Toronto. AT THE ISLAND.

It was a cold day at the Island yesterday, but nearly everyone over there was working hard enough to keep warm. The appearance of Hanlan's Point is a great surprise to everyone who makes his or her initial trip to the Island this summer, and, while The World's young man stood shivering on the wharf, he heard one man remark that he "guessed hie had taken the wrong boat," while his companion said, "I heard some changes were being made, but I didn't know they had taken away the old Isw they had taken away the old Is

Men are working day and night at the engine house and electric light station, and expect to be able to light up to-night or to-morrow night. The Canadian General Electric Co. are putting in the plant, which includes a 250-horse-power Goldie & McCulloch engine.

There will be 120 are lights and 250 incandescent, so there will be lots of illumination on the Island this summer. Colored are globes are situated all around the grounds, and will have a very pretty effect. In the engine house there is also a fire pump with 100 lbs. pressure, and hydrants are situated conveniently near the hotel and the other large buildings.

A new wharf has been erected for the accommodation of ladies, for whom other changes have also been made in order that the fair sex may revel in the delights of a lake bath without the slight inconvenience they formerly had to undergo to avail themselves of this pleasure. The knowledge that the judge refused to interfere with the decision of the License Commissioners reached the Island during the afternoon and was favorably commented upon by most of the waiting-for-summer residents.

Inspector Dexter was on the Island towards the evening.
