Several Well-Played Long Shots Reward Their Backers by Winning in Handy Fashion.

Hamilton, Aug. 10.-The final race neeting of the season of 1912, opened today. Forty books were in line and were kept busy during the afternoon. The opening event of the card, a scramble for the juveniles, was given a great shock to the talent, when the to Flabbergast, a 10 to 1 shot.

Mooney's ride on the favorite in the Prince Edward selling stakes, the feature race of the day, was the weirdest arbitistic of siding witnessed in some exhibition of riding witnessed in some time. When the breaks came he took when the horse was fighting for her head and wanted to run. Ta Nun Da, the heavily-played good thing, at post time assumed the lead, which he held to the top of the turn home, where he gave way to Volthorpe, who was laying in second position during the lead, and easily beat out Ta Nun Da. Mooney was called into the judges' stand to explain his ride.

HOW GIBSON MADE

A New York Writer Tells How the Big Catcher Actually Got Home on the Smash.

Damon Runyon, of the New York giving the decision. American, describes "Mooney" Gibson's recent home run in this fash-

In the third inning of this game "Hack" Gibson, the table-legged catcher of the Pirates, who is frequently mistaken for the south end of a taxicab going north, when viewed from the grand stand, hit a terrific drive to left centre. It was a drive that was easily good for three bases and a strong reach even for Gibson. When it is stated that it would have been a two-base hit for Jeff Tesreau it will be understood just how far the ball went. It was a very, very extensive smash.

Josh Devore fussed around with the ball and then relayed to Fletcher. Meanwhile Gibson was chugging around the ring, making a noise like a motor boat. The ball left Fletcher's hands just as Gib whistled for the switch at the home plate. Fletch made a good throw, and Meyers put the the hall, with something on it against Hack's ribs.
