LAKEVIEW

A goodly number of people from here attended the Grovesend anniversary on Sunday. The music was well rendered at both services by the Lakeview choir.

Mrs. Morley Chute returned from Victoria Hospital last Thursday. Her many friends are glad to know that the operation has made it possible for Mrs. Chute to be restored to good health once more.

Mrs. Ernest Prowse is getting better.

Mrs. George Cameron, of Port Burwell is the guest of her son, Leslie.

The Box Social was a very delightful affair. Dora McConnell, Edna and Marjorie Brown played piano numbers. A large crowd of young people vied with each other in purchasing the very prettily decorated boxes, which when opened tasted even better than they looked. $38.50 was netted the Girls and Boys Club funds. Roy Brackenbury was chairman and Milage McConnell, auctioneer. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett were given rousing cheers of thanks for their hospitality, and their son, Victor came in for many happy return wishes of his birthday.

The concert and travel talk Thursday evening when the beautiful gold medals were presented to Mesdames Marr and Saxton, passed off very successfully. A large audience was present. Songs were sung by Mrs. F. Timmons, Miss Rette Chute, Miss Margaret McDermid and Miss Grace McConnell. Readings were given by Misses Grace McConnell and Ida Haggan. The president, Mrs. R. McConnell occupied the chair. The accompanists were Misses Dora McConnell and Rette Chute. Miss Lewis had very interesting souvenirs from the war on exhibition and her travel talk was illustrated by the pictures of the places visited by her when in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bessey had a car load of guests from Jaffa, Sunday and their daughter was home from Courtland.

Mr. Ed. Buck and his sisters spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. A. Foster at Clear Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Dennis, of Stratfordville were guests of the latter's parents Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer McConnell spent Sunday in Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell, of Aylmer, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Saxton for over the week end. They motored down in Mr. Saxton's new Ford car.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilkie, Pt. Burwell, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Monteith and children, of Aylmer, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bennett.

their officers. The ladies are thinking of repairing the church interior, as the paper is coming loose.

Mrs. Widner is much improved in health and is able to be around again.

Mr. Cliff Huffman is moving into Albert Darrough's place and is working on the section at Kingsmill.

Farmers are very busy these days, since it has stopped raining.

The townline between Yarmouth and Malahide is being graded up which has been in very bad shape all spring. After the grading is done the council intend to gravel the road which will put it in excellent condition.

Mr. Richard Carter, of St. Thomas spent Sunday with his wife and daughter here.

Mr. Ed. Beckett has leased his brick and tile yard to his son-in-law, George Howse and Albert Dickinson. They are repairing things and will start work soon. We all wish the boys luck in their venture as the yard is greatly needed here, and is well established having been run for many years. Mr. Beckett's health has failed and he is able to run it no longer.

BELMONT

Miss Stella Venning, of London, spent the week-end with her father, Andrew Venning, of this village.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Legg spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. Murray, Lawrence Station.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Taylor, attended the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. Colin McGregor, St. Thomas, on Monday last.

Mr. Ed. Emery, who recently sold his farm to Mr. Douglas Buchanan, has moved to the farm purchased on the Edgeware Road, north of St. Thomas.

The stores in Belmont closed on May 24th.

Mrs. Mary Cheyne, of Winnipeg arrived here on Saturday to attend the funeral of her sister, the late Mrs. McGregor, of St. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Duan Taylor, 9th con, South Dorchester spent Sunday with relatives in Glencolin.

Miss Beulah Fitzpatrick, of Toronto spent the 24th with her parents.

Mr. Cecil Barons who recently purchased the new store on the corner opposite the C.P.R. station from Mr. William Ordis, of Lyons, expects to open it Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Rogers, of Harrietsville, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mannington, on Sunday.

KINGSMILL AND MAPLETON INSTITUTE ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The Kingsmill and Mapleton Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. James Moore last week to elect the officers for the ensuing year. The officers elected were as follows:

President, Mrs. Roy Charlton; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. J. Drake; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. E. Holmes; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. J. Carlton Dance; Asst. Sec.-Treas., Mrs. L. Laidlaw; Directors, Mesdames Parkes, Garton and Taylor. Flower Committee, Mesdames White and Johnson. District Director, Mrs. J. Bray.

The representatives appointed to the District Annual Meeting were, Mesdames Charlton, Drake, Dance and Laidlaw.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Charlton on June 5th.

The annual picnic of the Institute has been arranged to meet at the home of Mrs. D. O. White, on June 13th, when the government speaker, Mrs. Woelard, of Toronto, will deliver an address on "Practical Hygiene."

BAYHAM

(Too late for last week.)

Mrs. C. Smith, of Aylmer and sister, Miss McLean, of Wallaceburg and Miss Annie Smith visited Mrs. Leslie High on Sunday.

Dr. Wallace, of Toronto was at the bedside of Dr. Riddell on Thursday and Friday of last week. The Dr. has been confined to his room for nearly 7 weeks with sciatic rheumatism.

Little Robbie Procuier is at present very sick with pneumonia. He is attended by Dr. Leeson, of Aylmer.

Rev. Chas. Wilkinson had the pleasure of a visit from his father over Sunday. He left on Monday for his home in Kincardine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Orton of Aylmer visited the latter's father, R. Knott.

Mrs. (Rev.) John Kennedy, of Talbotville visited at her brother's Mr. R. Knott's and R. Procuier's last week.

CHILDHOOD CONSTIPATION

Constipated children can find prompt relief through the use of Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are mild but thorough laxative which never fail to regulate the bowels and stomach thus driving out constipation and indigestion; colds and simple fevers. Concerning them Mrs. Gaspard Daigle, Demain, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets have been of great benefit to my little boy, who was suffering from constipation and indigestion. They quickly relieved him and now he is in the best of health." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
