the Rev. Father Girard, of Belle River, died there on Tuesday morning from a paralytic stroke received some time ago. The deceased had been spiritual adviser for the parish of Belle River for twelve years, and was universally loved. He was one of the oldest priests in the diocese, having celebrated his silver jubilee five years ago. Officer Metson on Wednesday took John Talbot, of Harrow, to the Orillia Asylum. Talbot was arrested a short time ago charged with robbing the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway depot at Harrow, but, as it was clearly shown he was of unsound mind, Magistrate Bartlett, of Windsor, released him.
