

CHAPTER XXVIII.

IDOLATRY AT SINAI.

Israel in waiting—They turn to idolatry—Weakness of Aaron—The golden calf—God's covenant disannulled—Moses pleads for his people—His descent from the mount—A scene of heathen riot—Contrast between Aaron and Moses—Who is on the Lord's side?—The slaying of the rebellious—The necessity of administering justice—The tabernacle removed from the camp—Prayer of Moses—God's presence revealed—Glory of the countenance of Moses . . . 315-330

CHAPTER XXIX.

SATAN'S ENMITY AGAINST THE LAW.

Apparent success of Satan's first effort against God's government—His success turned to defeat—Renews his efforts on the earth—The antediluvians and the descendants of Noah reject the law—Satan seeks to seduce and destroy Israel—His machinations at Sinai—The universe witnessing the controversy—Through idolatry Satan degrades man's conception of God—Transgression of the fourth commandment dims man's knowledge of the Creator—Satan's warfare against every precept of God—The violation of the commandments in the name of religion—Satan's object to misrepresent the character of God—The justice of the law and the character of God to be vindicated before the universe . . . 331-342

CHAPTER XXX.

THE TABERNACLE AND ITS SERVICES.

Preparation for building the sanctuary—Liberality of the people—Description of the tabernacle—The tribe of Levi set apart—The garments of the priests—"The example and shadow of heavenly things"—The offerings to be without blemish—The daily ministration—The day of atonement—The heavenly sanctuary—Christ our high priest—Two places of ministration—The closing work—The final purification of the universe . . . 345-358

CHAPTER XXXI.

THE SIN OF NADAB AND ABIHU.

Dedication of the priests—Nadab and Abihu offer strange fire—Result of parental indulgence—God requires strict obedience—Effects of intemperance—Christians the temple of the Holy Spirit . . . 359-362