Mr. McKeough was born on May 1st.
1824, A. S. C. Ireland, and was therefore 64 years, 7 months and 6 days old when he died. His father came to Canada when he was but a child, settling at Paris. There reverses of fortune evertook him, and William at an early age was apprenticed to Mr.
Edward Jackton, of Hamilton, with whom he learned the tinamith's trade, and remained till he attained his majority. In 1847 he came to Chatham and went into business with his brother, Mr.
John McKoough. They started business in a small shop opposite where the Garner House now stands, and gradually grew up with the place until their trade assumed very large proportions.
When the country was poor, and settlers just launching out, they had almost every settler within a wide radius on their books, business in those days being moatly on credit, yet rarely were they known to press a customer, and never to fue unless dishonesty was evident.

For over 25 years they were the leading business firm in Chatham,

Deceased always took allively interest in public affairs, and his sterling qualties of head and heart gave great weight to his judgmant, and won for him the lasting popularity he has always enjoyed.

In Jan'y, 1871, he was honored with the Mayoralty of the town of Chatham and his administration of municipal affairs justified the public confidence. He was one of the promoters of the E. & was one of the promoters of the E. & H. Railway and the first president of the company. In Educational matters he has always taken a deep interest and for nearly thirty years has served on the School Board, during the last twelve or fourteen years of which term he has presided as its chairman. So deep was his interest in its work that on Tuesday night of last week he sent a brief note of apolegy to the Board for his enforced absence, which note called out general appressions of regret and sympathy. In palities Mr. McKeough was a pronounced and active Liberal, and on several occasions was urged by his party to accept a nomination, but declined. Anything he did not enjoy in the way of public hostors was due to his unwillingness to accept it. His views on all public matters were marked by a latitude and liberality which gave him the respect of all, and he was one of the few in which increasing years never blinded to the necessity of continual progress in every sphere. In religion he was a Mathodist and one of the trustees of Park St. Church. His public services, his sociability and his large he was a Methodist and one of the trustees of Park St. Church. His public services, his sociability and his large business acquaintance had endeared him to a wide circle of friends who will deeply deplore his loss. Particularly in the School Board and Church will he bemissed from among his fellow-workers. In 1854, Mr. McKeough marcied Elizabeth, second daughter of the late John Stone, Esq., Orford, who, with his three sons—Dr. Geo. T., J. Frank, and W. E. McKeough—and one daughter, survive him.

On Tuesday afternoon was a very large one, notwithstanding the terrible state of the roads, and many of the shops were closed, business being almost suspended. The pall-bearers were Messrs. E. W. Scane, Jas. Gardiner, D. R. Vanand Allen, R. Stephenson, C. R. Atkinson, H. F. Oumuing, Thomas H. Taylor, and John E. Brooke. The procession left the family residence at 2 p. m., the following being the order: Bearers in Carriages

The services at the Park St. Methodist Church were solemn and touching. The altar, communion rail and choir rail were draped with black, and the coffin and drapery were strewed with floral offerings. These tokens of respect were sent by many friends and by the various schools and vere very beautiful. The church was densely packed. Revs. Treleaven, Scott, Langford, McColl and King were present. After singing the 601st hymn: "Give Me the Wings of Faith to Rise," Rev. Mr. Scott-offered up a prayer. The 70th Paslm and part of the 15th chapter of 1st Corinthians were read and Rev. Mr. McColl was called on for a few remarks. He dwelt on the deceased in his capacity as a member and chairman of the Public School Board, as a gentleman and as a Christian, paying him the highest tributes in each and deploring his loss.

Rev. Mr. Langfort then delivered an address, of which the following is a fairly full report:

Collegiate Institute Board Meeting

Judge Bell, Chairman, and Mossra Martin, Scane, Craddock, and Dr. Samson, were present at Friday moraling's meeting of the C. I. Board.

A number of accounts were disposed of Mr. Twohey asked for an increase of $50 in his salary, but it was not considered expedient to grant his request at present.

Mr. Howard wrote, stating in effect that he had been seriously incommoded by being dropped at the end of the term after moving up to Chatham, and asking a grant of $100. It was discussed at length, when Mr. Soane moved, seconded by Dr. Samson, "That this Board cannot recognize they are at all responsible for the unfortuate position in which Nr. Howard is placed, and therefore they cannot recognize any
