had, it appeared, been dogging his footsteps for some time. They taliaved him of his watch and $30 in cash in a very professional way. The man reported the affair to Chief Bams and then returned to his home. The chief obtained a tolerably fair description of the highwaymen, and inferring that they must have crossed to Datroit came to this city and secured the aid of detectives. With only the description of the men the detectives, from their familiarity with the crooks of the city, succeeded in locating the trio, and last night lodged all three in the police station. As registered, their names and addresses are James findley, alias Finner, 21 years old, Windsor; Henry Fratt, alias Mushey, ared 22, Detroit; William Sugden, alias Rockford, aged 19, Windsor.
