WATFORD, JUNE 4, 1915.

Died at Ottawa

The funeral of the late Jonathan White took place from his residence, Ottawa, on May 31st. The late Mr. White died last week after a short illness at an Ottawa hespital. He was born in Wellington county, Ontario, on June 24tt, 1854, and was the son of the late Rev. James White, Methodist minister of New Connection. For a number of years he was a prominent business man in Sault Ste Marie, being engaged in the dry goods business. Later he joined the customs department there, and was transferred to the statistical branch of the same department at Ottawa, where he had remained for the last thirteen years, In 1879 he married Miss Elizabeth Frazer, who survives him. His demise will be regretted by a large circle of friends, as he was highly esteemed by all who knew him. Besides his widow he leaves one daughter, Mrs. E. Archambault, of Ottawa; one brother, Mr. John White, of Watford, Ont., and two sisters, Mrs. E. Ellis, of Guelph, Ont., and Mrs. G. W. Rife, of Fosm Lake, Sask. He was a prominent member of Dominion Methodist church. Many floral offerings were received, which included a large wreath from the staff of Dominion Methodist church.
