McFarlane-Davison.

etober 27, when their elder daughter,

BEAUTY LECTURES.

Considerable interest is being mani-fested by the ladies of London in the coming of Dr. Felix Cristion, Paris' famous beauty culture scientist, next

Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon,

November 2 and 3, at 2.30 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium. Dr. Cris-tion's lecture will prove valuable to formation concerning beauty culture, the hair and facial blemishes. Dr. Cristion is assisted in his lecture by Mme. L. M.

Maye, said to be a most beautiful wom-

French beauty secrets and of value to Tuesday afternoon lecture is free, but a nominal charge will be made on Wednesday. Ladies are reminded that gentlemen to address the congregation morning, while Professor A. J. Johnston have charge of the evening service.

of Victoria University, Toronto, a former beloved pastor of Dundas Center, will

ACTION FOR DAMAGES-Andrew

McGuire, of this city, by his next friend,

William McGuire, is bringing an ac-tion in the county court against George

Blumenstock, of Waterford, for $500 damages for alleged injuries to his person and property through the negligence

Corns are painful growths. Holloway's Corn Remover will remove them

HAVE IT

If the material is in good condition

but looking shabby, we can dye it

Launderers, Dyers, Cleaners.

Phones: 558-559.

Coilere

LOOK!

Samples, broken lines and soiled corsets. Cheap. Sizes 18-34. They go quick.

Through Dowler Entrance, Upstairs

FOR WOMENS AILMENTS

satisfactorily. Your garment wil last another season.

PARISIAN

of the defendant or his agents an for her age, which is past 60.

HOUSEHOLD

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

NEW Y. W. C. A. LEAGUE. The reorganization meeting of the city basket ball teams will take place on nday afernoon next at 5.30 o'clock at the King street Y. W. C. A. The teams, formerly under the Western University League, will this season be under the direction of the Y. W. C. A., and it is urged that all teams wishing to join would send representatives to the Monlay meeting, as under the new man-

AVIATORS LEAVE CITY.—Cantains

during the week, left for Wabash, In-

Cocoa

Caramels

3 cups brown sugar % cup milk I tablespoon molasses

1 teaspoon vanilla

¼ teaspoon cinnamon 9 tablespoons Cowan's

½ cup chopped nuts
½ cup sultana raisins

Method:-Put all ingredients in a saucepan except vanilla, stir over gentle heat till sugar is dissolved. Boil until a soft ball may be formed when tried in cold water. Cool slightly, beat until creamy, add nuts, van-illa and raisins. Pour on to greased plates and mark in squares before it hardens.

Send for recipe bookle, o

THE COWAN COMPANY LIMITED

4 cup butter

Cocoa

Social and Personal

Mrs. Carrie, of Goderich, is the guest of Mrs. (Dr.) Hughes, Queen's ave-

Mrs. A. R. Sampson, of Toronto, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. R. Somerville, Piccadilly street.

Mrs. Neville Pope will receive for the first time since her marriage on Monday, November 1, at her home, 180 St. George street.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel. Marlatt, who have been visiting relatives in this city for the last couple of weeks, left their home in St. Louis, yesterday.

Mrs. H. A. Panet has returned from a visit in Ottawa. While in the capital Mrs. Panet attended the I. O. D. E. Provincial Chapter meeting on Tuesday.

The Halloween social at the Boyle Memorial Mothers' Club on Tuesday evening next promises to be a delightful affair, with a charming program and an address from Mrs. (Dr.) Partridge.

Mrs. A. T. Edwards delighted the members of the Tecumseh Mothers' Club with her illustrated travel talk presented at this week's meeting of the club, which was largely attended.

Even at that moment sne country or have admitted whether it was Larry or Bradley to whom she referred.

Seated on the edge of her bed, she stared dully at the pattern of the sun-

The head office of the Northern Life Assurance Company entertained at a theater party and supper on Thursday night in honor of Miss Anna Dunlop,

Wednesday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. Leneham, Hyatt ave-

A most enjoyable theater party took place at Loew's Theater on Tuesday evening, arranged by the First Presby-terian Church choir. At the conclusion of the performance the choir returned to the Sunday school, where a supper was served. Mrs. Fred Greenaway visited the Port Stanley Chapter, I. O. D. E., on Thursday afternoon to present her report of the national meeting at which she represented the chapter. The St. Thomas Municipal Chapter were guests at the delightful tea, which followed the meeting. Miss Helen Baker is announced as winner of the ladies' golf shampionship at the end of a closely-contested season. Miss Baker, who is receiving the congratulations of the members on her success, will be presented with the , a silver cup, at the club tea which closes the golf season.

