Washington, Dec. 6.—Secretary of he Treasury Cortelyou has decided to Between British Lion and Jathe Treasury Cortelyou has decided to reduce by one half the issue of Pan-ama canal bond aflotments, which are thus limited to the amount of $25, The first best offers which will be accepted will be between 102 and 102½, ranging up to 106, the average being a figure slightly in excess

The amounts of bids from individuals and institutions which it has been possible to accept will, as heretofore not be large. The remainder of the acceptances will be from national banks. The bids accepted have cor from every section of the country, and mostly in small lots. Cortelyou further announced that the notices of acceptance will be prepared and mailed to the successful bidders with the least possible delay. The notices will state that payments for the bonds will be pected to be made at the treasury of the United States, or at some sub treasury, as indicated in the bid of the subscriber, within ten days' notice by subscriber. In cases where the sub-scriber has not indicated the place of ent the notice sent will include ing payment for the bonds.

The offering of Panama canal bonds was largely over-subscribed, but the Improvement in business conditions following the announcement of recent measures of relief by the treasury described by the treasury described was consistent to the control of the control o measures of relief by the treasury de-partment is regarded by the secretary as warranting him in limiting the issue at this time to half the amount, namely $25,000,000. Millions Being Spent in De-

Velopment of Several Ports
Of Japan

Millions of dollars are being expended in harbor works at Japanese ports despite the impoverished state of the nation. At Kobe the greatest works are under way, and pending their completion there is difficulty in handling the trade of the port, and local journals are pointing out that the handlcap during the interregnum of seven years may drive business to rival ports. In this connection, the southeastern districts of British Country on business warm in the passenger traffic and in the customs revenue, both of which show large increases over last year. For passenger traffic it was the greatest season in the history of the St. Lawrence. The C. P. R. Atlantic liners had an increase of 33 per cent and the Allan increase of 33 per cent, while the Dominion there is difficulty in handling the trade of the port, and local journals are pointing out that the handlcap during the interregnum of seven years may drive business to rival ports. In this connection, the and the United States," said Mr. Hyman. "Such war is unnecessary in Japan's interests, and Japan knows it. But just as surely as American policy of exclusion is carried out, just so surely Japan will secure all the trade in the Orient".
