences before rescue. The mayor said that the town is not yet over the excitement of the duke's visit.