Campers' Party.

Friday evening next promises to be a gala night at "Lenmore," when a campers' party will be on the program, a reunion of the happy girls who last summer spent such delightful holidays at the Port Bruce camp. The girls have been invited, by means of a clever little verse, to don middles and bloom-"frolic with old friends a and there is no question as to whole-hearted response to the invita-

A jolly masquerade dance of last eve-hing was that arranged by the G. W. V. A. Auxiliary in Hyman Hall, where a arge number of guests gathered in a rariety of clever costumes to celebrate the approach of "witches' night." Music ander the direction of Lieut. Irwin tharmed the dancers, and cards were tlso arranged. Mrs. J. W. Cunliffe and Mrs. C. Summers were the committee in charge, and the proceeds are to go ards the relief work carried on by he auxiliary.

Mrs. William Jarmain, Becher street, was the hostesss of an original little party on Thursday evening, when she ntertained the members of the River-new Mothers' Club at an "apron const." The guests sewed industriously ill evening, with some charming music b keep up their spirits, and at the close number of dainty little aprons were displayed. These will later be sold for nain had a lovely little supper for her to run all the time back and forth over

Miss Ethel Rowe, of King street, was the hostess of a jolly Halloween party in Thursday evening, when the clever umes of the guests provoked much herriment and where Halloween dec- lit rooms after the chill of the outrations proved most effective. Music of-doors ind a daipty supper concluded the ivening, when all the old-time games nd spells had been tried. Miss Rowe. the is leaving the city shortly, was re-lently the guest of honor at a dinner nd theater party given by a number If her friends.

Freshmen Elect.

On Thursday, October 28, the fresh-ien year of Western University held a seeting to elect officers for the coming ear. The results were as follows: lonorary president, Prof. A. Woods; resident, Mr. A. Hale; vice-president, liss H. Patterson; secretary, Miss K. 7hite; treasurer, Mr. R. Williams; oet and historian, Miss P. McCall; iterary Society representative, Mr. W. lve, Mr. A. Hale. At the close of the leeting of the social committee served ght refreshments .

hannot fail to achieve a like conquest ere, when they appear at the opening but of the Women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle wizardry of the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle with the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the subtle with the women's Music Club. M. Hilion has all the women's Music Club. M. Hillion has all the women's Music Club. Hillion has all the women's Music Club. Hi

A charming social event occured in fardsville yesterday afternoon, when rs. George Love entertained at the a hour in honor of her mother, Mrs. bwles. The rooms, were beautifully appreciated. ith roses and carnations and was as-sted by Mrs. James Mulligan and rs. V. Faulds. Mrs. Dickson, of Glen-ie, and Mrs. Fred Shepherd, of St. ouis, Mo., were present from out of two. Guests to the number of 60 were CHILDREN NEED HELP tertained.

The field day arranged on Thursday the Ladies' Golf Club as the closig event of the season went through accessfully in spite of persistently bad eather. In the morning Mrs. Howard leather. In the morning Mrs. Howard liggins won the approach and puting contest by a score of eight, carrying off the prize donated by Col. A. M. is equally successful for adults, in the land many difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with urinary difficulties. It is equally successful for adults, in the land with the land wi

THE MARRIAGE MILL

BY MILDRED K. BARBOUR.

(Copyright 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

CXXXI.—AN OVERTURE FROM LARRY.

Having left Larry's family speechles the car at the curb, Alison dashed into the house, brushed by Barbara Wales, frankly curious in the hallway, and running blindly into her own room, flung herself downward on the bed, giving away to hysterical sobs.

The whole nervous tension of the pravious night relayed, she went unreprevious night, relaxed, she wept unrestrainedly. She had no definite idea why she cried. She wasn't sorry for herself; certainly she had no pity for Larry. Perhaps it was anger at Larry's family. Perhaps, way back in her consciousness, was the memory of Warren Bradley's action the night hefore and Bradley's action the night before and the caressing insinuating voice with which he addressed the girl whom he thought was a stranger.

Five minutes passed—ten—and the tears still fell. Finally she sat up, crushing her hand-kerchief against her moist eyes.

