THE OPEN FORUM.

A Sick Horse.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:
I have a horse 5 years old, on whose hind leg a swelling suddenly appeared. The whole limb from the body to the hoof is swollen. He is also troubled with worms, and has a ravenous appetite. Kindly say in your valuable columns what treatment you would advise and what you think has caused the swelling. R. D. McLEOD.

[ANS.—Your horse has lymphangitis. Give him a dose of purgative medicine (Aloes, 7 or 8 drams, according to the size of the horse), bathe the leg well with hot water and apply a good stimulating liniment afterwards. Give him one dram of saltpetre every night in feed, and give him exercise every day. For the worms, after he gets better of the swelling leg, you might give him every night two drams of sulphate iron in his feed and turn him on grass.]

A Rumor Corrected.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:
A rumor has somehow gained ground that the invitation so heartily and widely given to attend the meetings of the W. C. T. U. convention is intended only for pronounced temperance people. The very opposite is the case. The press and pulpit announcements all distinctly state that the audience desired is "the public." That surely is a wide sweep, and takes in every phase of belief in relation to the reform we are striving to bring about.

Mrs. Williams, of Montreal, the Dominion president, writes asking that this very point be clearly defined. We cordially invite not only our friends, but those whose opinions are adverse to ours, to attend the meetings, both day and evening, and judge for themselves the character of the work done. Particulars as to places of meeting will be found in the advertising columns of this journal. Sincerely,
MAY R. THORNLEY.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.
