THE DEATH RECORD.

Unexpected Demise of John McMillan, Ex-M.P. for South Huron.

Seaforth, Nov. 1.—John McMillan, ex-M.P. for South Huron, died at his residence, in the township of Huron, this morning. The announcement of Mr. McMillan's death was a sore shock to the community. It had been known for a few days that he was ailing, but no one outside his immediate circle supposed his case was serious. An affection of the stomach was the immediate cause of death.

John McMillan was 77 years of age. He came to Canada from Scotland in 1843, settling on a farm in the township of Huron, where he has ever since resided. When he came to Huron there was little cleared land, and he settled in the bush and did his full share towards converting the dense forests into fruitful farms. For several years he has been one of the most extensive farmers and stock raisers in this part of Canada. From his first settlement he took a leading position among his fellow-men, and filled many positions of trust and responsibility. He was a man of general ability, and being industrious and ambitious, he not only accumulated a large estate, but he was a man with much useful general knowledge, so that, notwithstanding he had few educational advantages in his early life, he was a remarkably well educated man. His power and gifts as an eloquent and fluent platform speaker brought him into prominence, and there are few constituencies in the province that his voice has not been heard in, on the political platform or at farmers' institute meetings. He was a widow, two sons and one daughter.

OTTER DEATHS.
Wm. Kilgour, aged 57, one of Morrisburg's most prominent and influential citizens, died suddenly at noon yesterday. Heart trouble was the cause of death. Mr. Kilgour had been in the furniture business there a number of years.

RICE MURDER TRIAL NEARING ITS CLOSE!

Evidence All In—Address of Counsel to the Jury—A Question of Credibility.

Toronto, Oct. 31.—The Rice trial was continued this morning in the assize court. Three witnesses were offered by the crown in rebuttal of Rice's evidence.

Constable Stewart swore that Rice's account of the shooting was false, and in particular denied Rice's story that Boyd had a revolver.

The late Constable Boyd's two daughts, who on the day of the murder they saw their father's revolver at home, thus contradicting Rice's assertion that he had been armed.

Mr. Robinette began his address to the jury at 10:20 o'clock, and was interrupted by the adjournment at 12:45 p.m. He gave a masterly review of the evidence, and in particular maintained that the fact that Rutledge had, after leaving the back, been ahead of Stewart all the time, and that Rutledge had Stewart's revolver when overpowered, substantiated Rice's story that Stewart had been disarmed in the hall.

Mr. Robinette, in concluding his address, held that medical evidence showed that Jones was shot inside the back, and that Stewart's evidence was false. He held that the crown had produced no evidence to show the existence of a plot, and suggested that it was the killing of the which Rice's story was a pathetic reference to the family of the prisoner.

Mr. Guthrie delivered an able summary of the case. He countered on Mr. Robinette's reference to the home that would be blighted were Rice found guilty by recalling the fact that Boyd's home had already been desolated. He reviewed the evidence, holding that Stewart had been quite candid. He said that the fact that Rutledge was the man's suspect of the story—it was the word of Stewart against Rice, and a question as to which of the two was most credible.

IN A LAND OF GOLD

Five Hundred Men Left Penniless and Without Means of Making a Living.

Port Townsend, Wash., Oct. 30.—The steamer Quila, a Valdez steamer, left today from Nome. Each brought 800 passengers. On the Quila were 100 stowaways, who were boarding the vessel by climbing up the anchor chain while the vessel was at anchor in the roadstead at Nome. Passengers report that 500 men were left at Nome, all of whom were penniless, and with no means of making a living during the winter, and a reign of terror is predicted. During the entire voyage of the Quila petty thefts were of daily occurrence.

LAI IN THE GRAVE

Large Attendance at the Funeral of the Late W. E. H. Massey.

Toronto, Oct. 31.—The funeral of the late W. E. H. Massey began at 1:30 this afternoon. Through the morning the casket was in the hall of the family residence at 500 Jarvis street, and many friends of the deceased availed themselves of the opportunity of having a last look at his features. BATTLING FOR BREAD

Distressing Situation in a Mexican Town Caused by Speculators—Score of "People Shot."

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 1.—News was received here today that at Purauridia, Michacan, Mexico, on Oct. 23, a bread riot occurred, in which twenty persons were wounded, many of them fatally. The cause of the riot is said to have been the action of speculators in cornering the supply of corn. A corn famine has existed in that section of Mexico for months, and the government recently removed the import duty from the United States as a measure of relief. It is claimed that the speculators cornered the shipments of Purauridia, and raised the price 100 per cent. The starving people, driven to desperation, attacked the warehouses, the