"You little fool!" she addressed her-self with a gulp. "Ruining your eyes for nothing! There isn't a man in the for nothing! There isn't a man in the world worth crying about." Even at that moment she couldn't stared dully at the pattern of the sun-light on the rug. The chill autumn wind outside stirred the half-bare branches of a maple, and its shadow moved eerily across the bar of sunlight on the floor. She heard the hum of mot-ors passing up and down the avenue. The telephone rang below stairs, and the delivery boy come to the side door with the marketing.

And still she sat, woebegone, and not knowing why.

"I never cried in my life before I was married," she thought. "Now I am always furiously angry or in tears. Why? Did mother experience this—and Kate? Why is marriage? Why is any thing?"

and I'd rather we did our talking without our respective families hørning in."

Alison considered.

"But I'm really dead, Larry. Remember. I've had no sleep."

"You've nothing on me," he said grimly. "Run up and take a nap now, and catch the 6.22. I'll meet you at the station. Bye-bye."

He rang off before Alison could reply

Barbara Wales' voice broke in upon Mrs. Perkins will reside in Aylmer.

"Alison, are you sulking, or what?
I have called you three times. Someone wants you on the phone." Alison sprang up, dabbing at her eyes.
"In a moment. Who is it?"
She ran to the dresser and began to She ran to the dresser and began to apply powder recklessly to her reddened lids.

"Not that precious husband of yours," called back Miss Wales, sarcastically, "only a woman."

"Oh!"

For the life of her, Alison could not have told whether she was glad or sorry. She shrank from the thought of an interview with Larry after their stormy parting that morning, and yet it would not have been at all unpleasant to have him groveling for forgiveness. The voice with which she spoke into the phone was cool and drawling, with-thany trace of recent tears.
"Mrs. Osborne?" asked a crisp feminine voice. "Just a moment, please." There was a click and a buzzing "All right, Mr. Osborne. Go ahead!" Larry's voice sa'd:

"Hello, Alison. What are you doing?"
Its casual tone, the natural question, ok Alison off her guard.

"Why—why—nothing special," she stammered. "Come into town and have dinner with me, will you?" he asked, casually. "That's an absurd suggestion, Larry. who leaves for Edmonton on Tuesday.

Miss Teresa Addison, a bride-elect of next week, was the guest of honor at a jolly little kitchen shower given on Wednesday evening at the home of her in the delivery box on the floor. She heard the hum of motors passing up and down the avenue. The telephone rang below stairs, and Blanche's voice answered. She heard the hum of motors passing up and down the avenue. The telephone rang below stairs, and Blanche's voice answered. She heard the hum of motors passing up and down the avenue. The telephone rang below stairs, and but of think it's a darn good one," he returned coolly. "You and I have got a lot of things to say to each other, and I'd rather we did our talking without our respective families horning in "

knew not what he could do at first when Tinker Bob told him he would have to gather a bundle of food for Rufus the Tree Mouse. But you can guess that Rufus was glad, for it was a long hard journey for such a little fellow from his grandfather's house to the top of his grandfather's house to the top of the tall tree where he lived. Rufus, about it, so that is just the thing he very important."

Tinker Bob, King of the Forest, told

bunde of food. Now I want to tell and he was so anxious to tell Red Fox you It kept major very busy trying to what he was going to do that he stopped keep Mr. Loggerhead in sight. Really him in his tracks. We'll see what haphe relief fund of the club. Mrs. Jar- it was almost impossible, for he had pens next time.

Mr. Loggerhead was so sad that he became so exhausted that he had to was caught up with orange blossoms supper. In all nearly 300 guests wer knew not what he could do at first when rest and then he lost sight of Mr. Log-the forest, and with it came a bright however, thought it best to go back and tell his grandfather, old Mr. Rat, all it sounded closer and closer till the creature was just above the head of major. Of course, you know who it is—

"Gome down here," cried major, "and come quickly." Well, it doesn't take Jerry very long to get anywhere if he thinks there is a bit of news to hear, and he was by the side of major in-every lady who wishes to attain in-"Thief, thief," cried Jerry. "I haven't heard anything new for so long that I'm wild to hear somebody's troubles." "Listen carefully, and you must not tell it to every one in the forest either. up-to-date women will be explained by this scientist of the Rue La Pai. The I want you to watch Mr. Loggerhead the Shrike. Keep your eye on him at all times, and if he starts to leave the forest come to me with the message at once. For he must not leave the orest till his work is done. Now tell both lectures are in the afternoon. me whether you will do this or not."

