THE TURF.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 19.—At day, break dark clouds hung over the city and rain fell until 9 a.m. In consequence the track was a trifle heavy, and the air un favorable for record-breaking. Nancy Hanks appeared at 5 p.m. for her race against time. Under the conditions good judges placed 2:06 as the best that could be expected, but once more the little mare was equal to unexpected performances, Going away at the first attempt the quarter was reached in 31½ and the half-mile pole in 1:02½. Then Doble gave het free rein, and covering the third quarter in 30½ seconds she was at the pole in 1:22½. But the heavy footing and raw air began to have the inevitable effect, and she finished the mile strong and true in 2:05. All things considered, it was the greatest performance of her career.
