

SUPPRESSING THE PRESS.

WOLESELEY DECLINES TO ALLOW CORRESPONDENTS AT THE FRONT.

The force of Wolesley's refusal to permit non-combatants to remain at the front. It is believed the correspondents will be stopped from communicating to their papers. The troops are in good health.

France Aiding the Mahdi.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—It is understood orders were given during today's cabinet session for the despatch of 10,000 troops to the Sudan. Several thousand rifles and tons of ammunition have been shipped from France to the Mahdi. Great indignation is expressed in English official circles at this covert aid offered by France to England's enemies.

Wolesley Declines to be Scourged.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Wolesley's friends state he undertook the Nile route against his own opinion which was in favor of the Sudd and Barber route and that the government for the purpose of economy refused to provide the number of troops for which he asked.

How Gordon Fought Himself.

General Gordon was about to visit England prior to his journey to the Congo in the service of the king of the Belgians, and he was met at Southampton by a despatch from the editor of the Pall Mall Gazette, requesting him to receive a representative of that paper with a view to discussing the Egyptian question and his own peculiar qualifications to attempt the task of rescuing Gordon is supposed to have been discussed with much reluctance, and the Pall Mall Gazette then started that cry of "Gordon to the rescue" which at last grew to such proportions that the government was obliged to send him to the Sudan.

A Wise Advice.

CAIRO, Feb. 9.—The khedive says he believes that Gordon is alive. He had no interest in wishing his death, and would do all in his power to prevent it. Instant action on the part of England is necessary to prevent the further progress of the Mahdi's cause and avert new disasters.

More Details.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—The Pall Mall Gazette states that the cabinet has decided that the defeat of the Mahdi is necessary to vindicate England. No immediate advance upon Khartoum is considered possible, or will be attempted, unless it is found that there is good reason for believing that Gordon is still holding out with a handful of followers in the immediate vicinity of Khartoum, where it was reported he had taken refuge. In the absence of this, Wolesley is said to have declined to receive any advance by river until he reaches Barber, where he will stop for the summer with the Nile boat and a few hundred men, according to his plan, before there can be any advance in the force from Khartoum.

Sen. Roberts's Wolesley's Rescuer.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—It is reported the government has decided to call out the reserves on a portion of the militia for service duty in the place of the troops being forwarded to Egypt. It is believed that the British cabinet has decided to send a force of 10,000 men to the Sudan, and that the British cabinet has decided to send a force of 10,000 men to the Sudan, and that the British cabinet has decided to send a force of 10,000 men to the Sudan.

Italy's Attitude.

ROME, Feb. 9.—The king presided at a cabinet council which decided that should England send Italy's assistance in Egypt it would be given with feelings of friendship, without any question of territorial or other compensation. Italy has voluntarily expressed the ports that her sole reason for occupying the Sudan was due to the desire for better protection of her subjects in the vicinity of that country. The Egyptian war has been a friendly manner by the Italian marines.

What England has to Face.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—The Pall Mall Gazette says England may not need military aid in the Sudan, but she does need naval aid, which the Turks only can supply. The Sultan is anxious to co-operate with England on the best of the recognition of his sovereignty over Egypt. If the government reject his offer they may have to face the combined hostility of the Mahdi and the Sultan of Egypt.

Wolfe's Scheme.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—The Globe, referring to the statements that Wilfrid Bunt was the only living man able to effect a peaceful solution of the Sudan question, says the national party in Egypt combined with the French party at Cairo have organized a central committee in London to support the French party in its attempt to secure the revocation of the British ultimatum. The committee consists of adherents of Arabi, several of whom reside in London and hold influential positions, and would willingly have assisted Mr. Bunt's scheme to negotiate with the Mahdi. Mr. Gladstone, however, knew the means Mr. Bunt intended to employ to reach the Mahdi, and he has been advised by the Mahdi to reject the offer. Mr. Bunt's friends are still of opinion that even the capture and execution of the Mahdi would only be regarded as a project of Islam.

Wolesley's Successor.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—C. J. Buller's force will reach Gubat to-morrow. Before leaving Gubat Buller was instructed by Lord Wolseley not to attack the Arabi at Met-el-Meh. Later orders sent to day leave Col. Buller at liberty to act as he thinks best. The force of Gubat now consists of 2800 men, of whom it is estimated 2200 are effective. All the newspaper correspondents are returning from Gubat to Khartoum. Lord Wolseley declines to permit non-combatants to remain at the front. It is believed the correspondents will be stopped from communicating to their papers. The troops are in good health.

RUNNING THEM TO BARTH.

CONTINUATION OF THE DYNAMITE-ERS' EXAMINATION.

A Capital Offense Charged Against Them.—A Long String of Circumstantial Evidence—Testimony for the Crown. LONDON, Feb. 6.—The examination of Cunningham and Burton, the alleged dynamite-ers, began today at Bow street police court. The case was crowded. Quilliam, counsel for Cunningham, was permitted to have an interview with his client before the latter was brought into court. Burton declined the services of counsel, saying he would defend himself.

Mr. Poland opened the case for the crown.

He created a sensation by immediately announcing that he would charge the charge of conspiracy and subornation of perjury against Cunningham and Burton. Under this new indictment the witness proceeded to state that he had seen the crown witness in the former examination of the prisoners, and that he had seen the crown witness in the former examination of the prisoners, and that he had seen the crown witness in the former examination of the prisoners.