"I will be delighted to do that very thing, but can't I tell it to some of my best friends? There will be nothing fortunate in having two distinguished wrong about that." "Tell it to no one or you will be in on education to-morrow. Dr. George as bad as Mr. Loggerhead. Now go Trueman, secretary of education of the find him at once for I am tired out and Methodist church, will preach in the I'm afraid he will try to leave the forest, and if he does there will be trouble for more than one creature." Jerry the Jay was off in a minute. head and see to it that he replaced the The first fellow he met was Red Fox, bunde of food. Now I want to tell and he was so anxious to tell Red Fox

To be continued.

match, for which Mr. A. MacPherson was the prize giver. At the club luncheon more than 30 members wer present and many stayed for tea in the afternoon, enjoying the cozy fire

Golf Club Annual.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Golf Club of the London Hunt an Country Club, which took place yester day afternoon, was shorn of much pre-liminary business by the election by acciamation of all last season's officers. The retirement of Miss Met Macbeth from the office of secretary-treasurer left this open, however, and Mrs. Ernest Williams was elected. Other officers still standing are: Mrs. E. B Smith, president; Mrs. Harvey Skey convener of entertainment committee and the golf committee, of which the members are Mrs. Ronald Harris, M's Norah Moore, Mrs. G. O. Warner, Mrs Webster, Miss Honor Cronyn, Miss Joe Belton and Miss Helen Baker.

Mrs. Chester Pugh was the hostess on Wednesday afternoon at her home on King street of a delightful tea given in The visit on Thursday next of M. and aid of the Sick Children's Hospital. ame. Fillion marks an event in local About 80 callers dropped in to enjoy husical annals. The brilliant French a social hour. Mrs. Harding assisted rtists, but lately connected with the hostess in receiving and Mrs. J. E. Stevenson ushered the many guests to ton their Toronto public already, and the tearoom, where Mrs. J. A. Walton provided assisted by Mrs. R. J. Leckie. hillon has all the subtle wizardry of the bow. all the indefinable charm of terpretation, while of Mme, Fillion's wely soprano voice, contemporary fittes speak in the most clowing terms.

Charming door attendant. A cluny cloth covered the polished table, which was centered with large silver basket of baby mums. During the afternoon miss Burnip and Mrs. J. May sang very fitter speak in the most clowing terms. nitics speak in the most glowing terms. delightfully and Miss Iva Sweet gave several piano selections, which were

rs. Zolter and Mise Jessie O'Neil.
In the Hugh Niven and Princess Patricia chapters, assisted by Inc. A. Douglas presided at the teal loween dance at the Institute of Musical Art last evening. In the state-Other business of the meeting dealt ly reception room, where Dr. and Mrs. chiefly with plans for the various booths George received, assisted by the latter's mother, Mrs. R. S. Diprose, of Spanking doesn't cure bed-wetting of the internal organs. My successful home treatment will be found

Torento, yellow 'mums in silver basstairs, in the long ballroom, festoons of orange and black, with goblins and witches and all the ghostly folk of the eason, were introduced as decorations. -Advt. nd the scene was a gay one with the iting music of the orchestra and the ainty frocks of the feminine dancers. Supper was served at midnight in the ower-decked dining-room on the ground floor.

The St. George's Lodge, No. 42, arranged a delightful affair last evening in the Masonic Temple, where some 300 guests gathered for an informal dance. ards were also provided for the nondancers, and a dainty supper was served in the dining-hall downstairs. ollowing the grand march, numbers y the Harmonic Quartet made a pleasig break in the program, the Roselle ocock orchestra affording excellent lance music. Halloween decorations made an astractive background for the lancers. Those in charge were Messrs. Charles Heaman, Lorston Boss, Robert William Macrow, Roy Lutz, Robinson, James R. Haslett, Charles Ross and Albert Jolly.

SINGING PATS TO AID CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Major Niven Gives Good Tidings to Committee

The announcement that the P. P. C. L. I. are to put on a benefit sacred concert for the children's hospital was made by Major Hugh Niven at yesterlay's meeting of the children's hos pital committee.

The concert will take place on Sun day evening, November 7, and will be entirely in the hands of the artists among the Princess Pats, of whom there are several of outstanding ability. at the Shriners' circus.

Stevely, will look after the collections.

Other business of the meeting dealt chiefly with plans for the various booths at the Shriners' circus.

A report of the hospital committee will be presented by Mrs. Greenaway at the I, O. D. E. rally in Chatham on November 17, when it is expected that at least one member of each local primary will be present.

A cheering report from Mrs. George A cheering report from Mrs. George

Edwards, of Komoka, showed that $100 DR. MARTEL'S PILLS and already been donated by the W. I. in her district as the nucleus of a cot

Thousands of women have testified in the last 2 years regarding the healing qualities of Dr. ARTELS FEMALE PILLS. A Scientifically properly for leave the decision as to building as decided at the recent meeting of the trust.

Thousands of women have testified in the last 2 years regarding the healing qualities of Dr. MARTELS FEMALE PILLS. A Scientifically properly for leave and painful menstruation. Sold only in a Patented Tin-Hinge-Cover Box. At your Druggist, or direct by Mail, price $2.00, Knickerbecker Remeily Cover Box.

UNIVERSITY RECEPTION

Never has the Western University agement a constitution will be drawn gymnasium, on Oxford street, presented up and a winter program mapped out. The marriage is announced on Tuesof Mrs. Duncan Graham, of Eckrid, to Ralph Perkins, of Aylmer. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins will reside in Aylmer.

Hodgins-Russell.

The marriage of Miss Connell Russell, daughter of Mrs. Connell Russell, daughter of Mrs. Duncan Graham, of Eckrid, to occasion of the annual faculty reception to the freshmen, which took place last evening. To the guests coming in from the dreary autumn night, the long room was a glow of light and color. Picturesque indeed were the decorations, the deep purple of the University columns. day, October 19, of Kathleen, daughter so welcoming an appearance as on the It is expected that the league will di-The marriage of Miss Connell Rus-sell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. ors blending richly with the gayer or-Russell, to Mr. Thomas J. Hodgins, of Mexico City, took place on September while nodding jack o'lanterns made a while nodding jack o'lanterns made a while nodding jack o'lanterns made a have been giving flights in London 25 at the home of the bride's parents, pleasing and mellow light. The West-Avenida Madero. Rev. William Wallace officiating. The ceremony was followed by the civil wedding, which was performed by Judge Manuel M. Gurria, assisted by his secretary, Mr. Heriberta Alcantara. The bride was charmingly gowned in white charmeuse. A street of the policy of the stage a most effective sitting out room had been arranged, with deep wicker chairs and many softly-shaded lamps among the palms and autumn leaves. The Tony Vita orchestra provided the most fascinating of music. ingly gowned in white charmeuse. A ingly gowned in white charmeuse. A The presence of the board of gov-wedding breakfast at "El Globa" was ernors, with their ladies as assisting followed by an informal reception at official hosts, added not a little to the the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rusell, and pleasure of the guests, who included later Mr. and Mrs. Hodgins left for students, past and present.

Guadalajara and points on the west In the receiving line were Mrs. Arcoast. Mr. Hodgins was a former res- thur Little, smartly gowned in black ident of this city. Mrs. Hodgins, who is an American by birth, is a sister of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and Mrs. Hodgins, who is an American by birth, is a sister of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan. Mr. and in a black georgette gown over sating the state of the British consul at Milan and the British consu Mrs. Hodgins will reside in Calle ing a black georgette gown over satin, and Mrs. C. C. Waller, also in a handsome black gown.

Cofell-Babcock.

A pretty wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage, Dresden, on Wednesday afternoon, October 27, at 4 o'clock, when Rev. J. H. Osterhout, B. A., B. D., pastor of the Methodist church, united in marriage Miss Beatrice Victoria Babcock, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Babcock, of North Dresden, and Roger Harry Cofell, son of Slack in a turquoise charmeuse gown Mr. and Mrs. James Badcock, of North Dresden, and Roger Harry Cofell, son of the late J. H. and Mrs. Cofell, of Dresden. The young couple are very popular in town. They will reside in Chatham.

With black late, Fro. A. Black gown and Mrs. Slack in a turquoise charmeuse gown with overdress of shell pink tulle; Dr. and Mrs. K. P. R. Neville, the latter gowned in black satin; Dr. and Mrs. Tamblyn; Prof. and Mrs. Shanks; Prof. Mrs. Pohertson: Lieut. Col. and Robertson; Lieut.-Col. Mrs. Walter Brown: Mrs. Frank Ander-The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel son; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Landon; Dr. Davison, Chesley, was the scene of a and Mrs. Louis Wood, Mrs. Wood in very pretty wedding on Wednesday, blue with gold lace; Prof. and Mrs. October 27, when their elder daughter, Auden; Rev. B. H. Robinson and Mrs. October 27, when their elder daughter, Margaret A., became the bride of Mr. R. Wilfred McFarlane, of Paisley, son of County Registrar and Mrs. W. H. McFarlane, of Walkerton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. McLachlan, pastor of the Methodist church. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore an exquisite frock of silk marquisette over ivory satin, with pearl trimmings. The only dancers back to the sober side of things satin, with pearl trimmings. The only dancers back to the sober side of things ornament was a handsome string of pearls, the gift of the groom. Her veil midnight, following a delightful buffet

HE WEAR and tear of this busy work-a-day world is hard on your linen. Send it where it will receive careful and intelligent treat-

A trial will convince.

FOREST CITY LAURIDRY " at your service DRY-CLEANERS & DYERS

WHITE WAGONS.

3881-PHONES-3882.

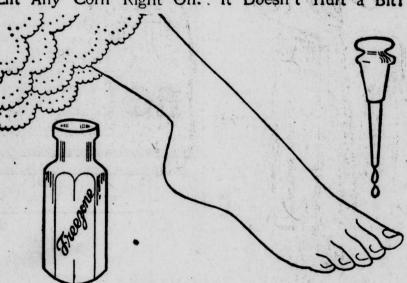

Skin Troubles ---Soothed ---With Cuticura Soap, Ointment, Talcum, 25c. each. Sold everywher Can. Depot: Lymans, Limited, St. Paul St., Montres

The Beauty of The Lily can be yours. Its wonderfully pure, soft, pearly white appearance, free from all blemishes, will be com-4. blemishes, will be com- 4. bearable to the perfect beauty of your skin and complexion if you will use Gourauds Oriental Cream

FERD T. HOPKINS & SON. Montrea

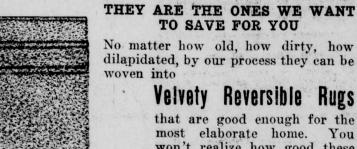

FREEZONE FOR CORNS

Lift Any Corn Right Off. It Doesn't Hurt a Bit!

Seems Magic! Drop a little Freezone Freezone for a few cents, sufficient to on an aching corn, instantly that corn rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, of with fingers—Truly corn, or corn between the toes, and right off with fingers-Truly! painful foot calluses, without the least soreness or irritation. No humbug.— Advt. G3tf 1 Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of tops hurting, then shortly you lift it Advt.

The Carpets You Throw Away

THEY ARE THE ONES WE WANT TO SAVE FOR YOU No matter how old, how dirty, how > Velvety Reversible Rugs that are good enough for the most elaborate home. You won't realize how good these softness under your feet. SEND FOR BOOKLET. TIE A ROPE AROUND YOUR OLD CARPET AND SEND IT TO rugs really are until you see their beauty and feel their

The Canada Rug Co.
98 Carling Street, London, Ont.

Time's mellowing hand alone gives Pears its rich ruby color.... A perfect soap - perfectly aged.....That is why it is matchless for the complexion

And a merry old soul was he: He had smashed his pipe and broken his bowl So he called for his fiddlers three. And when they came, with a chuckle he said:

"Here's 'Squirrel' Brand you see; The best in the land, so have some bread And Peanut Butter with me."

'Squirrel' Brand Peanut Butter

KEEPS FRESH - TASTES, BETTER -- IN ITS OWN SANITARY AIR-TIGHT TIN

ALBERT SOAPS LIMITED, Mir., MONTREAL.

Horlick's Malted Milk

Used successfully everywhere nearly 1/3 century. Made under sanitary conditions from clean, rich milk, with extract of our specially malted grain. The Food-Drink is prepared by stirring the powder in water.
Infants and Children thrive on it. Agrees with the weakest stomach of the Invalid and Aged. Invigorating as a Quick Lunch at office or table.

Ask for Horlick's The Original

From Plantation to Your Table Untouched By Human Hands "Sweetheart Brand Peanut Butter Canada's Finest Made from the Sweetheart of the nute